LIVE MEN SELECTED TO DO GREAT WORK.

No Dead Ones on the President's New Isthmian Canal Commission.

Harrod, the Only Member of Old Commission Reappointed—Shonts, Magoon and Wallace to Act as Executive Committee in Accordance With President's Plans to Get Results—Headquarters to be on Isthmus.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 3.—The personnel of the new Isthmian Canal Commission is as follows:

Theodore P. Shonts, chairman; Charles E. Magoon, Governor of canal zone; John F. Wallace, chief engineer; Rear-Admiral M. T. Endicott, U.S.N.; Brig.-Gen. Peter C. Hains, U.S.A. (retired;) Col. Oswald M. Ernest, Corps of Engineers, U.S.A.; Benjamin M. Harrod.

The appointment of Judge Magoon as Governor of the canal zone shall take effect on the date of his arrival on the isthmus, and the resignation of the incumbent of said office shall thereupon take effect.

The commissions of Messrs. Shonts, Magoon, Endicott, Hains and Harrod were delivered to them today and they took the oath of office as isthmian canal commissioners.

Later in the day the new body met at the office of the commission and perfected its organization. The first action taken was the appointment of an executive committee, composed of Chairman Shonts, Gov. Magoon and Chief Engineer Wallace. The question of the disposition of the minor officials and the clerical force was left open.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—The President has carried out his plans for the reorganization of the Isthmian Canal Commission as to the personnel and business methods generally, on the lines of the legislation he suggested to Congress at the last session which failed in the crush of business in the closing hours. Tonight, within half an hour after the President's departure from Washington, Secretary Taft, directly in charge of canal matters, made public the personnel of the new commission and the division of duties among them.

Only one member of the old commission was reappointed, Benjamin M. Harrod. Otherwise the commission is new from top to bottom, for there is a top and bottom and considerable difference between the functions and pay of the commissioners.

Finding he was obliged legally to appoint seven commissioners, the President did so, but he carried out his own plan by making three of them practically the full commission. The other four, though bearing title of commissioners, not only receive a much lower compensation, but are assigned much smaller fields of activity.

The President has also carried out his scheme of dividing up the work of canal building among the commissioners, so that nominally acting as a body on stated occasions, each individual member will operate in a special field.

The head of the commission is a trained railway man, chosen for his administrative abilities in the financial and purchasing field; the new Governor of the zone is a lawyer, who also has had to do with state affairs; the engineer-commissioner already is known for his ability in the execution of the practical work of canal cutting. The other members of the commission are placed to comply with the law as to the number of the commission, but are men of high ability as hydraulic engineers.

Secretary Taft told them today that they were expected to show results, and that is said to be the keynote for the President's action of today.

HEADQUARTERS ON ISTHMUS.

Under the President's order the actual headquarters of the commission will be in Panama, and there probably will be a considerable transfer of employés from Washington to that place, leaving here only a sufficient force to carry on the work of the administrative branch and to keep the duplicate accounts.

Chairman Shonts, with Governor Magoon, and Engineer Wallace, will spend most of his time in the zone, but as the administrative officers are directly in Mr. Shonts's charge, he will be in Washington more or less. The purchasing agent of the company will probably be established in New York.

Rear-Admiral Endicott and Col. Ernst are charged with important duties in connection with the navy and army. The admiral is chief of the Naval Bureau of Docks and Yards and Col. Ernst is not only in charge of important river and harbor works in the neighborhood of Chicago, but is president of the Mississippi River Commission, and a member of the International Deep Waterway Commission, which is to meet during the summer at Toronto. Their continued presence on the isthmus is not necessary, and it probably will be quite sufficient if they are there only long enough to attend the regular meeting at Panama. This will enable Admiral Endicott to meet the President's wishes and continue at the head of the Bureau of Yards and Docks.

Col. Ernst will be relieved of the river and harbor work in the Chicago division by Col. Wukkuan H. Bixby, Corps of Engineers, now on sick leave.

Engineer Wallace, who is now on his way from Panama, will be here Wednesday or Thursday.

Col. Ernst will continue to act as the president of the Mississippi River Commission and member of the International Deep Waterway Commission.

Gov. Magoon will be required to reside permanently on the isthmus and has resigned his present position as law officer of the Bureau of Insular Affairs. It is the present intention to refrain from filling the vacancy thus created. The Insular Bureau, like the other bureaus of the War Department, will call on the Judge Advocate General's office for any necessary legal advice.

Mr. Shonts left here tonight for a brief visit to the West to finish up some private matters demanding his attention.

WORKING COMMISSION.

OLD ONE WAS TOO SLOW.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 3.—The personnel of the new Isthmian Canal Commission appointed by the President was announced at the War Department today, and in connection with the announcement, Secretary Taft gave out for publication a statement showing the allotments of salaries to the new commissioners, and his own letter to the President and one from the latter, explaining the plan of reorganization of the commission; the reasons therefor and the particular duties to be assigned to each commissioner. The first reads as follows:

COMMISSIONER'S SALARIES.

"The President has made an order allowing a salary of $7500, with traveling expenses, to each member of the commission, and to the chairman of the commission the additional compensation of $22,500; to the chief engineer the additional compensation of $17,500, and to the Governor of the Canal Zone, the additional compensation of $10,000. The head of each department is allowed the use of a furnished house on the isthmus and his traveling expenses when traveling on the business of the commission. The total is $102,500. The salaries and allowances under the former commission amounted to $120,000. The total compensation of the Governor of the zone and the chief engineer are each unchanged.

"Prof. William H. Burr and William B. Parsons, civil engineers, will be appointed as members of the consulting board of engineers."

TAFT'S RECOMMENDATIONS.

Secretary Taft's letter to the President is as follows:

"WAR DEPARTMENT,

"Washington (D. C.) March 30, 1905.

"Mr. President: In the matter of the reorganization of the machine by which the Panama Canal is to be built, I beg first to call your attention to the extreme importance of fixing a definite plan with respect to which you may feel reasonably certain, first, that it can be practically executed and will result in a navigable canal, and, second, that the navigable canal will be the one best adapted to the demands which may be made on it by the commerce of the world.

"The act of Congress evidently contemplates a canal with locks, the cost of which shall be in the neighborhood of $200,000,000, including the money already expended. It is quite within the bounds of possibility that the best form of canal will be a sea-level canal, with a tidal lock only at one end of it, and that the cost of it may exceed the $200,000,000 in the mind of Congress by at least $100,000,000 more.

"The work of the engineering department of the present commission has been largely devoted to obtaining the data upon which the plan of the canal must be determined. These data include topographical measurements, borings, the character of the soil, the flow of water in the rivers—all stated with sufficient exactness to secure the closest calculations by experienced engineers, though not on the ground. It is probable that within the next few months these data will have been so fully ascertained by the chief engineer, Mr. Wallace, and his assistants, that they may be submitted to a board of engineers of the highest standing for recommendations as to the best plan upon which to proceed with the work.

"It has also been made apparent, by the reports of Mr. Wallace and by the commission, that whatever plan is likely to be adopted for the work of excavation and construction, which would have to be done under any plan, may proceed without waste of energy for a period quite long enough to enable you to decide which is the best plan.

ADVISORY BOARD.

"I suggest, therefore, that the first work to be done is the appointment of an advisory board of engineers, say, seven or nine in number, to be selected from the engineers having especial knowledge of hydraulic engineering and canal construction, to whom shall be submitted all possible information with respect to the projected Panama Canal, both that obtained by the French engineers before our purchase of the plant, and the data obtained by the chief engineer of the present Canal Commission, together with all projects suggested for the solution of the problem which the canal commissioners deem reasonably possible or practicable; that the advisory board be invited to Washington for the purpose of agreeing upon its recommendations in the premises, and that if possible such recommendations be made before the regular meeting of Congress in December; that the recommendations be submitted to the Canal Commission as then constituted for its approval or modification, and that the recommendations of the Canal Commission be submitted to the President for his action and transmittal to Congress. As already suggested, this work of securing the best plan and its approval by Congress need not delay in any way the preliminary work adapted to any possible plan, or the highly critical work of sanitation, the extreme importance of which has already been emphasized in your previous instructions to the canal commission.

OLD BODY TOO INERT.

"It is conceded, even by its own members, that the present commission has not so developed itself into an executive body as to give hope that it may be used successfully as an instrumentality for carrying on the immense executive burden involved in the construction of the canal, and it remains for the President, in the failure of Congress to act, to reorganize the commission both by changing the personnel and by certain instructions as to its internal procedure and distribution of powers and authority to secure greater rapidity in the doing of the work.

"It is not to be supposed that Congress intended that the commission was personally to do the work, or come nearer to the direct agencies in doing the work than the directorate of a railroad comes to the construction of railroad work, and we may assume, therefore, that it was quite within the Congressional intention that the commission might, for convenience and rapidity of action, after formulating the general plan of work, delegate to a committee or committees the doing of work in detail, the result to be reported subsequently, of course, to the full commission. The commission should, therefore, appoint an excutive committee, to be constituted and empowered as hereafter stated."

DIVISION OF THE WORK.

The Secretary then states in detail his plan for the division of the work into departments and reasons therefor, all of which details are accepted and set forth in the President's order. The letter concludes as follows:

"The change of headquarters and power from Washington to the isthmus will doubtless require a radical change in the office of the commission in Washington. I am quite sure that greater economy and more satisfactory methods of accounting can be secured than now exist. Machinery for purchase of supplies and a force sufficient to maintain a duplicate set of accounts and the necessary correspondence must necessarily be maintained in Washington, but little else is needed. But these changes may safely be left to the commission and Executive Committee, as newly constituted.

"I beg to submit herewith the resignations of all the present canal commissioners, to take effect at your pleasure.

"I respectfully recommend the appointment of a new commission and a designation of the chairman of the commission, the Governor of the canal zone and the chief engineer, and the issuing of an executive order embodying the recommendations herein. Respectfully yours,

"WILLIAM H. TAFT,
"Secretary of War."

THE PRESIDENT'S ACTION.

The President's action is indicated in the following reply:

"THE WHITE HOUSE,
"Washington (D. C.) April 1, 1905.

"The practical result of the operations of the Isthmian Canal Commission appointed, acting under previous executive orders has not been satisfactory and requires a change in the personnel of the commission and instructions for ist guidance.

"The commission will hold quarterly

COFFINS FOR MANY.

Disaster at Joseph Leiter's Mine.

Fifty Men Entombed by Gas Explosion at Bottom of Deep Shaft.

Small Hope of Rescuing Any of Unfortunates Alive or Uninjured.

Work of Rescue Dangerous on Account of Foul Air in the Mine.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BENTON (Ill.) April 3.—Some fifty miners were entombed today in Joseph's Leiter's mine at Zeigler, by a terrific explosion of gas, and it is probable that thirty or forty of the buried men are dead. Thus far four bodies have been found. The explosion was due to the fact that the Leiter mines are not worked on Sunday, thus allowing gas to accumulate in the lower workings.

When between thirty-five and forty-five miners had descended into the mine today to resume work, a terrific explosion blew the timbers about the mouth of the mine high into the air. One of the steel cages was blown to the surface from the bottom of a 500-foot shaft. The shock of the explosion was felt at Benton, twelve miles distant.

One miner was killed and four were severely injured at the mouth of the shaft in which the explosion occurred. The work of rescue was begun at once by miners who were arriving at the time the explosion took place, but the main shaft was so badly wrecked that rescue work has to be carried on there through the airshafts. This has hindered the work of aiding all the entombed men to such an extent, that when darkness fell tonight only three bodies and one injured man had been brought to the surface. These bodies were found forty feet from the bottom of the airshaft, and this is as far as the rescuers have been able to penetrate the shaft.

A committee of union miners from Duquoin and other neighboring mining towns, headed by District President Morris, hastened to Zeigler soon after the explosion occurred and offered their aid.

The bodies of the dead are so blackened that they cannot at once be identified. Rolly Campbell is the injured miner brought out of the shaft and it is said that he cannot live. Campbell is conscious, but he is unable to give any explanation of the accident.

There was much excitement among miners when the accident became known, because there had been a strike of long duration and many conflicts had occurred between strikers and non-union miners.

An all-day investigation tends to show that the catastrophe was due to the accidental explosion of accumulated gas.

Up to 10 o'clock tonight fifteen dead bodies had been recovered. The work of rescue is made very difficult and dangerous by the foulness of the air in the mine. Only two of the bodies found show marks of the explosion, death in the other cases having evidently resulted from asphyxiation.

Joseph Leiter is expected to reach Zeigler tonight, although it was at first reported that he was en route to Europe. Rescue work will continue all night.

Tonight thirty-one coffins accompanied by an undertaker, arrived in Zeigler.

The number of dead is estimated at thirty-four; wounded eight.

It transpires that there were two explosions, close together. The first explosion took place in the air shaft and was followed by a much greater explosion in the main shaft. There were employed in the mine only 180 men, 120 being at work days. Four cages containing ten men of the day force had gone down into the mine and were supposedly at the bottom when the catastrophe occurred.

The explosion wrecked the shaft, blowing out the skids on which the cages were hoisted. Of the thirty-four men thought to be dead, only fifteen had been taken out at 10 o'clock tonight. Besides these bodies, three were removed alive, but with fatal injuries. Among the dead are James Reyburn, engineer; J. P. Fink and Willis Campbell. The remainder are Greeks and Lithuanians and were designated by numbers. As soon as the accident occurred the miners of Duquoin sent the following message to the Zeigler Coal Company:

"Miners here proffer assistance in any number. Wire answer.

"A. T. MORRIS, Foreman."

The following answer was received:

"Thanks for offer of yourself and miners. Have all the help needed.

"ZIEGLER COAL COMPANY."

Superintendent Hurd tonight said that the shaft was a wreck and that the main entrance was so disabled that it would take a week to repair it.

FIGHT IN EQUITABLE GROWS MORE BITTER.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The factional fight in the Equitable Assurance Society grows more bitter every day, and all hopes of reconciliation between the various interests struggling for control of its enormous wealth was abandoned today and the cry "no quarter" came from all sides.

The leader in the fight, whose name has figured but little in the more recent controversies, but whose work becomes more and more apparent daily, is second Vice-President Tarbell, who is credited with an ambition to succeed Hyde as first vice-president, and then James W. Alexander as president. That Alexander will retire as soon as the present row is over, there is little doubt.

Tarbell is allied with the Alexander forces and has all the strength of the Equitable agencies behind him—a tremendous factor under mutualization administration.

A prominent director of the Equitable, who is strongly in favor of peace, said today: "I know a director in the society who has made three distinct efforts to bring about harmony. On each occasion, just when he thought he had accomplished something, he found some irreconcilable had stepped forward and blocked him. We have no evidence of who this irreconcilable is, but we believe it is Gage E. Tarbell. Tarbell is not in favor of any peace terms which do not include the complete ousting of Hyde. His ambition to be president of the society is well known. With Hyde out, his path to that office would be clear and probably nothing can stop him achieving his ambition."

President Alexander is preparing his statement in answer to that issued by Hyde Saturday. Meantime, a gentleman closely identified with the Alexander interests said today: "This fight is not over. Hyde's demand for an investigation has weakened him and strengthened our side. State Superintendent Hendricks may rest assured he will get all the aid he needs from us. The investigation just suits us. We started the fight to oust Hyde and will not quit until we have accomplished it."

INVESTIGATION BEGUN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, April 3.—The most important development in the Equitable Life Assurance Society's affairs today was the announcement tonight by Gov. Higgins at Albany and by President James W. Alexander, of the society, in this city, that the State Superintendent of Insurance, Francis Hendricks, had begun an investigation of the company's affairs.

This was followed by the introduction in the State Senate tonight of a resolution providing for a legislative investigation of the Equitable. The resolution was presented by Senator Brackett.

Hendricks returned to Albany last night, after several days spent in conference with those interested in Equitable matters in this city. The Governor's announcement came less than twelve hours after the superintendent had reached his Albany office and was followed by a formal announcement from Hendricks's office in this city tonight to the same effect. This action by the State authorities follows a request made by Alexander to Superintendent Hendricks by letter February 21, and by Hyde in a later letter, announcement of which was made last Saturday night.

Its an authorized statement—the first Alexander has made since the State Superintendent was called into the controversy—the president of the Equitable says that the investigation by Hendricks "is now in progress."

"Its result," he adds, "will establish the truth or falsity of many matters which are now being alleged on the one hand and controverted on the other."

He also takes occasion to deny some of the statements made formally by Hyde last Saturday night.

ALEXANDER'S STATEMENT.

Alexander's statement follows: "It has been my settled purpose to avoid, as far as possible, a discussion in the public press of the merits of any phase of the controversies now existing within the Equitable Life Assurance Society. It is properly a matter of concern with me to avoid any expression which will embarass the board of directors in the discharge of its duties or that will give rise to premature judgments on any matter affecting the society or any individual. I am confirmed in this resolve by the fact that an examination of the society was asked for by me through a letter addressed to the Superintendent of Insurance on February 21, 1905. This examination is now in progress. Its result will establish the truth or falsity of many matters which are now being alleged on the one hand and controverted on the other.

"In a signed statement issued by the vice-president of the society, James H. Hyde, on Saturday, April 1, 1905, certain statements were made which I cannot allow to pass unchallenged. He says that the charges that have been made against him have their origin in an effort by individuals to obtain control of the Equitable Society and its assets. On the part of myself and other officers of the society who are associated with me in this movement I desire to deny that our action is influenced by any motive except a desire to discharge our duty as officers of the society.

"Mr. Hyde further says that he has exercised no power except with the president's concurrence. In reply, I assert that Mr. Hyde's usurpation of the president's authority and his habitual action without the consent or the knowledge of the president of the society are among the subjects of serious criticism against his conduct as an officer of the society.

"Mr. Hyde's request for an examination of the society's affairs by the Superintendent of Insurance must be viewed as an acquiescence of my course in this respect which a few days ago Mr. Hyde was disposed to regard as taken without authority.

"I have thus far made no denial of the frequent assertion that as one of the trustees of the Hyde stock I am vested with the voting power upon it. The trust expressly provides that no vote shall be cast upon the Hyde shares at any election of the society by the three trustees, except for a person approved by James H. Hyde, who is also one of the trustees."

The section under which Superintendent Hendricks today began his investigation is thirty-nine of the insurance law, which provides that the Superintendent of Insurance may, as often as he deems it expedient, "appoint one or more persons as examiners to examine into the affairs of any such corporation and its books with reference to its business. Every such corporation, its officers and agents shall produce its books and all papers in its or their possession relating to its business or affairs for the inspection and examination of such examiners whenever required."

The law also provides for a hearing to the corporation on the examiners' report before filing such report.

The announcement of an investigation was preceded by a statement that the hearing before the Superintendent of Insurance on the application of the Crimmins policyholders committee, which had been set for tomorrow has been postponed.

SMITHS HAVE A DOUBLE FIGHT ON.

EXTRADITION AND DETECTIVES WORRYING NAN'S FOLKS.

Proceedings at Cincinnati Yesterday in Notorious "Caesar" Young Case Consisted Largely in Haggling Over Legal Technicalities. Letters Taken to New York.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CINCINNATI, April 3.—The contest by J. Morgan Smith and wife, relatives of Nan Patterson, against extradition, and the fight against the New York detectives will go hand in hand. This was indicated by the proceedings in court today. Attorney Shay, for the defense, asked for time to prepare an answer. The court granted till Wednesday, when the habeas corpus proceedings will be disposed of.

Shay was asked what he intended to do about the letters of the Smiths that were taken by the detectives and sent to New York. He replied that action would be taken against these officers.

When the habeas corpus case in behalf of Smith was called Attorney Shay alleged that the information or affidavit upon which the Smiths are held in Cincinnati was made out after the writ of habeas corpus had been issued.

"If this is true, the persons now in custody are held illegally and ought to be set free," said Judge Spiegel.

"I wish to procure witnesses to show that this is true," said Attorney Shay, "and therefore ask for a continuance."

"Your Honor," said Prosecuting Attorney Rulison, "we have all the papers necessary to hold these people here, with the exception of the copy of the indictment. We telegraphed to New York Saturday afternoon and received word that the copy was being made with all haste and would be expressed here immediately. This morning, by long-distance telephone, we ascertained that the papers had been sent, and we have been trying all morning to locate the money wagon of the Adams Express, in which the package will be found. The package arrived here this morning, but so far has not been delivered. We are ready to go on with the habeas corpus proceedings, but ask for a continuance in the matter of the extradition."

The court then continued the case, remanding the prisoners to the County Jail, in charge of the Sheriff.

The nucleus of the defense's contention is that the requisition papers were not issued by Gov. Herrick, but by a clerk and that the issue of papers of extradition is an executive prerogative which cannot be delegated. When the papers were issued Gov. Herrick and his party were in Texas. He had left with his executive clerk a number of forms of extradition papers signed in blank. It was one of these blanks that was duly filled out for the return of the Smiths today.

TAMMANY MAN PUTS UP.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] From some mysterious source there has arisen an influence that has made for J. Morgan Smith and his wife, brother-in-law and sister of Nan Patterson, powerful friends in Cincinnati. When they were arrested their combined assets amounted to $3.74. Now they have one of the most prominent firms of criminal lawyers in the city actively engaged in trying to keep them out of the jurisdiction of the New York courts.

It is reported along upper Broadway where the approaching trial of Nan Patterson is discussed in all resorts patronized by theatrical and sporting people, that the money which is said to have been sent to Cincinnati to aid the Smiths was contributed by a prominent Tammany politician. His interest in the case is said to have been aroused through a woman who knew Nan Patterson and "Caesar" Young. The woman is convinced that Nan Patterson did not kill the bookmaker, but is sure Smith bought the revolver with which the killing was done. Consequently, she has determined to bend her efforts to keep Smith away from New York and to that end has obtained financial support of the Tammany man. She told persons who knew of her interest in Nan Patterson that her Tammany friend would put up $100,000 if necessary.

Scores of persons in New York knew of the whereabouts of Smith ever since he disappeared. In nearly every theatrical company that visited Montreal there were persons who knew either Smith or his wife. Smith was soliciting insurance. To those who asked him why he had fled, he said he got a tip that he was to be locked up and held as a witness, and concluded to leave rather than spend months in jail awaiting the trial.

James J. Hill, president of the Great Northern Railroad, arrived at Lakewood, N. J., on a special train, accompanied by his wife. It had been reported that Mrs. Hill was seriously ill, but her husband said her illness was not serious.

sessions, the first of January, April, July and October of each year, at the office of the Governor of the Isthmus of Panama, and will continue each session as long as public business may require. Further notice of such meetings shall not be necessary to their regularity. The commission may hold special sessions at the call of the chairman. Four members shall constitute a quorum, and the action of such majority shall be the action of the commission.

"The commission, under the supervision and direction of the Secretary of War, and subject to the approval of the President, is charged with the general duty of the adoption of plans for the construction and maintenance of the canal, and with the execution of the work of the same; with the purchase and delivery of supplies, machinery and necessary plants, in the employment of the necessary officers, employés and laborers, and with the fixing of their salaries and wages; with the commercial operation of the Panama Railroad Company and its steamship lines as common carriers; with the utilization of the railroad as a means of constructing the canal; with the making of contracts for construction and excavation, and with all other matters incident and necessary to the building of the waterway across the Isthmus of Panama as provided by the act of Congress of June 28, 1902.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

"For convenience and to secure the uninterrupted course of the work, an executive committee of not less than three members of the commission shall be appointed by the commission to act in place of the commission during the intervals between the meetings of the commission, and, to report its doings in full to the commission at the next regular meeting. The minutes of every transaction of the executive committee shall be made and a copy of the minutes shall be forwarded to the Secretary of War and another transmitted for the consideration of the committee at its next meeting. Regular meetings of the executive committee shall be held at the office of the Governor on the Isthmus of Panama at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of each Monday and Wednesday of every week, and further notice of such meetings shall not be necessary to their legality. A majority of their number shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business at such meetings. The action of such majority shall be the action of the executive committee.

"For convenience of executing the work to be done there shall be constituted three executive departments:

FIRST DEPARTMENT.

"The head of the first department shall be the chairman of the commission, who shall have direct and immediate charge of:

"(1.) The fiscal affairs of the committee.

"2.) The purchase and delivery of all materials and supplies.

"(3.) The accounts, book-keeping and auditing.

"(4.) The commercial operations in the United States of the Panama Railroad and Steamship lines.

"(5.) He shall have charge of the general concerns of the commission, subject to the supervision and direction of the Secretary of War, and shall perform such other duties as may be placed upon him from time to time by the Secretary of War.

SECOND DEPARTMENT.

"The head of the second department shall be the Governor of the canal zone, with the duties and powers indicated in the executive order of May 9, 1904, which includes in general:

"(1.) The administration and enforcement of law in the zone.

"(2.) All matters of sanitation within the canal zone, and also in the cities of Panama and Colon and the harbors, etc., so far as authorized by the treaty, the executive orders and decrees of December 3, 1904, between the United States and the Republic of Panama, relating thereto.

"(3.) The custody of all supplies needed for sanitary purposes, and such construction necessary for sanitary purposes as may be assigned to this department by the commission.

"(4.) Such other duties as he may be charged with from time to time by the Secretary of War.

"(5.) He shall reside on the Isthmus of Panama, and devote his entire time to the service, except when granted leave of absence by the Secretary of War.

THIRD DEPARTMENT.

"The head of the third department shall be the chief engineer. He shall have full charge on the isthmus:

"(1.) Of all the actual work of construction carried on by the commission on the isthmus.

"(2.) The custody of all the supplies and plants of the commission on the isthmus.

"(3.) The practical operation of the railroad on the isthmus, with the special view to its utilization in canal constructions work.

"(4.) He shall reside on the isthmus and devote his entire time to the service, except when granted leave of absence by the Secretary of War.

KEEPING OF ACCOUNTS.

"All officers and employés shall be appointed and their salaries shall be fixed by the head of the department in which they are engaged. Their appointment and salary shall be subject to the approval either of the commission or, if the commission is not in session of the executive committee. The executive employment of laborers where the contract of employment is made in the United States or outside of the isthmus, shall be negotiated and concluded by the chairman of the commission, subject to the approval of the executive committee. Where the employment is effected on the isthmus, it shall be conducted under the supervision of the chief engineer, subject to the approval of the executive committee.

"Contracts for the purchase of supplies or of construction involving an estimated expenditure exceeding $10,000, shall only be made after due public advertisement in newspapers of general circulation, and shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder, except in case of emergency, when with the approval of the Secretary of War, advertising may be dispensed with. In the making of contracts for supplies or construction involving an estimated expenditure of more than $1000 and less than $10,000, competitive bids should be secured by invitation or advertisement whenever practicable.

"As soon as practicable after the date of this order the Isthmian Canal Commission, as hereafter constituted, shall hold a session in the city of Washington for the general purposes of organization under this order, and for the important purposes of preparing the number and character of officers and employés to serve in the city of Washington in the work of the commission. The commission is especially charged wth the duty of maintaining a complete system of accounts on the isthmus which shall be duplicated in Washington, so that there may be always in Washington the proper means of informing the President, the Secretary of War and the Congress of the amount of work done, the cost of the same, the amount of money available, the amount of money expended and the general financial condition of the enterprise.

CONSULTING ENGINEERS.

There will hereafter be appointed by the President nine civil engineers of the highest standing, having experience in work of canal construction and hydraulics, to constitute a board of consultation, to which will be submitted by the Isthmian Canal Commission, for its consideration and advice, the important engineering questions arising in the selection of the best plan for the construction of the canal. The recommendation of the board of consulting engineers shall be considered by the Isthmian Canal Commission and with the recommendations of the commission shall finally be submitted, through the Secretary of War, to the President for his decision.

"The executive officers of the commission shall make duplicate reports on the work and operation of their respective departments to the Secretary of War and the Isthmian Canal Commission from time to time and as often as may be required by the Secretary of War or the chairman of the Commission.

"The Secretary of War will make to the President a report at least annually, and as often as he may deem advisable or the President may require, that all executive orders relating to the subject of the Panama Canal, except so far as they may be inconsistent with the present order, remain in force."

The order closes with the announcement of the appointment of the commission.

RECLAMATION ENGINEER.

MR. GRUNSKY'S NEW BERTH.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Carl E. Grunsky, who retires as a member of the Isthmian Canal Commission, has been appointed consulting engineer of the reclamation service at a salary of $10,000 a year. He will act as adviser to Director Walcott of the Geological Survey in determining the larger questions connected with irrigation works under the Reclamation Act. Grunsky's appointment has not yet been announced, but was made by the President before his departure today, and Grunsky will begin his new duties within a day or two.

Engineer Grunsky has had much experience in irrigation work and at one time he was connected with the Geological Survey. He has been recognized as one of the leading engineers of the country in that line of work. He was recommended to the President by Director Walcott, and the friendly relations of the two men are expected to aid materially in disposing of serious problems now confronting them. Engineer Grunsky's salary will be paid from the funds of the reclamation service.

The President was at no time dissatisfied, personally, with Grunsky, as was made to appear in newspaper reports. He has high regard for him and has said frequently that he wished public officials generally were as conscientious in discharging their duties as Grunsky had been. It was with pleasure, therefore, that the President was able to retain Grunsky in the public service, in a line of work suited to his experience and preference. Mr. Grunsky is not at all sorry to sever his connection with the branches of the canal work which fell to him, in order to take up a more congenial task in connection with irrigation problems.

Supreme Court Affirms Decision of Circuit in Famous Case—Chief Justice Fuller Says Merger Was in Contravention of Public Policy and Violation of Sherman Law.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 3.—In the Supreme Court of the United States today the Chief Justice handed down the opinion of the court in the case of Harriman vs. the Northern Securities Company, the decision of which was announced several weeks ago. The motion for the immediate issuance of the mandate was denied, the date for issuance being fixed for April 15.

After stating the case at length the Chief Justice said:

"In the present case complainants seek the return of property delivered to the Securities Company, pursuant to an executed contract of sale on the ground of the illegality of that contract, but the record discloses no special considerations of equity, justice or public policy, which would justify the courts in relaxing the rigor of the rule which bars a recovery. The Circuit Court decrees, and the action of the Attorney-General of the United States puts at rest any question that the rateable distribution resolved upon was in violation of public policy, and it is clear that delivery to complainants of a majority of the total of the Northern Pacific stock and a rateable distribution of the remaining assets to the other securities stockholders would not only be in itself inequitable, but would directly contravene the object of the Sherman law and the purposes of the government suit.

"The decree of the Circuit Court is affirmed and the case remanded to that court with a direction to dismiss the bill."

PHILIPPINES TARIFF.

COURT OF CLAIMS REVERSED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Justice Holmes of the Supreme Court of the United States today delivered the opinion of that court in the case of Henry W. Peabody & Co. and Warner Barnes & Co., vs. the United States in opposition to the contentions of the government.

These suits were brought to recover duties from the firms on merchandise shipped by them from New York to Manila, between April 11, 1899, the date when the ratifications of the treaty with Spain were exchanged, and October 25, 1901. The decision followed the lines of the judgment of the court in the fourteen diamond rings case, in which it was held that after the titles passed to the United States, there was nothing in the Philippines insurrection of sufficient gravity to give the islands the character of foreign countries within the meaning of the tariff act.

Justice Holmes said:

"The President's order was issued during the war with Spain, nine months before the treaty of peace was made. It was a measure taken with reference to that war alone, and not with reference to the insurrection of the native inhabitants of the Philippines, which did not happen until much later. The natural view would be that the order expired by its own terms when the war with Spain was at an end. The order says: 'That upon the occupation of any forts and places in the Philippines by the forces of the United States, the duties shall be levied and collected as a military contribution.'

"Of course this was not a power in blank for a military occasion which might turn up in the future. It was a regulation for and during an existing war, referred to as definitely as if it had been named."

The opinion reverses decisions by the Court of Claims and of the District Court for the Southern District of New York.

SHIP OWNERS' LIABILITY.

CIRCUIT COURT REVERSED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 3.—In an opinion by Judge Day, the Supreme Court of the United States today reversed the opinion of the Circuit Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit in the case of Hackefeldt & Co. vs. the United States. The case involved the construction of the law holding shipowners responsible for neglect to return immigrants when requested to do so. In this case the immigrants were Japanese who escaped from a locked room on shipboard. The government took the position that the statute requires the return of rejected immigrants under all circumstances, and the Circuit Court of Appeals took that view. The Supreme Court, however, took the view in today's opinion, that ship-owners are required only to exercise due diligence in such cases, and failed to hold the ship-owners responsible for the escape of the immigrants.

TRY TO WRECK ESPEE TRAIN.

Ties Twice Piled on Track at Albany, Oregon.

Several Shots Are Fired at the Engineer Also.

Simmons et al. Turned Down by Supreme Court.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ALBANY (Or.) April 3.—Two attempts were made here during the night to wreck the Southern Pacific southbound Overland train from Portland. A freight train, northbound, was derailed by a pile of ties on the track one mile north of the city. Later, a second pile of ties was found on the track one-third of a mile farther north. All the obstructions were placed so as to wreck the train coming south. As the Overland passed, several shots were fired at the engineer. Today, shotgun shells were found on the tracks. This is the second attempt to wreck the Overland in two weeks. Officers and detectives are at work on various clews and several men known to have been in the neighborhood of the attempted wreck are under suspicion. The railroad company this afternoon posted an offer of $500 reward for information leading to the arrest of the men who perpetrated the outrage.

DUNSMUIR'S DEMENTIA.

DAILY DRINK HABITS TOLD OF.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

VICTORIA (B. C.) April 3.—E. V. Bodwell, counsel for Edna Wallace Hopper in her suit against James Dunsmuir to break Alexander Dunsmuir's will, today dealt at length with the evidence given of alcholic dementia of Alexander Dunsmuir.

He also dealt exhaustively with Alexander Dunsmuir's drinking habit, stating the frequent warnings that were given to him by his medical advisers who told him that if he did not refrain from drinking he would die. Bodwell also quoted the testimony of Harrison of San Francisco relative to the quantity of liquor consumed by Alexander Dunsmuir daily, and said that the evidence showed that he became so objectionable that he was expelled from the Union Club of this city. He criticised the evidence of Dr. Davie of Victoria, who contended that Alexander Dunsmuir did not suffer from alcoholic dementia.

FATE OF EXPELLED SENATORS.

WRIT OF MANDATE IS DENIED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—The State Supreme Court today denied an application for a writ of mandate to compel the restoration to office of State Senators Bunkers, French, Wright and Emmons, who were recently expelled from the State Senate for accepting bribes to influence their votes in regard to legislation affecting building and loan associations.

Attorney D. D. Collins appeared before the court, sitting in bank, in behalf of the ousted Senators, and made an elaborate argument in their behalf. He contended that they had been found guilty without trial, and that the Senate had no power to expel them as an ex-parte hearing. The power of the court, therefore, was invoked to restore him to their former positions. Chief Justice Beatty asked if there were any precedents for the desired action, Attorney Collins replied in the negative. He was then asked by the Chief Justice whether or not legislative bodies had exclusive power over their own members. The attorney held that the Senate had no arbitrary power and that the question was one for the courts to decide.

Atty.-Gen. Webb, in behalf of the State, opposed the contentions of Attorney Collins and maintained that the Senate had not exceeded its power in expelling the Senators.

In his closing argument, Collins insisted that the accused should have been given a hearing before final action was taken.

Chief Justice Beatty, after a few minutes consultation with his associates, denied the writ of mandate.

Attorney Collins announced that an appeal would be taken to the Supreme Court of the United States.

SCIENTIST IN TROUBLE.

MONEY BY FALSE PRETENSE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TACOMA, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A. M. Aten, a scientist who is studying bird and mammal life in Alaska, in the interest of a Brooklyn institute, has been arrested at Fairbanks, Alaska, on a telegraph warrant from Valdez, charging him with obtaining money by false pretenses from P. D. Blodgett, a steamboat man. Aten last October gave Blodgett a check for $200 on a bank in New York which was not honored. The authorities believe the check was given in good faith and are attempting to settle the affair so the prisoner will not have to return to Valdez for trial and lose his summer's work.

Aten is a son of the famous hunter and naturalist, who, at the time of his death, had the largest private bird collection in America. He is well known on the Atlantic Coast.

MURDERER TRIES SUICIDE.

BOUND TO HIS COT IN PRISON.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PORTLAND (Or.) April 3.—John T. Coleman, the gambler, who, Sunday murdered Edna Hoffman, a notorious woman in this city, was today arrested in Centralia, Wash., while escaping from Portland on a Northern Pacific train. Coleman was taken to the County Jail at Chehalis, where he attempted to kill himself by cutting his throat with a razor, which he had concealed in his shoe. Later in the day Portland officers went to Chehalis, and on finding that there were good chances for the man's recovery, brought him to Portland. Coleman since his first attempt at suicide, has twice tried to tear the bandages from his throat, and for that reason it was deemed best to bind him hand and foot to a cot when he was placed in jail here.

Coleman admits that he killed the Hoffman woman because she failed to respond to his affections and asserts that he will make away with himself before he hangs for the crime. Boss Coleman and his victim came here recently from Spokane.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—William Henderson, who turned State's evidence against William Kauffman, Frank Woods, Allen Goucher, William Courtney and William Kennedy in their trials for the murder of Policeman E. C. Robinson in January, 1902, and was himself convicted of manslaughter for complicity in the murder, was today released on probation by Superior Judge Cook.

Dunsmuir Property Needs Attention.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—Public Administrator M. J. Hines applied today for special letters of administration on the estate of the late Alexander Dunsmuir, and the hearing of the petition has been set for Thursday. Steamer Mandalay Waterlogged.

EUREKA, April 3.—The steamer Mandalay, previously reported in a disabled condition off Crescent City, was towed into this harbor today by the tug Ranger. She is waterlogged and part of her deckload of lumber has been lost. Capt. Adler is in communication with the owners of the Mandalay as to the disposition of the vessel.

Raze Building to Stay Fire.

ALVARADO, April 3.—Fire which broke out in the second story of a saloon late last night wiped out five buildings and was checked from destroying the entire town only by tearing down the next structure in its path. The loss will amount to between $25,000 and $30,000, which is only partially covered by insurance.

Form Branch of League of Cross.

SACRAMENTO, April 3.—A branch of the League of the Cross, similar to the organization in San Francisco, was formed here yesterday, with fifty members. The cadets received their pledges from Right Rev. Bishop Thomas Grace, who delivered an impressive address. They take a pledge not to drink or frequent saloons until they are 21 years of age.

Lineman Perhaps Fatally Burned.

WOODLAND, April 3.—Walter Parks, a lineman in the employ of the Bay Counties Power Company, was today fatally burned while working on top of a pole. A small wire crossed the cable and immediately he was enveloped in a mass of flames. He was strapped to the pole. It was several minutes before fellow-linemen dared ascend the pole, as all the large wires were severed and aflame. Parks was removed to a drug store. His condition is precarious.

Mrs. Nellie Batterman Asphyxiated.

BERKELEY, April 3.—Mrs. Nellie B. Batterman, wealthy widow of T. S. Batterman, a well-known mining man, was found dead in her bed at her home, No. 2314 Channing Way, today. Death resulted from asphyxiation. The gas was found turned fully on and the door of the room was locked from the inside. Mrs. Batterman was a sufferer from palsy, and two years ago was suddenly stricken blind. She was 45 years old and leaves two children.

Promises Break up Lynching Bee.

REDDING, April 3.—Twenty-two masked and armed men assembled yesterday at Bullion Gulch, four miles west of Redding, took Steve Shumake, a half-breed Indian, and a man known as Bill from their abode, marched them to a near-by tree and proceeded to carry out plans to lynch them, for various thefts they are alleged to have committed. When the rope was ready Shumake asked for leave to go away, and was granted half an hour's time. He burned his cabin and departed. The other man was given time to close his business affairs before leaving.

Newcastle Orchards Escape Frost.

NEWCASTLE, April 3.—No frost damage has occurred to the Newcastle orchards and no injury except upon the low-lying lands is noticeable, and even tomato plants and grape vines have so far been uninjured. During the coming season, however, there will be a shortage of at least 25 per cent, from earlier estimates, caused by the recent long-continued rains, destroying the pollen and blighting the blossoms. The loss will extend to early and midsummer peaches and to cherries, plums and prunes. Certain kinds of pears, grapes, oranges and olives seem to be all right.

Three Vessels Refused Clearance.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—Collector of Customs Stratton has refused three vessels clearance from this port, on complaint of Immigration Commissioner North that aliens were landed from them without his knowledge and contrary to law. The vessels held up were the Kosmos liner Luxor, the German bark Prof. Koch, Capt. Schutt, and the German ship Magdalene, Capt. Klun. In every case the German Consul has formally protested, and asserted that Commissioner North's officers have been misled.

People Who Took Stock in Certain Well-advertised Plantation Anxious About Dividends.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Inquiring investors are being told at the offices of the Ubero plantations concern that everything is all right. A statement was issued tonight acknowledging the payment of unearned dividends and the added statement that through an oversight investors were not informed that no dividends were ever earned by the plantation company or that the Consolidate Ubero Plantation Company stoppage of dividends is explained by the statement that the past year has been a bad one and that the crops have failed.

The officers say that the report received by the Indianapolis Ubero Company show that over 250,000 pounds of coffee are rotting on the trees because labor to pick it cannot be obtained. The fact is omitted that this coffee is alleged to be in reality valueless and not marketable even if the labor could be obtained. Stockholders are beginning to crowd the offices to inquire what has been done with their money.

It was learned tonight that photographs of the rubber trees in various stages of growth were made in Boston, also that the photographs of crates of pineapples and cases and bags of coffee in the company's warehouses, with photographs of a coffee roasting plant in full operation, were not those of the Ubero concern at all, but of various other concerns located in or near Boston.

LOUISVILLE (Ky.) April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Secret-Service men are looking for a strange man who appeared at the Young Men's Christian Association building Saturday and remarked to an attendant that he intended to stop President Roosevelt during the parade to-morrow. "I've got something to ask him," the man, who was dressed as a workingman, is reported to have said, "and he'll have to answer."

BEAR FOR SLAUGHTER.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LAWTON (Okla.) April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A monster black bear recently trapped in the Wichita Mountains, is being held for release when President Roosevelt enters the half-million-acre Indian pasture near Frederick, next week.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—With cheers and good wishes resounding at the Pennsylvania depot, the President at 9:05 a.m. today, on a special train, started on a trip through the Southwest.

Among those at the station were many friends of the President, including Postmaster-General Cortelyou and Secretary Metcalf of the Department of Commerce and Labor.

The special train, which is one of the finest the Pennsylvania Railroad has ever sent out of Washington, consists of three cars, the President's private car, Rockele, the Pullman sleeper, Forest, and the combination baggage and buffet car, Viceroy. Attiached to the train, to be run as far as Baltimore as a buffer, was a day coach. The train is handsomely fitted and contains every known appliance to insure the comfort and safety of the passengers.

The train was scheduled to leave at 9 o'clock, but it was a minute after that hour when the President arrived at the station.

The delay was due to an accident which happened to one of the horses attached to the President's carriage soon after leaving the White House. The off horse fell, becoming entangled in the harness.

The President had been delayed also at the White House for a few minutes in signing some important papers. Even after he boarded his car, some papers were handed to him for his signature. It was just five minutes after the scheduled time of departure when the train drew out of the station.

In the party, besides the President, are Secretary Loeb, Gen. S. B. M. Young, Dr. Alexander Lambert, Lieut. G. R. Fortesque, one of the President's aides; M. C. Latta and J. I. McGrew, stenographers to the President; H. A. Strichmeyer, photographer, and representatives of newspaper press associations.

The trip is being primarily made to enable the President to attend the reunion of his old regiment, the Rough Riders, which is to be held at San Antonio, Tex., next Friday, and to hunt big game in Oklahoma and Colorado. Incidentally, the President will deliver notable addresses at several places en route. His first important stop will be made at Louisville, Ky., tomorrow morning, where he will be the guest of the city for a few hours. He will go directly to St. Louis and thence via the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroad to San Antonio, stopping at several places on the way, among them Sherman and Dallas, Tex.

After leaving San Antonio the President will go to Oklahoma for a wolf hunt, and will proceed thence to Colorado to hunt big game in the mountains. Unless it should be necessary, on account of unforeseen circumstances, to curtail the trip, the President will be absent from Washington about two months. Definite plans for the trip after he shall leave Oklahoma have not been made, the purpose of the President being to adjust his plans to the conditions as they may exist at the time. While he expects to be in the wilds of Colorado for a considerable time, he will keep in constant touch by means of couriers to the nearest telegraph station, with Washington, and thus will be enabled to attend to such important business as may demand his personal attention.

Dr. Lambert, who accompanies the President, is his physician, and has hunted throughout the country which the President will visit.

TAFT ON THE LID.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

HARRISBURG (Pa.) April 3.—"I don't exactly say that I need a rest, but I am going to take one in the open, under God's blue heaven," said President Roosevelt today, standing on the platform by his special train at the Pennsylvania station, and conversing with Congressman Olmstead, United States Attorney McCarroll and United States Marshal Leonard, in the presence of a great crowd that gathered at the station to meet him. It was suggested to the President that things would go along in a smooth manner, even if he were absent.

"Oh, things will be all right," he said. "I have left Taft sitting on the lid keeping down that Santo Domingo matter."

Later he said: "I am going to have an outing. I am going to get away where I won't even think of a fourth-class postmaster."

When the train came in the crowd was in the station balcony, and gave the President a cheer as the train stopped. He stood on the rear platform, waving his hand to the crowd and fairly beaming with good nature. When the train stopped the President stepped from the platform with the remark to a Secret Service officer: "Pass right along now, and if this crowd isn't too big, I'll shake hands with all of you."

At this there was a rush to shake hands with him. When some little girls were handed up to him, he said: "God bless the children," and then, turning to Congressman Olmstead, he said: "You know, I believe in these children."

To one old soldier with a button in his coat, the President said: "How are you, comrade?"

It was 1:07 as the train moved off. One man proposed three cheers for "Teddy," which were given with a will, and the President laughed heartily at the familiarity. His last remark as the train got up speed was a hearty "So long, boys; good-by."

CHICAGO MUNICIPAL ELECTION TO BE DECIDED TODAY.

Both Harlan and Dunne Confident But Blackboard Odds Favor Latter, Though Neither Side is Greatly Anxious to Place Money at Indicated Prices.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, April 3.—The municipal election to be held here tomorrow will in a large measure decide the street-railway question which for the past few years has been the issue in all local elections. Street-railway franchises estimated to be worth $200,000,000 are at stake. The question this year has simmered down to immediate municipal ownership under Judge Edward F. Dunne, the Democratic candidate, or a tentative arrangement with the traction companies providing for ultimate municipal ownership, under John M. Harlan, the Republican nominee. There are a number of other important issues to be decided, but all have been lost sight of, owing to the interest that has been wrought in the main issue.

Both Harlan and Judge Dunne have made a strenuous campaign of the city and tonight declare their confidence in being elected at the polls tomorrow. At the poolrooms the blackboard odds tonight are Dunne 1 to 5 and Harlan 3½ to 1, but no great anxiety was exhibited by either side to place much money at the indicated price.

The Prohibition and Socialist parties both have candidates in the field.

ST. LOUIS FIGHT STUBBORN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. LOUIS, April 3.—The Mayoralty election tomorrow will be the climax of the most stubbornly-fought contest in recent years. The Democrats have renominated Mayor Wells, the Republicans standard-bearer being John A. Tally and the other two tickets are headed by Lee Merriwether, Independent Public Ownership, and William Brandt, Socialist. In addition to the full city ticket, the people will be called upon to decide whether the city shall issue $9,000,000 worth of bonds to be used for public improvements.

REPUBLICANS SWEEP DETROIT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

COLORADO LEGISLATURE QUITS.

TIME LIMIT KILLS BILLS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

DENVER, April 3.—The Colorado Legislature adjourned sine die at midnight tonight.

In the Senate the Legislative Reapportionment Bill, which was intended to strengthen the power of the Republican party, was up on third reading and at 11 o'clock De Long, a Republican who has acted independently throughout the session, started to speak against the measure. He characterized it as "iniquitous" and said it was backed by gangsters who thought they saw a chance to increase their imaginary power. He yielded a moment on the request of Senator Booth in order that the bill could be finally read and approved, and as he was about to resume the President of the Senate announced that the hour of 12 had arrived and the life of the Senate expired by limitation. The supporters of the measure, realising that they did not have sufficient members to pass it, did not insist upon a vote.

Among other matters of legislation that died by reason of the expiration of the time limit, was the investigation of the bribery charges involving Senator Morgan.

CONNORS NOT IN COURT.

CHICAGO, April 3.—Superintendent J. T. Connors of Armour & Co., under indictment for alleged interfering with Federal grand-jury witnesses, failed to appear in person before Judge Landis today and thus failing to observe the formality of arraignment, was unable to push a motion for an immediate trial. Judge Landis said that he would not be in Chicago again for at least two weeks from today. Attorney Urion, general counsel for Armour & Co., said he would endeavor to have Connors in court this afternoon.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WARSAW, April 3, 10:44 p.m.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Increasing unrest in labor circles is notable and well-informed men are of the opinion that another general strike is imminent. A large manufacturer in a neighboring town refused a big contract last week, because, after conferring with the leaders among his workmen, he was convinced that all his employés would walk out within a month, in spite of the manufacturer's assurance that the employés would profit equally with himself by remaining to complete the contract.

The Governor-General has prohibited the sale of revolvers, pistols and cartridges throughout the whole territory under his administration. All the arms which were in the possession of the gun dealers have been handed over to the custody of the authorities.

Attacks on policemen are becoming more frequent. Two officers were wounded tonight, one of them being shot and another stabbed. Their assailants escaped.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 3.—The Holy Synod has yielded to the request presented at the recent meeting of the three Metropolitans and a number of bishops, that the church request the Emperor to summon in the spring from all Russia "a council of the church" for the purpose of revising the management of the church and restoring the patriarchate of Russia. Senator Sabler, the aide of Procurator-General Pobiedonostzeff, declares that the Procurator-General is also convinced of the necessity for greater freedom of the church, and says he will not oppose the proposed change.

An imperial manifesto was published in the Finland Gazette today, directing that, in compliance with the request of the Finnish estates, the military service law for Finland, issued in July, 1901, be temporarily repealed, pending legislative settlement of the question. The Gazette announces by imperial decree of March 29 the temporary decisions regarding the dismissal of Finnish judges are repealed.

Considerable excitement was caused at midnight by two Cossacks who attacked four pedestrians, killing two and wounding the others.

SPIKED FENCE AROUND CZAR.

PREPARATION FOR THE SUMMER.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LONDON, April 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Daily Mail says that preparations are being made for the Czar to remove to Peterhof for the summer. These preparations include encircling of a square mile of the park with a high, spiked-iron fence. In the meantime, His Majesty will remain at Tsarskoe-Selo, where he never goes outside the inner ring of guards surrounding the palace.

The correspondent quotes an informant at Tsarskoe-Selo to the effect that the Czar is cheerful, and that nobody would suspect from his demeanor the serious condition of the empire. He reads much English political and non-political literature, varying the time with card-playing.

DENVER LOAN MAN ON TRIAL.

DENVER, April 3.—The trial of E. M. Johnson, president of the defunct Fidelity Savings Association of Denver, on a charge of embezzlement of $11,000 of the association's funds, began in the criminal court here today. There are a number of indictments against Johnson and other officers, in which they are charged with falsifying books and accounts. These cases are based on the building and loan association law of 1897, which a plea in abatement alleges is unconstitutional. The question will not be passed on at the present term of court. The Fidelity Savings Association is in the hands of receivers, and its depositors, numbering many hundreds, have received nothing on their claims since its doors were closed, about a year ago.

OKLAHOMA AND THE OCTOPUS.

FORT WORTH (Tex.) April 3.—A special to the Record from Guthrie, Okla., says that Frank Frantz, the Rough Rider captain whom President Roosevelt named agent for the Osage Indians, is there conferring with United States Attorney Horace E. Speed relative to expected trouble between the Illuminating Oil Company, a branch of the Standard, and its sub-lessees in the Osage reservation. The company recently secured a renewal blanket lease and, with the beginning of the new year, yesterday, raised the rental on the sub-lease from $1 to $15 per acre. The sub-lessees are organizing for mutual protection.

CARELESS MRS. PHIPPS.

Returns to Jeweler Diamonds Unregistered and Mail Clerk Finds Sparklers in Pouch.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DENVER, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It was not the fault of Mrs. Genevieve Chandler Phipps that a plainly-wrapped parcel, unregistered and unprotected in any way more than an ordinary mail parcel, and containing diamonds worth $29,000, did not get East in such condition today. She gave the package to a carrier at her home, without comment. It was broken in his sack and a clerk in the postoffice discovered a diamond brooch. He reported the matter to his superior and the latter called the carrier. He told how he got it, and Mrs. Phipps was called up. She said the brooch came from a New York jeweler who wanted to sell it to her, and that she had decided to return it. The package was registered and sent on its way.

At first the clerks believed that the stones were paste, but a jeweler who was called in said they were genuine.

PURE, COOL MILK FOR BABIES.

NEW YORK, April 3.—Three trunk lines are reported by the Commissioner of Health to have agreed that they will bring all their milk to New York this summer in refrigerator cars, with every can and case packed in ice. The smaller railroad lines are expected to follow the same plan. An inevitable result, the health officers say, will be a material reduction in sickness among infants and consequently a lower death rate. There will be no rise in the price of milk in consequence of the purer supply. Elaborate plans are also being laid by the department to protect consumers during the coming warm season against impure or drugged product.

ANDREW D. WHITE'S ESCAPE.

NEW YORK, April 3.—Andrew D. White, former president of Cornell University and ex-Ambassador to Germany, Sunday had a narrow escape from death while returning to this city from New Haven. He was severely cut by glass from a broken window and escaped only by the narrowest margin from losing the top of his head. His silk hat was cut across as if by a knife, scarcely more than one-eighth of an inch from the top of his head. The train was stopped, but no cause for the accident could be found, nor was there evidence that anything had been thrown at the train. Trainmen reached the conclusion that a car door on a passing freight caused the accident.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, April 4, 2 a.m.—[By Atlantic Cable.] A letter from Vice Admiral Rojestvensky to his wife, which has just been received here, indicates that the departure of the Second Russian Pacific Squadron from Madagascar waters is final and that it is now on the way to Vladivostok.

In the letter, the Admiral wrote that the sailing of the squadron had been fixed for March 19, but naturally he avoided mention of the route which it was intended to follow on the voyage eastward. The Admiralty yesterday admitted knowledge of this determination and stated that no contrary orders had been sent.

It is understood that a rendezvous with Vice-Admiral Nebogatoff's division of the Baltic squadron is not contemplated.

GUNSHU PASS, April 3.—A renewal of fighting is expected shortly. The concentration of the Russian army is complete, with its advance lines south from the station of Sipinghai, seventy-four miles north of Tie Pass.

The Japanese are screening their movements well by means of cavalry and it is difficult to locate the bulk of their army. A heavy movement seems in progress on the Russian flanks.

The railroad station at Changtufu, forty to fifty miles above Tie Pass, is occupied by Japanese artillery, but, so far as ascertained, it does not cover any large body of troops.

A movement of Chinese bandits led by Japanese officers through Mongolia in the direction of Tsitsihar, 300 miles west of Harbin, has been reported.

The newspapers describe the anti-Japanese feeling on the Pacific Coast, but are convinced that the Federal Government and the United States to refrain from legislation likely to irritate American opinion.

SITUATION UNCHANGED.

REPORT FROM LINEVITCH.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, April 3.—Gen. Linevitch, in a dispatch dated April 2, says: "The situation remains unchanged. A Russian patrol during the night of March 27 surrounded a Japanese patrol consisting of six dragoons and an officer of Baichanchentz on the extreme Russian left. Five of the Japanese were killed. A sergeant was captured."

Admiral Prince Ouktomsky has arrived in St. Petersburg and has demanded a trial by public court-martial himself of the charge of being responsible for the losses sustained by the Port Arthur squadron August 10 last, on the ground that he gave the order to retire to Port Arthur.

The question over which De Martens presided as member of the International Conference on the Status of Hospital Ships, will preside, has been appointed to examine claims for compensation growing out of the sinking of the British steamer Hipsang.

Prices on the Bourse today were steady. Imperial Russian fours closed at 84¾.

HAY AND OATS FOR RUSSIANS.

THREE BOATS LOADING NORTH.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TACOMA, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The steamer Idydene, now loading here, the steamer Razelbe, loading at Portland and the steamer Sanhurst, which arrived today, to load at Tacoma and Seattle, will, it is believed, take on cargoes of hay and oats for the Russian forces. The steamers are being loaded by Albers Bros. Milling Company, and it is expected that their destination is a northern Chinese port, probably Kiaochou. From Kiaochou, the Russians received most of the supplies used at Port Arthur during the siege.

Henry Mett, a German merchant of Kiaochou, is here superintending loading of the vessels.

TAKAHIRA AND TAFT.

TALK PEACE POSSIBILITIES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 3.—M. Takahira, the Japanese Minister, was at the War Department today, and had a long talk with Secretary Taft, the head of the government in the absence of the President. M. Takahira talked of the possibilities of peace and of the general situation in the Far East, but he had no proposals to make.

So far as he made it known, the object of his visit appears to have been to get in touch with the Secretary in his new capacity.

PASSES ITS DIVIDEND.

Cunard Steamship Company Takes Unprecedented Action, Due, Perhaps, to "Ship Trust" Opposition.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] For the first time in its history, the Cunard Steamship Company has passed its dividend. News of this unprecedented action came in a special cable today. The reason for failure to declare a dividend could not be ascertained at the New York office of the company.

The Cunard line is the only big steamship company that has refused to join or make an alliance with the International Mercantile Marine Company, known as the "ship trust" It has fought the trust from its formation, a few years ago, cutting its prices to meet those of the trust.

While the two German lines—the North German Lloyd and the Hamburg-American—are not members of the trust, they have a working alliance with it, and because of this, the Cunard established a service to Trieste, Austria, in opposition to the German line of boats that make that port.

As the Cunard is subsidized by the British government, it has always been considered one of the strongest financed steamship lines in the world.

BELGIANS' BUCK.

Bondholders at Antwerp Not Satisfied With Roosevelt's Arrangement With Santo Domingo.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ANTWERP, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Belgian committee of holders of Santo Domingan bonds refuses to have anything to do with the proposed arrangement between Santo Domingo and the United States and will protest against the plan. The proposal to deposit the money from customs collections in an American bank until a definite arrangement is completed is not satisfactory to the Belgian bondholders, who demand the payment of $27,000 a month to them, in accordance with their contract with the Dominican government. Instructions have been sent to Willem Willems, the committee's representative in Santo Domingo to make a protest against the proposed agreement, and not to consent to any plan which does not provide for the payment to the Belgians of $27,000 cash a month.

ALREADY IN EFFECT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 3.—A cablegram received at the State Department from Minister Dawson at Santo Domingo, announces that President Morales has issued a decree putting into immediate effect the modus vivendi relative to the Dominican customs. The effect of this action will be to hasten the departure of Col. Golton, who is to be chief of the customs collection corps. J. H. Edwards of Centralia, Ill., at present supervising special agent of the Philippine customs, has been selected as one of the collectors.

DOMINICAN REVOLT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, April 3.—Vice-President Caceres has arrived with his staff, riding from Santiago to confer with President Morales, cables the Herald's correspondent at Santo Domingo. He reports the interior quiet. Gen. Miguelito, a minor leader, with fifteen men, is in revolt in the forest near Sanchez and hopes to coöperate in an attempt at landing by Barba and the insurgent band on Turks Island. The gunboat Presidente is missing. It is reported to be cruising to prevent the landing of arms and ammunition at Mayaguez and on Turks Island. The gunboat Independencia, with eighty soldiers on board, sailed Saturday for Sanchez to intercept Miguelito, with possible recruits for a revolt at Monte Christi.

FATAL FREIGHT TRAIN WRECK.

RATON (N. M.) April 3.—A wreck occurred Sunday on the Santa Fé one mile from this place. A heavy freight collided with a train loaded with workmen, causing the instant death of two workmen, Manuel Liba and José Contras, and severely injuring four others. The engine of the work train was completely demolished and the front end of the freight engine was smashed in. Both Liba and Contras were horribly mangled. David Martinez and Romelo Garcia were so severely injured that they may die. Virgil Smitson, fireman of the freight, had his hand cut off, and O. C. Williams, engineer of the work train, was badly bruised.

CARRIAGE BUILDERS STRIKE.

CHICAGO, April 3.—A general strike of union carriage and wagon builders against members of the Carriage and Wagon Manufacturers' Association, was begun here today. More than one hundred plants are affected.

It was reported that the demands of the union—2 per cent increase in wages and exclusive employment of union workmen—had been agreed to by 59 firms, giving employment to 700 men. In the remaining factories, employing 1100 men, the proprietors, who have been busy for the last two months filling their shops with non-union workers, refused to accept the closed shop rule. The union ordered its members not to report for work today at all such places.

William Inaugurates a New Monroe Doctrine.

Even Tottering Russia Sits up and Takes Notice.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, April 3.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The developments resulting from Emperor William's speech at Tangier Friday continues to attract great discussion in the press and in diplomatic circles. The sober view is that the German Emperor seized on a favorable opportunity to read France a lesson for leaving Germany out of consideration in the French-British understanding regarding Morocco, with the view possibly of compelling France to make a permanent renunciation of her aspirations regarding Metz and Alsace-Lorraine, also with the practical purpose of securing a vote in the Reichstag next fall for a larger naval programme.

There is no serious idea that the incident may lead to a conflict. With Russia enfeebled, France will have to look to Great Britain to play the role of protector assumed by Russia when Germany threatened her in 1875, and there is a good deal of speculation on the subject of the new grouping of the powers. The home papers, however, declare that while the British press may bluster, Great Britain has had her quid pro quo in Egypt and will leave France to take care of herself.

The Novoe Vremya says that the action of Emperor William is a very bold stroke on the part of Germany, and as further evidence of her rivalry with Great Britain more than with France, the paper characterizes His Majesty's proclamation as a "Teutonic Monroe doctrine in Northern Africa for the protection of the Musulmans," pointing out the manner in which German commercial interests are spreading in the Balkans and the increase of Germany's political influence in Turkey where she is seeking to block Great Britain's scheme to sever Arabia for the purpose of joining it to Egypt.

The Gazette says it thinks the German Emperor made a great blunder which can only result in embittering the anti-German feeling both in France and Great Britain, bringing about better relations between France and Great Britain and emphasizing the isolation of Germany.

The Foreign Office is reticent, declining to do more than to express the opinion that the Tangier incident increases the difficulty of the position of France's ally.

FRANCE RUDELY SHOCKED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PARIS, April 3.—The Morocco incident is daily making a deeper impression and while calmness continues to prevail, there is a growing sense of the rudeness of the shock which Emperor William's visit to Tangier and his declarations give to French policies. However, for the present it is evident that the purpose is to adopt a passive attitude and await the development of events. This was shown by a conference at the Foreign Office today between Foreign Minister Delcasse and several deputies who wished to question him in the chamber concerning Morocco. The Foreign Minister asked for an adjournment of the questions, saying there was nothing to add to what he had already said in the Senate. Accordingly the questions were indefinitely postponed.

The Temps tonight says the authorities' version of Emperor William's remarks at Tangier makes it useless to deny the disobliging character of such words, which "constitute almost the maximum short of openly quarreling with France, that William II could attempt in order to be disagreeable."

However, the general tone of the press is singularly free from belligerent or menacing talk.

WHAT WILLIAM SAID.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, April 4.—The correspondent at Tangier of the Times asserts that the correct version of Emperor William's conversation with representatives of the Sultan of Morocco is as follows:

The Emperor declared that he had come expressly to Tangier to assert that he would maintain the absolute equality of German economic and commercial rights and that he would not allow any power to obtain preferential advantages. The Sultan, he said, was the free sovereign of a free country and Germany would insist on always carrying on her affairs direct with him and would never allow any power to act as an intermediary. The present was an unsuitable time to introduce reforms on European lines and all reforms should be founded on Islamic lines and traditions. What Morocco required was absolute peace and quiet and he would find means later on of making his opinion known on questions of detail. Finally the Emperor declared that he had made these views quite clear in a conversation with the French Charge d'Affaires.

RUSSIAN INTEREST.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, April 3.—Emperor William's speech at Tangier and prospective developments therefrom engross the attention of the Russian newspapers almost to the exclusion of peace discussion. Her treaty relations with France and the friendly attitude of Germany during the war place Russia in an awkward position. Nevertheless, the difficulties of floating further loans in France and the absence of assistance, on which unofficial Russia at least has vaguely counted, incline the scale somewhat in favor of the western neighbor whose benevolent neutrality and frontier pledge enabled Russia to place in the field a Manchurian army so well supplied with artillery. Decided pleasure is also expressed at the rocks encountered by the new Anglo-French entente.

THE SULTAN'S REPLY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PARIS, April 3.—A dispatch from Tangier to a news agency gives a report that the Sultan has already communicated to the French Minister to Morocco his reply to the French proposals, in which reply he expresses his regret at his inability to accept the whole of the reform programme. The Sultan, the dispatch adds, agrees to institute reforms at coast ports, but claims the right to raise loans wherever it is most convenient for the country's interest.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

TANGIER, April 3.—Hoffman Philip, United States Consul-General here, will leave tomorrow for Fez. His journey at the present juncture of affairs is much commented upon.

AT PORT MAHON.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PORT MAHON (Island of Minorca) April 3.—The German Emperor landed from the Hamburg-American liner Hamburg at 10:30 o'clock this morning and visited the Captain-General. Everywhere His Majesty was given a hearty reception. The town and shipping were decorated with flags. The Emperor returned on board the Hamburg at noon and she sailed from here at 4:30 p.m. Before leaving, Emperor William said he wished to visit the Mediterranean next year.

DEBATE ON SEPARATION.

PARIS, April 3.—Former Premier Ribot, one of the principal opposition orators in the Chamber of Deputies, speaking today in reference to the separation bill, admitted that modern ideas called for separation of church and state, but contended that the measure should be effected gradually and in concert with the head of the church. In his opinion, the precipitate action set forth in the present bill would hurt the nation's sentiment and provoke angry reprisals.

Side Talks by the Office Boy

"Life Publishing Company" printed a picture in their magazine recently of an old guy and a beautiful young woman in a boat. While the girl lolls back against the pillows in the stern, the old man picks a guitar and sings to her. "Life" offered a prize of $500.00 for the most appropriate name for the picture. The name winning the prize was "Never too old to yearn." Six different people suggested the above name, so the prize was divided among them. Now, I dont think that that name fits the case at all. I believe any kid could have suggested a better one. If I'd been guessing for the prize I'd have sent in names like these: "An old rooster's last crow," "Grandpa's head is off it's trolley," or "An old cock crowing to a young chick," or something of that sort. Webster defines "yearn," "to long." The old boy looks as if he'd waited too long already. There is one thing about the old man's make-up that struck me immediately. That was his yacht hat, it's almost a cinch it's a "Silverwood." Silverwood hats are so good, so stylish, and so reasonable in price that men are never too old to yearn for them.

MINISTERS, DOCTORS AND TEMPERANCE WORKERS

Use and Recommend Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as the Only Effective Cure for Lung, Stomach and Nervous Diseases.

"I THANK GOD THERE IS SUCH A MEDICINE," WRITES REV. DR. M'LEOD, an active minister for years. "For more than 40 years I had been afflicted with dyspepsia and nervous prostration. At times I was so run down I could not attend to my ministerial duties. Could neither eat nor sleep. I began taking Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. It gave me strength, helped my digestion, settled my nerves, and I gained 10 pounds in one month. I recommend those who are weak, broken down, nervous, to take 'Duffy's.'" Greenleaf, Mich., January 23, 1904.

DR. BOWNE PRESCRIBED "DUFFY'S" 25 YEARS. "I have found that in pneumonia, grip and other exhausting diseases my patients never fail to respond favorably to Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. Taken as directed it is bound to relieve and permanently cure consumption." Dr. E. H. Bowne, Kingston, N. J. August 3, 1904.

MR. THOMAS MORAN, TEMPERANCE WORKER, SAYS: "I have lived in Rochester, N. Y., for almost 70 years and people know I am a strict temperance man, but I unhesitatingly recommend Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey for the great good it did me during my illness. Two months ago I was so weak from bronchitis I could not raise my head. I had a low fever and all the symptoms of a relapse. The doctor ordered your whiskey, and I would not be living today but for its use. It made me strong, vigorous—better than I have been in years." July 26, 1904.

For over half a century men and women prominent in the affairs of the nation have been using and indorsing Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as the one certain cure and preventive of disease. The opinions of a few of them are published in a booklet which we mail anyone free on request.

The unrivaled record of this splendid medicine is over 4,000,000 cures. More than 7000 doctors use it in their homes and prescribe it regularly in their practice, and it's used exclusively in over 2000 hospitals. "ALL I HAVE," SAYS FATHER.

Pretty Children Deserted by Their Mother?

Young Mrs. Mier Eloped With a Boarder?

Omar Williams Missing, no Money Turned in.

Roy McIntyre, foreman at Stutz & Welsham's feed yard and livery on East First street, last night reported to the police that his sister, Mrs. William Mier, aged 27, had eloped with Omar Williams, aged 28, an employé of the same firm, taking with her her three-year-old baby and deserting her husband and two daughters, May, aged 10, and Agnes, aged 7. McIntyre further reported that Williams failed to return moneys collected by him for his employers during the day, presumably to an amount between $100 and $150.

W. J. Welshams has expressed his determination to swear out a warrant for Williams's arrest this morning, and the missing woman's brother may ask for an adultery complaint following a consultation he and the woman's husband are to have with detectives this morning.

Taking a lamp in hand, William Mier led a Times reporter to a small bedroom on the second floor of his brother-in-law's home, No. 1971 East First street, last night. There in an old-fashioned low bed, a spotless coverlet drawn about them, lay two strikingly beautiful children, the elder girl with wideawake, shining eyes, the other curled up and fast asleep. The father held the lamp high. With a hand he pointed to them. "They're all I have—now," he said huskily.

HE FOUND HER GONE.

Mier until a week ago was employed as a marker by the Independent Laundry. He either lost his position or gave it up. With his wife and three children he had been living since the middle of last January at the home of his wife's brother and sister, No. 1971 East First street. Omar Williams was a lodger and boarder in the same home. Mier is small and slight; he would not be at all good looking were it not for his eyes and his smile; a quiet, unobtrusive, gentle sort of man he seems. Williams is 6 feet in his stockings, weighs close to 200 pounds, twirls a blonde mustache, is less than 30 years old, and lively of manner. If what he has told the Miers and the McIntyres is true, he has a wife and children in Missouri; they were to have joined him here in Los Angeles last week, but he sent them word to "wait."

At 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon William Mier came home from a trip downtown. The house was deserted. Presently the eldest girl, May, came in from an errand. She said "mamma" had sent Agnes out to play, and had taken the baby and gone out—she did not know where.

Mier, alarmed, went to the feed yard and livery, a block away, and told his brother-in-law. Together they made a search of the neighborhood, without finding a clew.

Omar Williams was out with a mule team making deliveries and collections. At 5 o'clock, his hour for reporting in, he did not come. Then the missing woman's husband and brother believed they knew what had happened.

SEARCHED A TRAIN.

Together they took up the blind search, afterward separating to follow different routes. Roy McIntyre reached the Santa Fé Depot a few minutes before the Limited pulled out. He told a few words of his quest to the gateman, and was allowed to pass. He searched every coach of the long train, but found no trace of his sister or Williams. At the Southern Pacific Depot they would not let him go through the gate, so he had the bitter disappointment of seeing the Overland pull out without having a chance of satisfying himself that the missing couple were not aboard.

A little before 8 o'clock he found the mule team hitched in front of the Salt Lake saloon, not far from the Salt Lake Depot. A policeman told him it had not been there at 5:30. He drove the team to the feed yard, after first reporting the supposed elopement of Mrs. Mier and Williams to the police.

Last night at his home Roy McIntyre made this brief statement: "Williams had been a boarder here in the house for the last four months, but had been lodging here only three weeks. I never noticed anything between my sister and him that was out of the way—except that the last week or two I would surprise them sometimes in talking together in low tones, and noticed that as soon as I appeared they would change the subject and talk up in natural voice. I found out, late this afternoon, that my sister left bills unpaid in the neighborhood—$17 owing to the butcher, an account at the grocer's and baker's, and so on. She had been given the money to pay them, and we supposed they were paid. She must have been saving up the money to take with her. Williams took with him the collection book, bills, and so forth, so Mr. Welshans doesn't know how much he collected during the day." Young McIntyre is in a state of indignation and anger that bodes ill to Williams should the two meet.

Mier refused to make any statement beyond this: "At no time have I had any trouble or disagreement with my wife. I would take her back, if she would come back or I could find her, for the sake of the children."

All patrolmen on the late night watch were ordered to keep a sharp lookout for Williams, a description and instructions being read to them when lined up in the Police Station.

LOCAL RAILROAD RECORD.

TOURIST HEGIRA BREAKS RECORD.

CHOICE SLEEPER SPACE ENGAGED FAR INTO MAY.

Equipment Added to East-bound Trains to Care for Crowds. Agents Say Rush Has Only Begun. Business Much Ahead of Last Year. Baltimore and Ohio Agency Here.

The hegira of east-bound tourists is on in full swing. Yesterday's business at the local ticket offices was the greatest ever known. Trains on every line by which the East can be reached from Los Angeles are loaded to their capacity. Choice space in sleeping cars can be had only on notice given far in advance.

So great is the rush that the Santa Fé has added another sleeper to the equipment of its limited train. This is made possible through the acquisition of a number of new engines of the fast "Prairie" type. The addition of extra trains is contemplated in May, when it is expected there will be even heavier travel than at present.

It is said at the railroad offices that compartments and drawing-rooms in all scheduled sleepers are engaged until far into next month. The provident traveler has made his arrangements in good season. Lower berths yet are available if spoken for a few days in advance, but it is a luckless tourist who expects to obtain a ground-floor location by applying on the day of his departure.

A local official said yesterday that the tourist travel into Los Angeles for the season, since October 1, was at least 20 per cent. in excess of that of last year. This does not take into consideration the large number of passengers who are coming to the Coast on the $33 colonist rate from Chicago, and relatively low rates from points west thereof. These rates will be in effect this season for a period fifteen days longer than was the case last year, not expiring until May 15, as against April 30 a year ago.

BIDS FOR BUSINESS.

Now it is the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad that has come into Southern California for a share of the big orange and other shipments, of which it received only the portion allotted by the initial lines prior to the recent decision of the United States courts giving the individual shipper the right to route as he pleased.

His office is on the second floor of the Orpheum Building on Spring street. Mr. Burch comes to Los Angeles from Omaha, and prior to going there was stationed at Louisville, Ky.

ALONG THE LINE.

MOSTLY PERSONAL.

Charles Jewett, son of E. S. Jewett, passenger and ticket agent of the Missouri Pacific at Kansas City, has been appointed city ticket agent of the Salt Lake route.

M. Gilleas, vice-president of the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley Railroad, who has spent the winter here with his family, has returned to his home at Memphis.

Phil K. Gordon, Pacific Coast passenger agent of the Piedmont Air Line, is here from San Francisco.

Jay W. Adams, Pacific Coast passenger agent of the Nickel Plate, San Francisco, came to Los Angeles yesterday on a business trip.

The Santa Fé will resume its Yosemite Park service on the 24th inst., making connection at Merced for the park.

Cuts Wide Swath With Glowing Representations Which Fail to Hold Water—Fight for Mayoralty the Chief One in Today's Election. Improvements at Normal School.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN DIEGO, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Franklin T. Kennedy, who arrived here a few days ago to write special articles for the Los Angeles Herald, has wound up in the County Jail, on a charge of forgery. He has failed to give bail in $2500 for his preliminary hearing next Saturday.

Kennedy has been living at the best hotels and having a high time. He is suspected of many misdeeds, but the specific charge is that he forged the signature of Manager Robinson of Hotel Robinson, where he had been staying, to an order for advertising. At Hotel del Coronado he contracted a bill of $100 and had drawn on the Herald for $120.

F. W. Worcester, assistant general manager of the Herald, came down yesterday to ascertain why "copy" was not being furnished for some of the glowing articles deals for which Kennedy claimed to have closed. Worcester found that Kennedy had been amusing himself by filling blank contracts and signing other men's names to them. He represented that he had landed the Chamber of Commerce for a $250 advertising contract when as a matter of fact he had not contracted for a dollar's worth.

Kennedy's representations upon coming here placed him in touch with leading business houses. Kennedy caught many San Diegans with an "exclusive story" printed in the Herald and a local paper to the effect that he had inside information that one of the big railroads was about to tap San Diego.

The complaint is sworn out by Worcester who is in a state of mind over Kennedy's fall.

CITY ELECTION TODAY.

The city election for Mayor, Treasurer, Collector, Attorney and members of the Common Council and the Board of Education will be held tomorrow. For Mayor there are three candidates, Dan F. Jones, nominated by the straight Republicans; Capt. J. L. Sehon, nominated by the Democrats and Independents, and W. J. Kirkwood, nominated by the Socialists. Jones is known as the machine candidate, although he does not owe his nomination to the machine, which indorsed him after his nomination was assured. Sehon is a Republican, having served in the lower branch of the City Council for two years.

The principal contest is on the office of Mayor. The labor unions have not indorsed either of the candidates for Mayor, although they have backed up a number of the other nominees. Whether they will stand pat remains to be seen. The Anti-Saloon League and Civic Federation are for Sehon, as against Jones. The saloon men assert that they have not indorsed either. It is generally understood that the vote for Mayor will be close and the betting is even money on Jones and Sehon. A majority of the straight Republican nominees for Councilmen and City Board of Education will be elected.

NORMAL SCHOOL CAMPUS.

Dr. R. M. Powers, George W. Marston and President Black of the Normal school have been appointed a committee by the trustees of the school to expend the $5000 appropriated by the Legislature for the improvement of the Normal School campus. The board has elected Hrustees I. B. Dockweiler, M. L. Ward and President Black delegates to the State meeting of normal trustees at San José, April 14.

At its meeting here Saturday evening the board graduated the following students: Wiley E. Escher, Hazel I. Green, Ethel Ione Knight and Emma Kate Rannals. A cistern has been built for the storage of water to be distributed through the building.

ALBATROSS SAILS.

The Albatross, which has been here since the return from the exploring expedition in South American waters, sailed this morning for San Francisco. The revenue cutter Manning sailed for San Francisco yesterday. Her place at this port will be taken by the cutter Commodore Perry.

The assessment roll, just completed, shows an increase of a million dollars in the valuation of city property over last year, when it was $14,387,600. Following the raise in prices throughout the city there has been a general raise in assessment.

JOHN SAYS

"More of the New Coffee, Please."

A lady from the "Land of the Sky" in N. C., says:

"This winter while on a visit further down South where everybody seems to be a slave to coffee, I one day found my hostess prone on her couch. 'So giddy, and Oh! how my head aches!' 'Coffee' I said warningly. She supposed so, and what else could she drink? 'Why Postum' I replied. 'But that is so insipid and John does not like it. He calls it dish water.' I thought of the kind of Postum the darkey cook had served, and asked her if I might make her a cup. So into the kitchen I went and made Postum as we have it at home—rich, clear and fragrant, after good long boiling to bring out the flavor.

"I brought it to her in one of the daintiest cups, and she drank under protest, declaring it might make her head worse. She exclaimed 'Why how nice this is. You don't mean this is Postum'. I told her the difference was only in the making. She had had it before boiled only a few minutes and now she had it made according to directions that are plain enough on each package.

"In about an hour's time she sat up and laughing a little said her head felt nearly well and the giddiness was almost gone.

"The next morning we had Postum (made right) for breakfast. We told John it was a new coffee we wanted him to try. He called for a second cup and the next morning called for some more of that new coffee.

"Quite a while after we had been serving it regularly, John spoke of feeling so much better. He had gotten over his nervousness, and only then did we dare tell him he had been steadily using the once despised Postum.

"Before I left off coffee my complexion was bad and sometimes my temper worse. The complexion has cleared up in a most remarkable way. I had better refer to the other members of the family for a testimonial as to the change in temper, leastwise we all abandoned coffee about two years ago for it affected us more like liquor, and every member of my family showed the affect of it in nervous, trembling sensations, occasional dizzy spells, and more or less liver complaint. All of these symptoms have disappeared since we made the change to Postum." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

$100,000 to the general fund of the Congregational Church was the cause of the trouble.

In the course of the meeting Rev. F. S. Forbes offered a resolution reciting the fact that Dr. Washington Gladden, as chairman of the National Council, had filed a protest with the American Board against the acceptance of the donation of Mr. Rockefeller, and expressing the sympathy of the Los Angeles Congregational Ministerial Union with Dr. Gladden's view of the matter.

Immediately a motion was made to lay the resolution on the table, and when a vote was taken Dr. Meredith of Pasadena, who was chairman of the meeting, decided in the affirmative and the resolution was tabled.

Some of those who favored it declared yesterday that the action of the chairman was arbitrary and that he refused to listen to calls for a division.

Later in the meeting, Dr. Soper of Pomona was called to the chair and friends of the resolution induced the assembly to allow it to be again taken up for discussion, but declined to pass it. Several of those who favored the resolution declared their intention of writing personal letters to Dr. Gladden, expressing their sympathy in that way.

Yesterday at the usually staid Congregational gathering of ministers in their monthly meeting, the now famous offer of John D. Rockefeller to give this city, where he has been engaged in evangelistic work for several years, to take charge of the Gardena church and at once announced that if they wished to grow, the plain little church would have to give way to something more modern. He found them ready for the advance and promptly received the most liberal financial support from the people of this city.

READY FOR CONVENTION.

LAWRENCE TELLS A STORY.

The State Sunday-school Convention, which will open this morning in Immanuel Presbyterian Church and continue until Thursday evening, will bring between 600 and 700 delegates together. The district includes the counties of Kern and San Luis Obispo and everything south, nine counties in all.

Committees were busily engaged yesterday all day in getting the church ready for the convention, decorating it and arranging for the various departments of the work.

Secretary Gail Borden and Hugh C. Gibson, general secretary for Southern California, have been laboring indefatigably for the success of the convention and have assurance of a great increase in former delegations from outside points.

Marion Lawrance, the specialist who is here for the convention, made a talk yesterday afternoon before a meeting of ministers, in which he said many good things.

"I am in the Sunday-school work," he said, "because I believe a boy worth more than a man. How often have you heard something like this: 'We have had a glorious revival; forty souls have been added to the church and most of them heads of families.' For my part I would much rather be able to say that most of them were under fifteen years of age. It's worth much more to the kingdom of God to convert a boy than to convert a man who has already lived the best part of his life."

The real burden of his talk to the preachers was the place of the pastor in the Sunday-school. He said that the pastor and the superintendent should drive double, and not tandem; the pastor should be commander-in-chief of the school, just as the President of the United States is of the army; he should be the power behind the throne.

Mr. Lawrance has it "in for" the dear old brother who visits a Sunday-school once in awhile and always wants to make a speech.

"When this dear old brother comes around, choke him off," he said, and he told a story to fit the point.

"'What's that old duffer crying about?' he heard one boy say to another in a class.

"'Shut up,' came the response from his neighbor; 'if you had to make a speech and had no more to say than he has, you'd be crying, too.'"

FAMOUS PREACHER.

WILL SPEND WEEK HERE.

Dr. F. B. Meyer, the famous London preacher, will begin his series of meetings for the instruction of Christians, in Temple Auditorium on next Sunday. He is pronounced one of the greatest living expositors of the Scriptures, and there is widespread interest in his coming. The Church Federation is actively engaged in giving information of his meetings, and on last Sunday announcements were handed out in every church in the city. He will preach every afternoon and evening except Saturday.

GREETING THE GUESTS.

BANQUET LAST NIGHT.

Between 250 and 300 plates were laid last night at the Young Women's Christian Association, on the occasion of the banquet given in honor of Marion Lawrence of Ohio and Mrs. M. G. Kennedy of Philadelphia, who have come to the city as special instructors at the State Sunday-school Convention.

Mrs. Kennedy is famous as a teacher in a Philadelphia Sunday-school and is regarded as one of the best equipped in the country. She is more generally known to Sunday-school people as the writer of lesson-helps for seven different publications. Mr. Lawrence is secretary of the international association, but first became known to those in the work as superintendent of one of the greatest Sunday-schools in the country at Toledo, O., over which he has presided for twenty-eight years.

J. P. Fisk, president of the State association, presided at the banquet, and brief words of welcome were spoken by Secretary Gibson, by R. P. Sheppard, president of the county association, and by W. C. Weld.

Mrs. Kennedy referred pleasantly to the work for boys and girls and declared she was glad to be one of the army. She said she had known conventions to be like the locomotive that exhausted all its steam in whistling, till it was unable to haul the train, but she did not expect this convention to be one of that kind.

Mr. Lawrence began his after-dinner speech by telling a story. It was about a girl who sat in school with her foot in the aisle and chewed gum. One day the teacher said to her: "Mary, I wish you would take that gum out of your mouth and put your foot in." Said Mr. Lawrence: "I'm not a success ah making after-dinner speeches, and I'm afraid I may do that very thing before I get through."

He told of the splendid work that Mrs. Kennedy has done in her native city, saying that he believes in "saying things about folks before they die." He also told of the admirable work and stalwart character of Hugh C. Gibson, the general secretary who was brought here from Illinois six months ago. He has long known Mr. Gibson and bespoke for him the hearty support of the Sunday-school people of Southern California.

"You can't run a peanut stand and make a success of it without organization," he said, "and how can we expect to do it with the Sunday-school association?

"We must show to each denomination that all together we can do some things better than any denomination can do them. It's so in mine, and I belong to the best denomination on earth—so do you. If you don't think so, you'd better get out of it and into another."

With a fund of good stories at his command, Mr. Lawrence proved himself an exceptionally happy after-dinner speaker, and when he wasn't giving out solid chunks of wisdom on the chief topic, he had his auditors laughing at his solemn-faced anecdotes.

In the course of the meeting Rev. F. S. INDEPENDENTS DISSATISFIED.

MEETING OF THE AGENCY AT BAKERSFIELD TODAY.

Some Members Believed to be Holding Back Oil Instead of Pumping Wells to Their Full Capacity, Some Think Their Wells Are Drained to Benefit Combine.

The Independent Oil Producers' Agency will hold a meeting at Bakersfield today. There is known to be much dissatisfaction among many of the members over present conditions. The contract with the Associated Oil Company calls for oil at 18 cents at the well and has still about nine months to run. The big combine has constructed a pipe line reaching all the wells at its own expense but its receipts have been far below expectations, not over 6000 barrels a day in any case, according to most reliable authority, although there is little doubt but that the properties are capable of producing much more if worked to the limit.

There is reason to believe that many members of the agency are holding back oil instead of pumping to their full capacity. The number of new wells drilled since the contract went into effect has been much smaller than had been expected. A number of properties have shut down.

The fact, that is now quite generally reported outside of the Associated Oil Company, that the field is gradually failing is said to be increasing the dissatisfaction and many producers declare they are not pleased with the prospects and fear they are simply draining their wells at no profit for the benefit of the Associated and Southern Pacific, while the latter attempts to store and hold part of the oil they deliver so it can use it as a club to force another contract of the same kind next year. While doing this, the combine buys from the Standard to make up the difference.

The Associated's contract with the Southern Pacific calls for a delivery covering several years more at about 27 cents a barrel at the field, so that the combine can not afford to pay a very high price to the producer. When it endeavors to supplment its own supply in this way.

REED CRUDE'S HOLDINGS.

The directors of the Reed Crude will hold their adjourned monthly meeting today to act upon any bids received for the company's Associated holdings. The dividend of $1.05 declared some time since was payable on Saturday last and checks are disbursed at the company's office. This brings the total dividends for five years up to $981,000, the second in the State.

The Claremont, a Kern River Company, has declared a one-cent dividend which was payable last Saturday.

E. E. Henderson formerly superintendent of the Western Union at Santa Maria, is about to begin drilling upon properties of his own in that field.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

The Ebell Club had a rich and varied entertainment yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Frank Wiggins gave her long-promised talk, "Behind the Scenes," which was pronounced most delightful by the members.

No visitors were allowed as the annual business meeting was on, and only the members enjoyed the treat. Rev. P. T. Rowe, bishop of Alaska, gave a talk upon the country of his adoption. The bishop was in the city for a few hours only, but at the solicitation of Mrs. P. G. Hubert, chairman of the Programme Committee, who is a personal friend, he consented to spend a part of his time at the Ebell.

Besides the fine programme for the afternoon, much satisfaction was expressed over the annual election of officers, which passed off quietly, the entire ticket as nominated being elected.

The new officers are: Mrs. Frank King, president; Mrs. Phillip Gengembe Hubert, first vice-president; Mrs. Edgar Lacy Swaine, second vice-president; Mrs. A. J. Chandler, third vice-president; Mrs. J. T. Fitzgerald, corresponding secretary; Miss Helen Louise Kimball, recording secretary; Mrs. Edward L. Dieter, curator; Mrs. C. E. Crary, treasurer, and directors, Mrs. W. F. Pleas and Mrs. J. W. Van Benthuysen.

Suffrage Association.

The Los Angeles Woman's Suffrage Association held a meeting at the Woman's Clubhouse yesterday afternoon, when officers were elected for the ensuing year. Mrs. Mabel V. Osbourne was reelected president and Mrs. Caroline M. Severance and Mrs. Charlotte M. Wills were elected honorary presidents. Mrs. Kenney was made vice-president at large and Mrs. Alice E. Broadwell corresponding secretary. Miss Anthony was made recording secretary, Mrs. Howard treasurer, and the Press Committee includes Dr. Stark, Mrs. Broadwell, Mrs. Satterlee, Mrs. Little and Mrs. Bertha Hirsch Baruch; Lecture and Programme Committee, Mrs. Corker, Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. E. A. Meserve; Visiting and Membership Committee, Miss Anthony, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Aylesworth, Mrs. C. M. Wills, Mrs. Ryan and Mrs. Markham.

Mrs. E. D. Spencer, a prominent woman from the north of Larsen county, gave a talk on suffrage, and spoke of the great strides the associations have made since the beginning of the movement, when Susan B. Anthony first interested herself in it. She also spoke in high terms of the Los Angeles Association of Equal Suffrage, and the interest and enthusiasm demonstrated by the workers in the cause. Mrs. Spencer is at present the guest of her sister, Mrs. Thomas Holden, at No. 257 South Fremont avenue, and will remain in the south for some time longer. She has long been identified with the work and is considered one of its strongest supporters.

THE WINNING STROKE

If more than ordinary skill in playing brings the honors of the game to the winning player, so exceptional merit in a remedy ensures the commendation of the well informed, and as a reasonable amount of outdoor life and recreation is conducive to the health and strength, so does a perfect laxative tend to one's improvement in cases of constipation, biliousness, headaches, etc. It is all-important, however, in selecting a laxative, to choose one of known quality and excellence, like the ever pleasant Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., a laxative which sweetens and cleanses the system effectually, when a laxative is needed, without any unpleasant after effects, as it acts naturally and gently on the internal organs, simply assisting nature when nature needs assistance, without griping, irritating, or debilitating the internal organs in any way, as it contains nothing of an objectionable or injurious nature. As the plants which are combined with the figs in the manufacture of Syrup of Figs are known to physicians to act most beneficially upon the system, the remedy has met with their general approval as a family laxative, a fact well worth considering in making purchases.

It is because of the fact that SYRUP OF FIGS is a remedy of known quality and excellence, and approved by physicians that has led to its use by so many millions of well informed people, who would not use any remedy of uncertain quality or inferior reputation. Every family should have a bottle of the genuine on hand at all times, to use when a laxative remedy is required. Please to remember that the genuine Syrup of Figs is for sale in bottles of one size only, by all reputable druggists and that full name of the company—California Fig Syrup Co., is plainly printed on the front of every package. MINES AND MINING.

LIFE SAVERS FOR THIRSTY.

Wells Will be Drilled on the Gold Desert.

Nevada Legislature Makes Such a Provision.

Nevada-Keystone Company Sells Property.

The long agitation for an assured water supply on the desert has at last borne fruit in both California and Nevada. The Legislature of the Sagebrush State has taken action along the line urged, that of developing a permanent supply in the southern counties, where thousands of prospectors are now headed.

According to the terms of the bill, which was introduced by the Esmeralda-county delegation, an appropriation of $4500 is made, to be divided among the counties, on a basis established by the act. The wells must, however, be drilled and paid for by the county, the State repaying the money, provided a supply of at least four barrels a day is developed. Lincoln county is entitled to $1000 of this fund and Nye and Esmeralda, the others affected by the gold fever, to similar amounts. At present there are several pieces of well-traveled road absolutely without water for as much as fifty miles, to say nothing of the out-of-way places where the bones of so many lonely prospectors have been left to bleach in the blazing sun on account of the lack of water.

The action of the Nevada Legislature, if promptly seconded by the commissioners of the three counties affected, may save many lives. As the hot weather is rapidly drawing near the need for prompt action is great. Every day reports come in of the crowds going out on the desert, many ignorant of its dangers, and more are getting ready to leave every day. Former efforts to get action by the counties independent of the State have failed, but there has been no such emergency before. It is said that not a few of the more foolhardy prospectors are starting out to walk across the desert to the gold camps.

The matter of establishing wells between Searchlight and Las Vegas, between Searchlight and El Dorado and other points will be taken up at once with the commissioners of Lincoln county.

MINING CAMPS REPRESENTED.

A bill has also been passed in Nevada allowing the commissioners of Lincoln county mileage for actual distance traveled to and from the county seat at Pioche. This will enable the mining section along the southern border, including Searchlight and El Dorado, to have a member on the board, which has hitherto been difficult owing to the expense attached.

NEVADA-KEYSTONE SOLD.

The Nevada-Keystone Mining Company of this city has sold its property at Sandy, Nev., to a syndicate represented by M. R. W. Rathbone, formerly of British Columbia. The sale is under a two-year lease and bond, which gives the syndicate the right to purchase the property at any time upon payment of $337,500. During the life of the lease and before the sale is made a royalty will be paid to from 10 to 40 per cent. of the gross bullion from ores extracted from the mine and treated by the purchaser.

Representatives of the purchasing syndicate are on the ground putting the mine and mill in shape to resume operations, which have been at a standstill for months past.

SEARCHLIGHT RAILROAD.

The report comes from Searchlight that a group of capitalists, whose names are being withheld, has been organized to build a railroad from some point on the Salt Lake line, either Goodspring or Las Vegas, to Searchlight via El Dorado Cañon, thus passing through the latest of Southern Nevada's rising gold district. The route from Las Vegas is twice as long as that via Goodspring, but easier for construction work besides having the advantage of a better terminal, Las Vegas being expected to become the chief town on the desert. It is stated that a prominent engineer has been ordered to the country to locate a route.

Such a railroad would get a large tonnage and would compete with the new Needles, Searchlight and Northern Railroad to be built from Ibex to El Dorado.

Denver capitalists have bonded the site of the town of Nelson, in El Dorado Cañon, together with adjacent properties. The town has now three saloons.

LOCAL MEN'S SUCCESS.

The Parallel Gold Mining Company of this city, whose properties are located at Searchlight, received returns of $2444.28 from its last shipment amounting to 73,572 pounds, an average of $66.45 a ton. This brings the total receipts from the mine up to $6023.28, all of which has come from a 100-foot shaft. Some previous shipments have averaged higher than this. The vein is four feet wide, with eighteen inches of high-grade ore.

STABBED BY RIVAL.

Jealousy Causes Mexican to cut a Six-inch Gash in the Back of Another.

Because he had accompanied two young women to their homes from a theater, Luciano Grajeda, a Mexican, was seriously stabbed by another admirer of the women at midnight. The identity of the man who used the knife is not known to the victim, but the police think they know him.

After Grajeda had left the women he walked to Castelar and Alpine streets. There he was met by two men, one of whom he had known only a few days. They asked what right he had to go to that part of the city and take girls to a theater, and he told them it was none of their business. A fight followed, in which Grajeda says he was getting the better of his assailants when one of them drew a knife and slashed him in the back, cutting a gash six inches long and extending to the bone. Grajeda managed to get hold of the other man's hat, and held to it, taking some of his hair with it. He was fixed up in the Receiving Hospital.

ONE OF FUNSTON'S HEROES.

Death of L. L. Hilliker, Railroad Man and a Principal Musician in War With Spain.

Lynn Lamb Hilliker, a son of Civil War Veteran B. F. Hilliker, died in this city yesterday. Death was produced by a complication of diseases following a surgical operation of about two weeks ago.

The young man was the principal musician in the Twentieth Kansas Volunteer Infantry (Col. Funston's regiment) in the Spanish-American War. He served for a while as acting quartermaster. Previous to the war he was for eighteen years in the employ of the Santa Fé as assistant agent at Lawrenceburg, Kan., San Diego and elsewhere. After the war he was in the employ of the Banning company.

His age was 36. He leaves a widow, one child, and three brothers, William M. Hilliker, late stenographer to Senator Bard and now with the United States Reclamation Service, Dr. E. P. Hilliker and Harland B. Hilliker.

The funeral will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday, at the residence in Hollywood, under the auspices of the Hollywood lodge of Masons, of which order he was a member.

LIVELY NIGHT OF CREDIT MEN.

ADDRESSED BY G. BRENNER OF SAN FRANCISCO.

Fund for Prosecution of Fraudulent Debtors Has Mounted High Into the Thousands and is Still Growing—Business and Banquet Cheer.

Gustav Brenner, president of the San Francisco Credit Men's Association, and one of the delightful raconteurs of the northern city, was the star at the regular monthly meeting of the Los Angeles Credit Men's Association last night at Levy's. Mr. Brenner speaks with ease, and grace, and tells his stories as if he had missed his vocation.

He dealt with matters of practical interest to the credit men, such as out-of-town checks, the collection department, and the bulk law, the latter being largely due to the efforts of Senator Wolfe. Mr. Brenner emphasized the value of a fully-equipped collection department, citing the example of the department in San Francisco, which had collected $120,000 of debts that had been given up as hopeless by members of the association.

He then recited the difficulties that had been encountered before the bulk law was finally passed, and told of a Bay City justice of the peace who had declared the law unconstitutional. This, he said, reminded him of another justice of the peace, who inquired of a Circuit judge if a justice of the peace could grant a divorce. The Circuit judge looked him up and down contemptuously. "Certainly not," he sneered; "certainly not."

"You're a liar, Your Honor," said the justice, "I granted a divorce yesterday."

The Los Angeles association, Mr. Brenner said, was far ahead of the San Francisco association in enthusiasm, and it was easy to see what the future of the former would be.

The credit men had a great many disadvantages to contend with, and perhaps the principal one was the system, but he looked forward to the time when there would be schools or colleges for the education of credit men. The day of large profits was past, and credit men who did not understand their business and have a system which would enable them to make the most of the conditions which confronted business men today, would soon find themselves snowed under by their competitors.

It sometimes has been said that Los Angeles was doing its utmost to get ahead of San Francisco, but, according to Mr. Brenner, this city was absolutely justified in doing all it could to get ahead of the northern city.

At the close of his address, Mr. Brenner was given a rising vote of thanks. It was reported by the Prosecution Committee that the guaranteed fund for the prosecution of fraudulent debtors now amounted to $7800, and that the fund is still growing.

President Frank Simpson occupied the chair.

A notable feature of the Sun Drug Company's store, No. 2, which was opened yesterday at No. 328 South Broadway, is the arrangement of the front windows. They are so placed that a person standing in front of them sees apparently six windows instead of only two. The mirrors are said to be the largest in the city. A great many people visited the store yesterday, and admired the attractive display of goods.

EXCITEMENT CAUSES DEATH.

THE END COMES SUDDENLY TO COL. W. W. D. TURNER.

Was Mining Man and Successful Financier—Prominent in Politics in State of Washington—Funeral Will be in Charge of the Elks—Forty Years in Law Practice.

Col. W. W. D. Turner, a mining man and financier, died suddenly at his home, No. 753 West Adams street, at 9 o'clock Sunday night.

In the morning he attended church as usual, and in the afternoon, accompanied by his wife, he took a drive, returning home about 5 o'clock. While driving his attention was called to an occurrence which caused him to become greatly excited, so that he suffered from an attack of heart failure. Physicians were summoned and all that medical skill could do was done to restore him, but to no avail. The end came peacefully.

THE LATE COL. W. W. D. TURNER

Col. Turner came to Los Angeles about three years ago, and at once identified himself with the interests of the Southwest. Until within a few months he was a director in the Broadway Bank and Trust Company, and after being forced by failing health to resign from the directorate he still retained his interest in the establishment. He also held large mining interests in Arizona.

Col. Turner was 65 years of age, and for forty years was engaged in the practice of law, in which he gained considerable prominence in the States of Alabama, Wisconsin and Washington. He was half owner and president of the world-famous Leroy mine of British Columbia, which was sold to an English syndicate for $4,000,000. He also built the Yellowstone Park Railway. For several years he has spent the summers at the park and the winter in Southern California.

He has always been connected with politics, and was ever a stanch Republican. He was a personal friend of President McKinley, and was his original champion in the State of Washington.

When the Civil War broke out he was a regiment in Siegel's army and he continued in the service throughout the war.

He was an enthusiastic Elk and was once Exalted Ruler of Lodge, No. 228, of Spokane.

Col. Turner leaves a widow but no children. His brother, former Senator George Turner of Washington, will arrive soon to attend the funeral, and Granville W. Turner, another brother, is also coming from his home in Springfield, Mo.

The funeral, which will be held at the family residence next Friday afternoon, will be conducted by the Elks.

Electric Lighting Division of New York "Gas Trust" Shown to be Greedy Also.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The New York Edison Company, the electric lighting division of the "gas trust," was put on the rack today at the legislative gas investigation. The concern was shown to be as greedy as the bigger trust which controls it, having a capitalization of $19,000,000, and a debt of more than twice that amount.

Auditor Edwards of the Edison company, under examination by Charles E. Hughes, counsel for the committee, told how the Edison company had swallowed all the electric plants between Yonkers and the Battery, paying in each a fancy price.

The most important fact concerning the actual cost of gas production was brought out during the examination of Assistant Treasurer Whiteley, who said that the trust bought gas from the companies at an average price of 33 cents a thousand cubic feet. The trust sells this same gas for $1, which gives a profit of 200 per cent. Whiteley said the trust paid the Amsterdam company 32 cents a thousand; the Standard, 33 cents; the New York Mutual, 60 cents, and the Central Union, 25 cents, an average price of 23 cents. Hughes's effort to find out the trust's profits in dealing with the city were temporarily fruitless because of the trust's delay in producing figures. The total production of gas by or through the Consolidated Company during 1904 was 32,913,424,990 cubic feet. Of this amount, 32,170,780,180 cubic feet was sold, $4,914,206 was used by the company itself, and the balance is unaccounted for.

Before adjourning today, the committee appointed an expect accountant to help Counsel Hughes thread the maze of trust books, and thus make it easy for the trust's book-keeper to hide facts they contain.

THE END COMES SUDDENLY TO COL. W. W. D. TURNER.

Was Mining Man and Successful Financier—Prominent in Politics in State of Washington—Funeral Will be in Charge of the Elks—Forty Years in Law Practice.

Col. W. W. D. Turner, a mining man and financier, died suddenly at his home, No. 725 West Adams street, at 11 o'clock Sunday night.

In the morning he attended church as usual, and in the afternoon, accompanied by his wife, he took a drive, returning home about 5 o'clock. While driving his attention was called to an occurrence which caused him to become greatly excited, so that he suffered from an attack of heart failure.

Physicians were summoned and all that medical skill could do was done to restore him, but to no avail. The end came peacefully.

Col. Turner came to Los Angeles about three years ago, and at once identified himself with the interests of the Southwest. Until within a few months he was a director in the Broadway Bank and Trust Company, and after being forced by failing health to resign from the directorate he still retained his interest in the establishment. He also held large mining interests in Arizona.

Col. Turner was 68 years of age, and for forty years was engaged in the practice of law, in which he gained considerable prominence in the States of Alabama, Wisconsin and Washington. He was half owner and president of the world-famous Leroy mine of British Columbia, which was sold to an English syndicate for $4,000,000. He also built the Yellowstone Park Railway, for several years he has spent the summers in the park and the winters in Southern California.

He has always been connected with politics, and was ever a stanch Republican. He was a personal friend of President McKinley, and was his official adviser in the State of Washington.

When the Civil War broke out he left a regiment in Siegel's army and he served in the service throughout the war.

He was an enthusiastic Elk and was past Exalted Ruler of Lodge, No. 228, of Seattle.

Col. Turner leaves a widow but no children, his brother, former Senator Turner of Washington, will arrive here to attend the funeral, and Judge Turner, another brother, is coming from his home in Spokane.

The funeral, which will be held at the family residence next Friday afternoon, will be conducted by the Elks.

Mr. Hughes's effort to find out the trust's methods in dealing with the city were practically fruitless because of the delay in producing figures. The actual production of gas by or through companies controlled by the Consolidated Company during 1904 was 32,424,999,000 cubic feet. Of this 18,170,760,180 cubic feet was manufactured, and 14,254,238,820 was used by the companies, and the balance is unaccounted for.

After adjourning today, the committee appointed an expect accountant to help Counsel Hughes thread the mazes of trust books, and thus make it easy for the trust's book-keeper to explain what they contain.

Miner Blown Out of Trench by Premature Explosion of Blast and Seriously Injured.

John Dunn, a laborer, was the victim of an accident at Seventh street and Western avenue yesterday afternoon, which may result in the loss of his sight, and possibly of his life. He was working for contractors who are doing an extensive excavation, and while other workmen was in a deep part of the trench the ground was so hard that it was necessary to blast out portions of it.

Soon after one of the blasts had been fired, Dunn entered the trench, not knowing that one of the shot-holes in which was a charge of plant powder had not exploded. He was near the end of the trench when this charge went off with such force that the man was thrown bodily out of the trench. He had received nearly the full force of the explosion in his face and breast. His face was filled with small gravel, and some of the flying fragments entered his eyes.

At Auburn, Judge Prewett yesterday fixed the time for sentencing Adolph Weber, for the murder of his mother. April 13 was the date designated.

ORDINANCE NO. 10,836.
[New Series]

An Ordinance regulating the sale of gas and electric light and the inspection of gas and electric meters and the charges for telephones and telephone service and connections.

The Mayor and Council of the City of Los Angeles do ordain as follows:

Section 1. That the rates to be charged and collected by any person, firm, or corporation, for gas, or for electric light, or for telephones or telephone service or telephone connections, furnished to the City of Los Angeles or the inhabitants thereof, shall be fixed at a regular or special meeting of the City Council held during the month of February of each year, and shall take effect on the first day of July thereafter, and shall continue in full force and effect for the term of one year and no longer.

Sec. 2. It is hereby made the duty of every person, firm or corporation supplying gas to the City of Los Angeles, or to its inhabitants, to furnish to the City Council in the month of January of each year, a statement in writing, verified by the oath of such person, or of a member of such firm, or of the president or secretary of such corporation, as the case may be, showing in detail the amount received by such person, firm or corporation, from the sale of gas and the revenue derived by such person, firm or corporation, from all other sources, during the year preceding the date of such statement, and showing in detail all expenditures made by such person, firm or corporation during said time for supplying gas to the City of Los Angeles and its inhabitants, and for the purchase, construction and maintenance, respectively, of the property necessary to the carrying on of such business.

Every such person, firm or corporation shall furnish a detailed statement, verified in like manner as the statement hereinbefore in this section mentioned, containing an itemized inventory of all of the gas works, lines, plant and property, owned or used by such person, firm or corporation, and necessary or convenient in the carrying on of the business of supplying gas to the City of Los Angeles or to the inhabitants thereof, and showing the actual cost and present cash value of each item thereof.

Sec. 3. That the minimum illuminating and heating power and quality of gas supplied to the City of Los Angeles or to the inhabitants thereof, by any person, firm or corporation engaged in the business of supplying or distributing gas to said city or to its inhabitants, is hereby fixed and established at an illuminating quality of 14 candle-power, with a gross heat value of 600 British Thermal units per cubic foot; that is to say: Of such an illuminating quality that when burned with a self-luminous flame in a burner adapted to the most economical consumption of gas and consuming five cubic feet of such gas per hour it shall give a light equal to that afforded by 16 standard sperm candles, each consuming 120 grains of sperm per hour, and of such heat-producing quality that the combustion of one cubic foot thereof in a calorimeter will raise 600 pounds of water one degree Fahrenheit in temperature when such gas is supplied to said calorimeter under a pressure of 14.7 pounds per square inch, when both gas and water are supplied to said calorimeter at a temperature of 60 degrees Fahrenheit.

Sec. 4. The office of gas and gas meter inspector is hereby created. Said gas and gas meter inspector shall be appointed by the Mayor. Before entering upon the discharge of his duties he shall take the oath of office and give bond in the sum of $1000, with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the City Council, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties.

It shall be the duty of the gas and gas meter inspector to test and examine once a week, and at such oftener as may be required by resolution of the City Council, the illuminating and heat-giving quality and value of the gas furnished and distributed to the City of Los Angeles, or the inhabitants thereof, by any person, firm or corporation, and to report in writing to the City Council at the first meeting in each month the result of all such tests and examinations made by him during the preceding month. He shall also keep a record of all such tests and examinations showing in detail the name of the person, firm or corporation furnishing the gas tested, the date of each test and the candle power and gross heat value of the gas as shown by such test measured by the standards described in Section 3 hereof; and such record, shall, during regular office hours, be open to public inspection.

It shall also be the duty of the gas and gas meter inspector to make an examination and test of the accuracy and condition of any gas meter in the City of Los Angeles installed and used for the purpose of measuring gas furnished to the City of Los Angeles, or to any person, firm or corporation therein. Such examination and test shall be made upon the written request of the person, firm or corporation receiving and using gas through and measured by the meter to be tested. After making such examination and test the inspector shall give a certificate in writing, showing the result thereof, to the person, firm or corporation at whose request the examination is made, and shall deliver to the person, firm or corporation furnishing the gas measured by said meter a duplicate of such certificate. Said certificate shall show the time and place of the examination, the number and make of the meter examined, and the percentage and character of error, if any, in the measurement made thereby. And said inspector shall, and he is hereby authorized and empowered to charge and collect a fee of $1.00 for the making of each such examination and test, payable at the time the written request for the making of such examination and test is made, and the said inspector shall pay into the city treasury of said city, on every business day, all fees collected by him during the preceding business day for the making of such tests.

Sec. 5. That all money collected and paid to the City Treasurer by the gas and gas meter inspector shall be by the City Treasurer placed to the credit of a fund to be called the "Gas meter testing fund," which shall be used for the purpose of paying the expense of making such tests, and for the maintenance and purchase of apparatus therefor.

Sec. 6. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation supplying or distributing gas to the City of Los Angeles, or to the inhabitants thereof, to fail or neglect to furnish to the City Council of the City of Los Angeles in the month of January of each year, either of the statements prescribed in Section 2 hereof; or for any such person, firm or corporation to furnish, distribute or supply to the City of Los Angeles, or to any of the inhabitants thereof, gas of an inferior quality, that is to say, having a less illuminating or heat-producing power or value, than that prescribed in Section 3 hereof, unless such inferiority of quality of gas could not have been prevented by the exercise of ordinary care on the part of such person, firm or corporation; or for any such person, firm or corporation, or for any agent of any such person, firm or corporation, knowingly to charge or collect from any person, firm, or corporation for a greater quantity of gas than has been actually furnished.

Sec. 7. It is hereby made the duty of every person, firm or corporation, supplying electric light to the City of Los Angeles or its inhabitants, to furnish to the City Council in the month of January of each year, a statement in writing verified by the oath of such person, or of a member, of such firm, or of the president or secretary of such corporation, as the case may be, showing in detail the amount received by such person, firm or corporation from the sale of electric power in the City of Los Angeles during the year preceding the date of such statement, and the total revenue derived from all sources during said period, from the use, operation or possession of the works, lines, plant or property used by such person, firm, or corporation in whole or in part for the purpose of supplying electric light to the City of Los Angeles or to its inhabitants, and showing in detail all expenditures made by such person, firm or corporation, during said time, for supplying electric light and for supplying electric power to the City of Los Angeles, or to its inhabitants, and for supplying electric light and for supplying electric power to the City of Los Angeles, and showing the total amount of electricity in kilowatt hours furnished and supplied during said time to the City of Los Angeles and to its inhabitants for electric light and for electric power respectively, and also the total amount of electricity in kilowatt hours furnished and supplied to all other consumers by means of the works, lines, plant or property owned or used by such person, firm or corporation, in whole or in part, for the purpose of supplying electric light to the City of Los Angeles, or to its inhabitants.

Every such person, firm and corporation shall furnish a detailed statement verified in like manner as the statement hereinbefore in this section mentioned, containing an itemized inventory of all of the works, lines, plant and property owned or used by such person, firm or corporation and necessary or convenient in the carrying on of the business of supplying electric light to the City of Los Angeles, or to the inhabitants thereof, and showing the actual cost and present cash value of each item thereof.

Sec. 8. GEN. BELL'S GOOD-BY.

On Eve of His Retirement, Terror to Colorado Unionists Issues Address to Papers and People.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DENVER, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] On the eve of his retirement, Adjt.-Gen. Bell today, issued a characteristic address to the newspapers and the people, which he dictated to his stenographers. After saying he hoped to meet the newspaper boys in heaven, Gen. Bell continued:

"That God's hatred to some individual liars in Colorado, who were and are not affected or actuated either by air, altitude or their worldly obligations, far excels that to those of all other climes, I think, we all quite agree. I am sure we will never see any of them enter the kingdom of heaven and they won't if they go where they properly belong on several counts and instances. I have ordered for you, one and all, a copy of that good and appropriate hymn, "Auld Lang Syne," the words and music of which are my own composition, however, and which may appear to you and me when I am gone. Good-by."

50c to $2 Values for 25c Yard

In the other lot, the 25c ones, are bands, edges and insertions from 3 inches to 12, and scores of handsome allovers actually worth two dollars a yard. Fifty cents is a low estimate for the cheapest in this lot, the majority are dollar values and better.

They all come in lengths from 2 yards to 4½, and, of course, at these prices, we cannot cut them, the piece must be taken.

Sale Tomorrow (Wednesday.) Store Opens 8:30. See Window Display.

The Cecilian Piano Player is peculiarly the instrument for the thorough musician. Nearly all piano players, in the hands of the novice, respond in a uniform, mechanical, hand-organ sort of a way. The Cecilian, however, with but slight attention to its special qualities, transforms the rendition of a novice, into a more or less artistic result.

The Cecilian Self-Playing Piano is simply one step higher in the development of the Cecilian Piano Player, being a high-grade upright piano with the playing mechanism within—out of sight when the instrument is played with the human hands, ready in an instant when desired.

At the regular Thursday afternoon recital at 3 o'clock, Mr. Ernest R. Lamont, tenor, will sing three selections: "Love is a Bubble" (by request); "Calm as the Night," (Bohm,) and "In Native Worth" (Haydn;) and choice selections will be played by the Cecilian.

THE BEAUTIES AND THE THIEF.

Burglar Crept Over Ladies as They All Slept.

Stole Half a Pint of These Fair One's Jewels.

Trio on Witness Stand and Alas for Wretch!

When three stunning and abused young women appear in court and testify against a man accused of burglary, that fellow has visions of the penitentiary staring him in the face.

Even though the girls slumber peacefully, and are not even disturbed by bad dreams, when the bold thief comes slippling through a narrow aperture between window and trunk, and steals $500 worth of jewelry; and though they cannot positively identify him, the accused is in hard straits.

It was all demonstrated yesterday in Justice Chambers's court.

Orlando Worthington, ex-soldier in Uncle Sam's army during the Spanish-American War and the Filipino insurrection, faced three pretty young ladies who had lost valuable jewelry, a stern court, two detectives who had gathered damaging evidence against the accused, and an unsympathetic audience.

HELD TO ANSWER.

Result: Worthington was held to answer to the Superior Court on a charge of burglary, and on the evidence brought out, he will have a hard chance to escape the "pen."

Pretty and petite Misses Bertha and Annie Thorsen, who live with their mother at No. 1646 Grover street, slept the sleep of innocence, during the night of March 10 last, and their chum, Miss Augusta Langer, slumbered serenely in an adjoining room.

While the three were in the land of dreams, an unsympathetic burglar scaled the side of the house, slipped through a window, climbed over a trunk standing close by, pawed over his unconscious victims, and ransacked the boudoir.

Diamond rings, brooches, watches, fleur-de-lis pins and other articles of jewelry dear to the feminine heart were stolen. The three victims estimated their loss at $800, but Detectives Murphy and Smith, who recovered nearly all of the stolen pieces, conservatively estimated their value at $500.

Worthington was arrested last Thursday by the detectives, and yesterday he was examined.

BEAUTIES IN DISTRESS.

While the circumstantial and actual evidence against the accused was strong, the picture of the three beauties in distress counted against the accused. They had lost, but as they had not seen the burglar they couldn't swear that Worthington was guilty.

Miss Bertha Thorsen, nattily gowned and smiling sweetly, took the witness stand and said she had been out attending the theater on the night of the burglary, and when she neared her home, accompanied by a young gentleman friend, shortly before midnight, she observed a suspicious-looking individual lurking in front of the house.

At first she and her escort had visions of a hold-up, but they were not molested by the man, who slunk into the shadows. She retired after talking to her sister a few minutes, and slumbered on, unconscious of the burglary until next morning.

GIRL WASN'T CERTAIN.

She believed the suspicious-looking individual that was lurking in the neighborhood was none other than the prisoner in the dock, but she couldn't swear to it.

Sister Annie Thorsen told how she retired early, and was awakened by Miss Bertha, who returned from the theater. After talking awhile, both girls went to sleep. Miss Langer, the handsome brunette, testified that she disrobed in the room of the Misses Thorsen, leaving her jewels on the dresser; then she went to her room adjoining and dropped asleep.

She heard nothing of the burglar.

DETECTIVES SHOW THEIR HANDS

Then Detectives Murphy and Smith told what they knew about the case, and incidentally offered half a pint of jewelry in evidence.

Worthington had been arrested at the home of Samuel Rosenthal, No. 335 Douglas street. Rosenthal runs a little optical goods stand at Third and Main streets. To Rosenthal Worthington sold a diamond ring, a chain and a brooch for a few dollars, while he pawned three watches in local shops. Then Worthington proceeded to have a good time with the money he had raised. Later he went back to Rosenthal and dickered for more money on stolen articles. George Folk, Rosenthal's brother-in-law, parleyed with Worthington and finally got the latter to take the property to the Douglas-street house.

Meantime the detectives had picked up the pawn tickets, trailed Worthington and located Folk and Rosenthal, both of whom readily told the whole story of their transactions.

The rest was easy. Worthington was caught at the Douglas-street house and jailed.

After all the evidence had been submitted, Justice Chambers didn't require much time to make up his mind.

"It is the judgment of this court that you shall be held in the sum of $1500 bail to answer to the Superior Court to the charge of burglary," said the court.

Failing to give bail Worthington went back to jail.

REMARKABLE BURGLARY.

The crime with which Worthington stands charged is one of the queerest cases that the police have yet been called upon to investigate. For daring and successful execution, it has few parallels. The aperture through which the burglar entered was not over ten inches wide and many obstacles were in the way after the thief got inside. Actually crawling over the sleeping women, the burglar emptied trunks and dresser drawers and leisurely escaped with his booty, without arousing a single inmate of the house.

While Worthington refused to take the witness stand yesterday, he pleaded innocence to the detectives. According to his story he was formerly a corporal in the Forty-sixth U.S.V. Infantry and he exhibits an honorable discharge. He worked at the Coffee Club on East Second street as a waiter, but quit his job two or three weeks ago. After spending about $50 which he had saved Worthington says he made his home in Echo Park at night. Early one morning he says he was awakened by the sound of voices near him, and watching carefully he saw two men burying a suspicious looking box. When they departed he dug up the box and found the jewelry inside.

Worthington thought this occurred about March 1, but as the Thorsen Burglary did not happen until March 10, the detectives don't credit Worthington's statement.

The three young ladies who testified against the burglar that sacrilegiously entered their boudoirs while they slept, and stole their jewels. Left to right, Miss Langer and Misses Bertha and Annie Thorsen.

KNOWS BETTER NOW.

James Albertson, who says he was raised with horses, tried to induce a balky mule to move off a crossing near the Santa Fé Depot yesterday afternoon, and when the animal refused to be led, Albertson tried to push it along, telling those who were watching him that once he succeeded in making the mule move it would balk no more. He succeeded in making it move its hind legs—kicking Albertson into the nearest vacant lot and fracturing three of his ribs.

CARNEGIE TO POMONA.

Won't Give That Forty Thousand Until College Raises Forty Thousand More.

Andrew Carnegie has offered to build a $40,000 library for Pomona College, and late last evening, after carefully considering the proposition, the board of trustees of the Claremont college decided to accept the gift.

Tacked to the splendid offer is a hard condition, the terms of which caused the board to hesitate.

In accepting the gift, Pomona College agrees to raise another $40,000 for the endowment and maintenance of the library, which is to be built on a site occupying the whole block south of Pearson's Hall.

An attempt will be made to raise the money in large sums, as it was thought yesterday that any attempt on a small scale would meet with signal failure. Friends of the school will be called upon to rally to its need at this time, and it is expected that the money will be raised in the near future by large donations.

A telegram was received yesterday afternoon from Mr. Carnegie, in which he stated that the $40,000 must be raised before his gift would be available.

President Gates said last night: "We have needed just such an offer for a long time, and we are glad that this hard condition has been imposed, as I believe that it will be a stimulus for us."

Other gifts accepted by the trustees were from Deacon Nathan W. Blanchard of Santa Paula, who gave $3000 for the purchase of Live Oak Park, in Claremont, and from George Marsden of San Diego, who gave $1000 for the laying out of walks and the planting of shade trees in Library Park. The complete plans of both parks will be drawn by Parsons and Cook of New York.

TALKS DEATH TO M'MILLAN.

Fierce Attack on Railroad Man in Office.

Green-eyed Fury Stirs Kirby of Huntington Park.

Victim Takes Out Warrant. All a Mistake.

As a result of a stormy meeting in the Huntington building, during which it is alleged that threats to kill were made, Traffic Manager J. McMillan of the Pacific Electric Railway Company, swore to a complaint yesterday, charging George Kirby of Huntington Park with disturbing the peace. Detectives are seeking Kirby and he probably will be arrested today. A more serious charge may be made against him.

The issuance of the warrant is the outcome of a meeting, sought by Kirby, in which he made sensational accusations against McMillan, and which for a time seemed the prelude to a tragedy.

Kirby, who is about 55 years old, and who claims to have been an Arizona mining man, became possessed of the notion that McMillan had shown favors and in other ways had been attentive to Mrs. Kirby, who is considerably younger than her husband.

Maddened apparently beyond his power to control himself, Kirby went to the offices of the Pacific Electric Company, on the seventh floor of the Huntington Building, Friday, and sought the headquarters of Mr. McMillan.

Storming into the outer office, in which were a number of young women, stenographers and clerks, he demanded an audience with the traffic manager.

Mr. McMillan, who was in his private office, appeared and answered in the affirmative when asked by Kirby if he were the manager.

ANGRY VOICE RAISED.

Raising his voice to its topmost pitch, Kirby caused the traffic manager of causing the Whittier "flyers" to stop at Huntington Park to let off and take on Mrs. Kirby on her way to and from work in Los Angeles, and of otherwise paying attentions to the woman.

"You followed my wife here from Denver two months ago, and you've been altogether too familiar with her," declared Kirby in his fury during which he is said to have kept one hand in a pocket as if clasping a weapon. Then he launched into abuse of his wife, using language of a most uncomplimentary nature toward her.

"You have been stopping your 'flyers' for her, but you wouldn't stop them for me," he raved. "You met her at the foot of the elevator in this building and you have been altogether too attentive to her."

"But who are you?" interjected McMillan, when his caller would let him get in a word.

"I'm George Kirby of Huntington Park," was the reply, "and Mrs. Kirby is my wife. I have run this t ing down myself and I know what I'm talking about."

"But I don't know you nor your wife," replied McMillan. "Bring her up here, so I can see her. You have the wrong man."

By this time a large crowd had collected from adjoining offices and Mr. McMillan's private secretary, fearful that Kirby in his rage would do violence, rushed downstairs for an officer.

THREATENS VIOLENCE.

Kirby continued his abuse, growing more excited each moment, and threatening McMillan with violence if he ever looked at Mrs. Kirby. Finally the officer appeared and led the man from the room and to the street.

"The man threatened to kill me," said Mr. McMillan last night to a Times reporter, "and I concluded that the best thing to do was to have him arrested for disturbing the peace.

"So far as the defamatory charges he made against me are concerned, I never heard of this man or his wife before. I have a wife and family of my own, and it is for their protection, as well as for my own, that I have made the complaint against Kirby.

"Had this occurred in Texas, whence I came two years ago, and where I am more familiar with the laws, I should not have let it go so far.

"I have had the case investigated by a detective, and from what I learn it seems that Kirby's wife is the only member of the family that works. I am informed that she told the officer that her husband admitted he made a mistake in accusing me and that she practically was driven from home on the night that he called at my office.

"So far as the stopping of the 'flyer' is concerned, I find that it does stop at Huntington Park, but it is a regular stop and has been for some time.

"It was a vicious and uncalled for attack by this man and I propose to see that he does not have an opportunity to repeat it.

"I am inclined to think the man was out of his right mind at the time, or that he had been drinking. Whatever may have been the cause, it will be aired freely when the man is arraigned in court."

MAJOR JOY DECIDES TO TARRY IN JAIL.

HAPPY—supremely, radiantly happy in jail.

That expresses the condition of Maj. H. Joy, the Pittsburgh steel magnate who is a voluntary prisoner in the city bastile.

Gazing through the steel bars of the bull pen yesterday Maj. Joy prattled like a child and effusively thanked the detectives who had locked him up in order to save him from the rum shops and himself.

Sunday night Joy walked into the station and implired Detectives Moffatt, Hawley and Murphy to lock him up. "Because I have been drunk two weeks and I can't quit," he added.

Rarely has a queerer case been noted in any jail in the country. Joy is wealthy and he appears to be a well educated gentleman; but the rum fiend had temporarily conquered him.

Maj. H. Joy, the Pittsburgh steel manufacturer who asked the police to lock him up.

Yesterday morning when the capitalist who was restrained of his liberty at his own request, awoke and saw the light streaming through prison bars, he felt so joyous he could scarcely restrain himself. When the account of the man's strange plight was read in The Times, with the fact that Maj. Joy stood well in Masonic circles, members of that order began immediately to plan things for the comfort of the unfortunate man. Several Masons visited him in this jail, and assistance was freely offered, but the Pittsburgher preferred to remain behind the bars.

"I'm better off here and I know it," he would say to his new found friends. "Just let me stay in jail until I have completely sobered up and then I'll get on the train and go back to my family in Pittsburgh and stay there until I can trust myself in my own hands once more."

Jop stayed in the Receiving Hospital Sunday night, attended by Police Surgeons Quint and Bonynge, who found the man bordering on delirium tremens. Yesterday his condition was greatly improved and he will probably be able to fully care for himself today.

In Maj. Joy's effects a book showing a heavy deposit in a Pittsburgh bank was found, with papers showing that he is a wealthy steel manufacturer. He will be released from custody today provided he desires to go.

HER DIAMONDS AND OTHER RINGS GONE.

BURGLARS who sought only money or jewelry and who, judging from the manner in which they performed their work, know their business, ransacked the room of Mrs. M. B. Jolly at No. 419 West Ninth street within the past two days and secured property worth more than $200.

Mrs. Jolly had not been at home for several days, having been visiting friends in a near-by city. When she returned home last evening she found her rooms locked as she had left them, but upon entering discovered that the place had been thoroughly searched. Although there was an abundance of valuable property in the rooms, the burglars took only such things as they could easily carry and of which they might dispose without much danger of detection. Dresser drawers, closets and a trunk had been rifled and the contents thrown in confusion upon the floor.

Five rings, all valuable, were stolen. One was a sapphire set with small diamonds, another a ruby and a third an opal, and the other two were diamond rings. All were solid gold and their owner estimates their value at about $200. A pair of solid-gold cuff buttons and several other articles of jewelry were stolen.

Mrs. Jolly went at once to the Police Station and reported her loss. How the thieves gained access to her rooms is not known. The window fastenings were intact and the doors were locked. It is believed the burglars used either nippers or skeleton keys, and upon their departure they carefully locked the doors after them.

PARSIFALIAN ART.

N. B. Blunt Models Exquisite Booklet of Pen-drawn Leading Motives.

The only beauty work that the approaching grand opera season has yet created is an exquisitely illuminated hand-book of "The Leit-Motives of Parsifal," pen product of N. Bowditch Blunt, mapmaker of the City Engineer's office.

Blunt's production, as he says, is "the work of a musical crank in his idle hours." The book's cover, like its interior, is of pure white parchment, and the title quoted above is drawn over a magnificent chalice, penned in infinitely fine lines of India ink.

The first page of the interior is devoted to an index, containing the names of the principal motives in the order of their first appearance. Carefully catalogued are the themes of the Eucharist, the Grail, Faith, the Spear, Suffering, the Promise, the Gallop, Kundry, the Balm, the Breeze, Magic, Klingsor, Flower Maidens, Parsifal, the Swan, Herzeleide, the cry to the Savior, the plaint of the Flower Maidens, Herzeleide's grief, Good Friday, the Desert, Expiation, the Good Friday spell. Then follow, throughout the remaining sheets, the various musical passages which depict these motives. The score making is done in a manner which surpasses in clearness the work of many musical publishing houses, and leaves nothing to be desired in either art or explicitness. No instrument save Bowditch's pen was used in the making of this dainty music souvenir.

The most of these motives were not copied from some author's musical directory, but were dug by the illustrator himself from the mysterious depths of the intricate and polyphonic Wagnerian score.

Blunt has succeeded experimentally in making a few very perfect photographic reproductions of the booklet, on a paper resembling that used for carbon prints. These he calls the work of "an artistic crank," and the combined musical artistic crankism he has given out to a few grateful friends who appreciate serious opera. The intricate detail of this pen-and-ink miniature would defy any commercial reproduction of its beauties.

HEADED THIS WAY?

Hideous Black Murderer Who Killed Woman at Bisbee Has Sister Here.

Responsibility for the murder of Rose Smith, colored, at Bisbee, Ariz., has been fixed upon her paramour, a negro known as John Upshan. He has disappeared and is believed by the officers to be heading for Los Angeles, where his sister lives. The crime was hideous. Smith is a common loafer, but the woman worked as cook and wash woman, making good wages. She had been paid for work done in sums aggregating $70 and this money it is assumed she had refused to surrender.

From good evidence at hand it appears to the Arizona officers that Upshan, leaving a saloon where he had gambled away every cent, had gone to the girl's room about 11 p.m., seized the woman as she slept, and cut her throat with a sharp knife, almost severing the head from the trunk. A short time afterward he reappeared in the saloon and showed $70, which he claimed to have won in another place.

It could not be remembered that a speck of blood showed upon his clothing, from which it is deduced that he may have undressed himself completely before committing the awful deed. The woman's room was found drenched with blood, which had spurted upon the walls and had deluged the bed.

Upshan left a note, telling that he had killed the negress because of her infidelity. He has borne a bad reputation and is known to have served four years in the penitentiary of Texas for burglary.

Although no official statement was made yesterday, the report was confirmed that the Phoenix National Bank of New York will be operated by interests which have been affiliated with J. P. Morgan & Co.

AT THE CITY HALL.

CLASH OVER RAILWAY LINE.

FASHIONABLE FIGUEROA STREET IN THE STRIFE.

South End Property Owners Want Trolley Cars on Thoroughfare. Elite of North End Prepare to Make Vigorous Protest—Application Goes to Council.

Fashionable Figueroa street is in the throes of an internecine struggle over a street-railway line.

Property owners living south of Jefferson street want an electric railway franchise sold on Figueroa, extending from Washington street to the southern city boundary. Many of the land owners north of Adams street are opposed to a street-railway line on their thoroughfare.

Open hostilities were yesterday declared by the élite of the south end of the street. They filed with the Council an application for their franchise. The attempt of the Los Angeles Railway Company to effect a compromise by building only as far north on Figueroa as Adams street was not acceptable to either side. The question must be fought on the proposal for a line extending north to Washington street.

Anticipating a protest from the fashionable north-enders, the application for the franchise sale contains the additional information that over four-fifths of the property frontage along the line of the proposed railway is signed to the application. It further recites that: "Between Adams and Jefferson street, where some persons, some of whom own no property, are vigorously opposing this improvement, over two-thirds of the frontage is signed to the petition. On no given portion of Figueroa street do the protestants approach even one-fifth of the frontage, save where they are near either the Washington street or Estrella-avenue car lines.

"Three-fourths of our tourists see this city by street cars only; we should, therefore, have at least one fine street in the city with a car line that tourists may not so often make the assertion that our streets are narrow and afford only poor improvements."

The Council referred the franchise application to the Board of Public Works. On Friday an opportunity will be given both sides to state their case before that committee.

Trouble over a street railway line on Figueroa street has been brewing for over two years. Petitions have several times been circulated asking the Council to sell a franchise over the thoroughfare, but the opposition has always been strong enough to keep the petition from being formally presented to the Council.

Figueroa street, between Adams and Jefferson streets, was recently included in the conduit district, where no poles or wires are permitted above ground. The property owners are now working on a plan of street lighting similar to that installed on Broadway. They have also started petitions for planting shade trees along the street. The protestants are expected to urge that the beauty of the thoroughfare would be marred beyond repair by a street-railway line.

BIG INCREASE.

MARCH A RECORD MONTH.

"More items of business were reported on by the City Engineer's office during the month of January and February than during the entire year of 1906. My report this week contains ten more sections than any other report ever made by the City Engineer."

With this statement, City Engineer Stafford yesterday prefaced an appeal to the Council for more office room.

The reports of the City Engineer's office are a good index to the street improvements which are being undertaken. They show that during the month of March the city reached the high-water mark in street opening and improvement.

About as much new work was started last month as during any year previous to 1896.

Mr. Stafford's request for additional space for his office force was referred to the Building Committee. That committee now has under consideration plans for an addition to the City Hall building.

DISREGARD VETO.

UTILITY ORDINANCE.

The Council yesterday morning declined to accede to the Mayor's request for amendments to the public utility ordinance, and by a unanimous vote passed it over his veto.

Councilman Smith took the initiative in securing the final adoption of the ordinance in the form in which it was originally presented to the Mayor; but what he said was more for the purpose of stating the attitude of the Council in regard to the utility ordinance than to influence Councilmanic votes. The Republican members of the Council had already caucused on the ordinance and decided to insist on its passage in unamended form.

In his veto message, which was printed in the Times last week, the Mayor asserts that the ordinance is desirable legislation in the main, but that in his opinion it should be amended in a few particulars.

The ordinance established the heat standard for gas at 550 British thermal units per cubic foot; the Mayor favors a standard of 600 units. The lighting standard is sixteen candle power; the Mayor favors seventeen and a half candle power. Under the provision of the rate section of the ordinance the Council does not fix the maximum price which shall be charged for gas until next February, and the rate does not become effective until July 1, 1906; the Mayor favors immediate action, so that the rate schedule may go into effect by July 1 of this year.

While the Mayor has the public utility ordinance under consideration, members of his cabinet and many other citizens assured him that if he would decline to sign the ordinance unamended they would take the lead in the circulation of an initiative petition for the adoption of an ordinance containing the recommendations of the Mayor's veto message.

It is over this initiative ordinance that the final test of strength between the cabinet and the Council will probably come.

The ordinance as passed will become effective in thirty days, it makes provision for the immediate appointment of an inspector of meters, fixes standards of heat and light for gas and electric lights and provides for the fixing annually of a maximum rate which utility companies can charge Los Angeles patrons for gas, electric and telephone service.

M'KEON REINSTATED.

NEW SALARY ORDINANCE.

Street Superintendent Hanley's "economy" ordinance resulted in the increase of the expenses of his office just $25 a month. The Council yesterday afternoon repealed the ordinance passed last Monday and reaffirmed the ordinance in effect at that time, with the exception that the salary of the chief deputy was increased from $125 to $150 a month.

This means the reinstatement of Chief Deputy McKeon and the three inspectors who had been dismissed by the abolishment of their positions and the reduction of all the salaries which were raised in the ordinance adopted last week.

IMPROVEMENT WINS.

TO PAVE WASHINGTON STREET.

Tripping on the heels of a protest which invalidated the proceedings for paving Washington street from Main street to Normandie, a majority petition was yesterday filed with the Council for this improvement and proceedings have been commenced anew.

This time there is no danger of losing the improvement through a protest: the majority of the frontage on both sides of the street is signed to the application for the asphalt paving, and the work must go forward.

Two months ago the original application was filed with the Council for paving this thoroughfare. Then the application did not contain a majority of the frontage. A protest was filed with the City Clerk purporting to be signed by a majority of the property owners on the street. This protest was referred to the City Engineer and it was pronounced "insufficient." His report was based on the number of names which were stricken from the petition because they did not appear as record owners in the City Assessor's books. Later it was discovered that enough of them were owners by recent purchase to place the protestants in a majority.

But while this was being thrashed out in the Council those who desired that the street be paved were not idle. They managed to persuade the officials of the Rosedale Cemetery Association to sign for the improvement of the street. This gave the petitioners a clear majority. Without wasting further time over the old application, they presented a new petition, to which the City Engineer certified as containing a majority of the frontage on the street. When the Council voted yesterday afternoon to abandon the old proceedings this petition was presented and the new proceedings were commenced almost where the old were dropped.

"ENFORCE THE LAWS."

COUNCIL'S MESSAGE TO MAYOR.

"If the executive department finds, after a careful consideration of the ordinances now on the statute books, that additional law is desirable to regulate the use of the streets by railway companies, the Council stands ready to do its part. But first let the executive department enforce the present laws."

This is the message which the Council yesterday sent to the Mayor, replying to his message of a week ago asking the Council to pass an ordinance making it a misdemeanor to operate a freight car over a street on which the company owning the car has no franchise.

The Mayor last night declined to discuss what action he will take in regard to the use of freight cars on the streets. But he indicated pretty clearly by tone and action that he expects to take the Council at its word and "enforce the laws."

TO INSPECT PENSIONERS.

NEW COMMISSION MEETS.

All pensioners of the local police department must appear before the Police Pension Commission Tuesday morning, April 11, either in person or by proxy, and present certificates from the Health Officer as to their present physical condition.

Members of the Police Commission, who are also the Police Pension Commissioners, yesterday afternoon met in the Mayor's office for temporary organization as a pension board.

Their first act was a resolution that the seven pensioners of the local department appear before the board in order that the members may satisfy themselves of the present physical condition of the applicants.

Some of the commissioners are of the opinion that there may be one or more pensioners who have recovered from their injuries sufficiently to render some service to the department.

Council Miscellany.

A committee representing the Chamber of Commerce, Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association and Municipal League yesterday reported to the Council recommending R. McKay, a local engineer, as their choice for an expert to go East to examine different systems of garbage collection and destruction. A week ago the Council passed a resolution to send an expert East, and invited these commercial bodies to recommend a fit person. But a question arose during the week's time that elapsed between the request and recommendation as to the advisability of expending the money to pay for an expert report. The result was that the Council withheld action on Mr. McKay's appointment for one week.

Rudolph Herring, a sanitary engineer of national repute, is expected to pass through Los Angeles next week on his way East from San Francisco. The Council yesterday asked City Engineer Stafford to arrange for a conference between Mr. Herring and the Board of Public Works for the discussion of garbage collection and destruction. Mr. Herring is said to be one of the best-posted men on garbage incineration in the country.

The Council yesterday afternoon passed a preliminary resolution declaring its intention to advertise for bids for the paving with asphalt East Ninth street from Central avenue to Santa Fé avenue.

McGuire & McClure, local street contractors, yesterday submitted the low bid for supplying sprinkling carts and teams for the use of the street department during the next four years. Their bid was $1.40 a day for horses and cart. D. F. Donegan submitted the next low-weed bid—$1.44 a day for team and sprinkler. The present contract price is $1.69 a day. Nine firms bid for the privilege, which is the largest contract let in connection with the care of the streets. All bids were referred to the Board of Public Works.

A petition was yesterday made to the Council by the Pacific Hospital Association, asking the city to collect garbage from that institution free of cost to the association. The present garbage contract does not provide for garbage removal from hospitals or charitable institutions.

New School Site.

Adopting a recommendation from the Board of Education, the Council yesterday passed an ordinance instructing the City Attorney to institute condemnation proceedings for securing a schoolsite on East Fourteenth street, between Hawthorne and Ivy streets. The board recently sold a schoolsite on Sixth street. The proceeds of that sale are to be devoted to the purchase of the Fourteenth-street property.

Object to Pipe Line.

Property owners on Oregon avenue yesterday petitioned the Council for the removal of an oil-pipe line on that thoroughfare. Sylvanius Todd, representing the petitioners, told the Council that the pipe line is an outlaw, as the owners have neither permit nor franchise for placing a line on the street. The petitioners will have a public hearing Friday afternoon before the Public Works.

New City Prosecutor.

City Attorney Mathews yesterday notified the Council of the appointment of A. I. McCormick of the law firm of McCormick & McCormick to the position of second assistant city prosecutor at the Police Court. The position was created by the State Legislature at its last session.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

HOG MEN ON THE WARPATH.

HUNTINGTON PARK WANTS TO WIPE OUT THE INDUSTRY.

Desires to be a City and the Hog Raisers Also Take Steps to Incorporate in Self-defense, so that They Can Raise Their Pigs in Peace.

The recently settled district known as Huntington Park has prospered to such an extent that the resident population, as well as a number of the outlying property holders, want to surround themselves with a territory that will reflect credit upon the town now in embryo.

But for ambitious town builders there are all kinds of difficulties to be surmounted. At the present time the people at the park are sitting up nights discussing how the vexed question now confronting them may be dealt with. It is a question of hogs—of both varieties, and whether the two or four-legged variety is going to prove most troublesome remains to be seen.

The Huntington Park people are considering the advisability of applying to the Board of Supervisors to call a special election for incorporation purposes. Adjacent to the territory bounded by Santa Fé avenue is the city dump, where all kinds of filth and nastiness finds lodgment. The place is really in the river bottom, and, though not a legally defined dumping ground, is used as such. Contiguous to this unsavory place the hog raisers maintain themselves, and though not very numerous, spread over a good deal of ground, and the swine revel in filth to their infinite content of their hearts.

The main purpose of the people of Huntington Park in incorporating as a city is to wipe this long-standing nuisance out, and restore the ground now utilized by the hog raisers to a more healthful condition. With this end in view it is discussed whether the southern boundary of the Cudahy ranch, the eastern boundary bordering upon Fruitland and mayhap taking parts of that district in if the residents so desire, the western boundary reaching up to Compton avenue, and the north to the city limits, would not make the new municipality all that it should be until the time arrives when it might be annexed en masse by the city of Los Angeles.

But before such a plan is carried to completion the hog men contend that they will have a word or two to say. To a man they refuse to be included in the new municipality, and for the reason that they are aware the incorporation scheme is merely a ruse to chase them and their hogs out of the neighborhood.

They have banded together to fight the proposition in a kind of hog dealers' anti-incorporation society. They have taken the initial steps that may result in wiping the "anti" out of the title, whereupon they may spring an incorporation of their own, demanding of the Supervisors that a special election be called to determine whether Hogtown shall be a municipality of any old class. Their opponents aver that in order to make the showing of 500 residents in the district desired to be included in the new city, the hogs will have to be counted; but notwithstanding such jibes the hog men are getting ready for business.

It is proposed that Hogtown shall be bounded on the north and west by the city limits, on the south by Vernon avenue, and on the east by Boyle avenue, and though these limits have not absolutely been agreed upon they have been fixed tentatively. The hog raisers take the stand that it is a willful interference with the natural and existing condition of things, which are peculiarly suitable for manufacturing and other enterprises. If a brewery or two could be established down that way, with a plentiful supply of water, and a few restaurants that could and would furnish more swill, why then the hog men believe that all things would work together for good to them that love the hog.

Meanime both parties to this rush for incorporation are getting ready to appear before the Board of Supervisors.

MOSGROVE ESTATE.

FINAL ACCOUNT RENDERED.

The final account in the estate of the late Henry Mosgrove, proprietor of two cloak and suit houses on Spring street, who died February 24, 1904, was filed yesterday in the Probate Court, and Judge Wilbur will pass upon the matter after going through the numerous items.

"Mosgrove's," at No. 119 Spring street, was appraised at $5098.94, and sold for $7500, while the "Model," at No. 217 Spring street, was appraised at $5500.99, and sold for $6700. There is now cash on hand amounting to $8346.06, and real property worth $58,490, with all outstanding indebtedness paid. These amounts are ready for distribution, and is the net of the estate with all payments satisfied and attorneys' fees paid. The most valuable property is an eighty-acre orange grove at Pomona, valued at only $21,500, and two other small groves appraised at $5000 and $6000, respectively.

The widow of the deceased has resided for years at San Francisco, having separated from her husband, but she and the families of the brothers of the deceased will profit by the will.

"SHERIFF'S SALE."

ONE SHERIFF DOESN'T LIKE.

Sheriff White contemplates taking action through the District Attorney's office against I. R. Kline, who inserted in the newspapers advertisements under the heading "Sheriff's Sale of Personal Property," followed by the usual statement made in such cases over the official signature of Sheriff White. After this copy of the court order under which the Sheriff acts in making a levy upon goods, Kline sets out that he is in charge and that the goods have been removed to a certain place for ready and convenient sale. Then follows at length the "puff" for the cheap goods. In handbills that have been distributed Kline set out "that he had been deputized" to have all these goods auctioned.

This is pronounced by Sheriff White to be a fake, calculated to bring his office into disrepute as well as inveigle the people into dealing at the store indicated under the supposition that they are really attending a sheriff's sale. The sale in question was advertised to begin last Saturday, and as a matter of fact the goods which these are supposed to represent were shipped to San Diego after the levy made by the Sheriff had been released. Kline claims he shipped them back from San Diego, but the Sheriff avers that they have multiplied in transit, for all kinds of goods are mentioned in the advertisement that never were attached at all.

It is likely action will be taken today with a view to the prosecution of Kline for misleading the public in the manner indicated and unlawfully using and misrepresenting the Sheriff in his official capacity.

FRANCHISE WON'T GO.

J. HARVEY M'CARTHY'S MISSFIRE

The Board of Supervisors took under advisement the application of J. Harvey McCarthy for a street railway franchise along Indiana street, and his bid of $100 will certainly be refused.

Indiana street is the dividing line between the city and the county in the Boyle Heights region, and, as McCarthy has a tract of land on the street which he is anxious to cut up and sell for the owner, he arrived at the conclusion that he would make a barrel of money if one of the lines could be twisted down Indiana street. Mr. Huntington agreed to do this if McCarthy would get the franchise and pay a bonus of $5000. Everything seemed to be going his way until the Legislature cut the life of a franchise to twenty-one years, and thereupon Mr. Huntington refused to carry out the programme.

Not yet acknowledging defeat, McCarthy asked the Supervisors to grant him a franchise for a double track down the county side of Indiana street, not knowing, apparently, that a State law forbids double tracks on one side of a street. As a result his bid for a franchise will be turned down, and probably the franchise will be readvertised in such way as to comply with the new twenty-one-year law.

MARE'S HIND LEG.

COUNTY TO BE SUED.

J. R. Cocke put in a claim with the Board of Supervisors for $466.50, being for the alleged depreciation in the value of a certain mare and for the loss of its services a short time. The claim was turned down, and now suit is to follow.

According to the statement made by Cocke, he was driving along the Llewellyn road, a mile and a half from Bixby station, when the hind feet of a mare valued at $1400, slipped into a culvert which had been opened by the removal of a board, and were injured. Of course no one knows who did it. Cocke claims the county is responsible.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

CORONER'S HOLIDAY. Coroner J. H. Trout was yesterday granted a sixty days' leave of absence from the State by the Supervisors. For over two years he has suspended his usual holiday trip to the East, and now, accompanied by his wife, the Coroner is going to New Orleans, thence to New York, and, incidentally, to other points to visit relatives. During his absence his place will be filled by Deputy Summerfield.

INFANT'S DAMAGE. George E. Abbott, by George D. Abbott, is suing the Los Angeles Pacific Railroad Company for $15,000 as damages and $435 for money expended. The plaintiff is an infant about 18 months old, and was run over on Sixteenth street, between Normandie and Roosevelt avenues, on December 1, 1904. The injuries to the baby were such that the left arm had to be amputated.

SALISBURY DIVORCE. Effa Salisbury was granted a divorce from Lloyd Salisbury by Judge York yesterday, on the ground of desertion. The parties were married in Ohio in 1901, but from the facts presented, the husband was cruel to his wife in a particularly aggravated form.

DRANK HIS HERITAGE. Charles Burger was before a commission in lunacy yesterday. It turned out that he was not insane, but had been suffering the natural results of a prolonged debauch. About three months ago Burger inherited $1000, and proceeded to enjoy himself according to his lights. He drank steadily just as long as his money lasted, and at the expiration of three months found himself with empty pockets, but with a mind all twisted out of shape.

THREE CHARGES. Dick Teirce of Downey has been arrested on three charges of driving a blind pig behind the shutters of his poolroom. He was held by Justice Phillips in $900 bail.

KICHLINE SHOWS FIGHT. Boniface Kichline of the Palmdale Hotel has no immediate intention of owning up to the two charges against him of carrying on the blind-pig business in the Antelope Valley. Last time he pleaded guilty, and had no sooner arrived at home and got business into shape than he was arrested again. Yesterday Justice Young set his trial for April 14.

HAMS WERE SEVERED. Stella J. Ham was yesterday granted a divorce from Arthur G. Ham by Judge Trask, on the ground of desertion. The parties lived at Long Beach, and about a year and a half ago the husband deserted his wife and went away—as she believed—with a girl. He had told his wife some time before that he was merely living with her until he could get the girl of his choice. There is one child of the marriage, and the court made an order that the husband pay $10 a month toward its support.

RAIDED A CAR. Fred Wilson and George Murphy yesterday pleaded before Judge Smith to having looted a Southern Pacific car of 930 pounds of brasses. They were caught in the river bed with the property, and were each sentenced to two years at Folsom.

EXPERIENCE AVAILED NOTHING. James Mayor, a stove dealer on Main street, was granted a divorce from Millie Mayor by Judge Allen yesterday, on the ground of desertion.

"BULL" ON TRIAL. A. C. Williams, more popularly known as "Bull" Williams, is now on trial before Judge Smith and a jury for participating in the robbery perpetrated near the corner of Sixth and Crocker streets in the early morning of February 5.

SENT TO PATTON. Sherman Holt was yesterday ordered committed to the State hospital at Patton by Judge Wilbur. While at work last January a piece of iron fell upon his head, and since then he has acted erratically.

THE "VALDEMAR" STRIP. The suit of Scott W. Alexander against the city to quiet his title to a strip of land 1.72 inches along along the 90-foot front of the Valdemar Hotel, at the corner of Hope and Sixth streets, came to trial yesterday in Judge Conrey's court. In erecting the building, Alexander projected the wall over the property line, as is alleged by the city authorities, and he was compelled to bring suit to have his title quieted or else submit to have the front of his building shaved to conform to the frontage alleged by the city.

THE INFERIOR COURTS.

DEAR QUAIL AT PALACE.

PROPRIETOR FIEBER FINED FOR HAVING GAME BIRDS.

Game Warden and Police Justice Dined in the Cafe and Heard Stories of Serving Quail Out of Season, Which They Investigated. Fieber Paid $50.

J. Fieber, one of the proprietors of the Palace Café, didn't know he was playing with fire when he served Justice Rose of the new division of the Police Court and Game Warden Pritchard, a few days ago, and incidentally mentioned the fact that his café was the only one in the city that could show quail at this season of the year.

After Pritchard had feasted on a baron of beef he politely intimated to Fieber that he would like to inspect the quail. Pleased to show his treasures, Fieber threw open the doors of his refrigerator and exhibited about thirty-five fat and juicy valley birds. Then the proprietor was quietly told by Pritchard that a charge of violating the game laws would be preferred against him.

Yesterday in the Police Court Fieber was called upon to face his two guests—the one on the bench and the other in the capacity of prosecutor.

Fieber said a friend had shipped the quail in, and he didn't know he was violating the law; but the court thought a fine was imperative, and the restaurant man paid $50 for his little indiscretion.

Defended Son.

I. Wilks of No. 917 East First street took exception to the fact that his son had been apprehended by George Tamura, a Japanese who claimed that the youth had been caught in the act of ransacking a bureau drawer, and he proceeded to pounce on the little brown man.

Tamura was holding the boy for the patrol wagon, but Wilks rescued the son and both beat a hasty retreat before the police appeared. Wilks was arrested yesterday on a warrant sworn to by Tamura, who charges battery. April 15 is the date fixed for the hearing. The boy, who was formerly in the Detention Home, has made his escape.

Policelets.

Dr. H. T. Hollingsworth, the electric practitioner, will be tried a second time in the Police Court on a chargeof practicing medicine unlawfully. After a three days' trial of Hollingsworth, the jury last Saturday failed to agree. The new trial is scheduled for May 9. Hollingsworth is out on bail.

Charles Jong and Wong Quong, jugglers of lottery tickets, paid fines of $50 each in the Police Court. They are old offenders.

Steve A. Coxey, charged with using the name of Frank Fischer to a check for $45, was held to answer in the Superior Court. Bail was fixed at the sum of $1500.

By January Jones

No quotation more appropriately expresses the idea I have in mind than Lord Bacon's famous statement "That strangers are more admired than favored."

I am comparatively a stranger to readers of The Times and with commendable caution, you are no doubt in the habit of weighing in the balance all statements concerning mines, promoters and mining stocks. For this same cautious treatment of me and the publicity which has been given to me, I would thank you, for it gives to me the opportunity to offer in rebuttal this statement, issued under my name and paid for with my money.

First, I will tell how I came to be known as January Jones.

Mine is the old story of a man spurred on by ambition; possessed of years of experience as a prospector and mining engineer; brim full of hope; having plenty of grit and withal, endowed with a love of mining as a means, first, of obtaining a livelihood and, second, as the likeliest of all pursuits wherein elusive fortune may be captured.

I believed as a great philosopher has said: "That if a man shall look sharply he shall see fortune, for though she is blind she is not invisible."

And this was aptly applied to my initial experience in Tonopah, the camp I started for as soon as the world was startled by the news of the great $10,000,000 strike on the original Tonopah claims.

My entrance to Tonopah was free from all spectacular accompaniments, for I entered simply as a mining engineer, looking for an opening.

My capital stock was hope and experience and with these to back me, I took a lease on a claim and luckily made it pay.

Then came the first whispering about Goldfield and with instinct born of curiosity and a speculative disposition, I quietly traveled to Goldfield and soon bargained for a lease on the January claim.

My partners scouted at my judgment in leaving well-known Tonopah for what they called a mythical Goldfield bonanza. But I had found indications of mineral on the January claim and wanted the lease.

Now, I am not egotistical about my achievements, but I do claim that judgment and actual mining experience played the leading parts in directing me to this Goldfield El Dorado.

January 5th, 1904, I signed the lease and in a few hours, my miners had uncovered the world-famous January ledge, which is said to be one of the richest gold lodes in the world.

When I made the strike, I will admit that I had to steel myself to stand the strain of excitement, which enthralled me and while my feet rested firmly on the ground my thoughts were in the clouds. My brain whizzed with kaleidiscopic visions of Monte Cristos, Rockefellers and Rothschilds, ad libitum.

But my material nature soon gained supremacy and I made hay while the sun shone and when it hid below the horizon, I made hay by candle light.

The ore ran fabulously rich from the surface and assays across the ledge showed $250 to $2500 a ton. So rich was the ground on which we worked that in eleven months, I actually extracted and sold ores enough to make a stack of $20 gold pieces, 415 feet high. In other words the smelters paid me over a million dollars or at the rate of about $3000 a day for 330 days.

When my lease on the January expired, I had sold a million's worth of ore and had piled on the dump another million in ore, running $40 a ton. Transportation costs barred shipping.

CLASH OVER RAILWAY LINE.

FASHIONABLE FIGUEROA STREET IN THE STRIFE.

South End Property Owners Want Trolley Cars on Thoroughfare. Elite of North End Prepare to Make Vigorous Protest.—Application Goes to Council.

Fashionable Figueroa street is in the throes of an internecine struggle over a street-railway line.

Property owners living south of Jefferson street want an electric railway franchise sold on Figueroa, extending from Washington street to the southern city boundary. Many of the land owners north of Adams street are opposed to a street-railway line on their thoroughfare.

Open hostilities were yesterday declared by the élite of the south end of the street. They filed with the Council an application for their franchise. The attempt of the Los Angeles Railway Company to effect a compromise by building only as far north on Figueroa as Adams street was not acceptable to either side. The question must be fought on the proposal for a line extending north to Washington street.

Anticipating a protest from the fashionable north-enders, the application for the franchise sale contains the additional information that over four-fifths of the property frontage along the line of the proposed railway is signed to the application. It further recites that: "Between Adams and Jefferson street, where some persons, some of whom own no property, are vigorously opposing this improvement, over two-thirds of the frontage is signed to the petition. On no given portion of Figueroa street do the protestants approach even one-fifth of the frontage, save where they are on either the Washington street or Estrella-avenue car lines.

"Three-fourths of our tourists see this city by street cars only; we should, therefore, have at least one fine street in the city with a car line that tourists may not so often make the assertion that our streets are narrow and afford only poor improvements."

The Council referred the franchise application to the Board of Public Works. On Friday an opportunity will be given both sides to state their case before that committee.

Trouble over a street railway line on Figueroa street has been brewing for over two years. Petitions have several times been circulated asking the Council to sell a franchise over the thoroughfare, but the opposition has always been strong enough to keep the petition from being formally presented to the Council.

Figueroa street, between Adams and Jefferson streets, was recently included in the conduit district, where no poles or wires are permitted above ground. The property owners are now working on a plan of street lighting similar to that installed on Broadway. They have also started petitions for planting shade trees along the street. The protestants are expected to urge that the beauty of the thoroughfare would be marred beyond repair by a street-railway line.

BIG INCREASE.

MARCH A RECORD MONTH.

"More items of business were reported on by the City Engineer's office during the month of January and February than during the entire year of 1900. My report this week contains ten more sections than any other report ever made by the City Engineer."

With this statement, City Engineer Stafford yesterday prefaced an appeal to the Council for more office room.

The reports of the City Engineer's office are a good index to the street improvements which are being undertaken. They show that during the month of March the city reached the high-water mark in street opening and improvement.

About as much new work was started last month as during any year previous to 1896.

Mr. Stafford's request for additional space for his office force was referred to the Building Committee. That committee now has under consideration plans for an addition to the City Hall building.

DISREGARD VETO.

UTILITY ORDINANCE.

The Council yesterday morning declined to accede to the Mayor's request for amendments to the public utility ordinance, and by a unanimous vote passed it over his veto.

Councilman Smith took the initiative in securing the final adoption of the ordinance in the form in which it was originally presented to the Mayor; but what he said was more for the purpose of stating the attitude of the Council in regard to the utility ordinance than to influence Councilmanic votes. The Republican members of the Council had already caucused on the ordinance and decided to insist on its passage in unamended form.

In his veto message, which was printed in The Times last week, the Mayor asserts that the ordinance is desirable legislation in the main, but that in his opinion it should be amended in a few particulars.

The ordinance established the heat standard for gas at 550 British thermal units per cubic foot; the Mayor favors a standard of 600 units. The lighting standard is sixteen candle power; the Mayor favors seventeen and a half candle power. Under the provision of the rate section of the ordinance the Council does not fix the maximum price which shall be charged for gas until next February, and the rate does not become effective until July 1, 1906; the Mayor favors immediate action, so that the rate schedule may go into effect by July 1 of this year.

While the Mayor has the public utility ordinance under consideration, members of his cabinet and many other citizens assured him that if he would decline to sign the ordinance unamended they would take the lead in the circulation of an initiative petition for the adoption of an ordinance containing the recommendations of the Mayor's veto message.

It is over this initiative ordinance that the final test of strength between the cabinet and the Council will probably come.

The ordinance as passed will become effective in thirty days, it makes provision for the immediate appointment of an inspector of meters, fixes standards of heat and light for gas and electric lights and provides for the fixing annually of a maximum rate which utility companies can charge Los Angeles patrons for gas, electric and telephone service.

M'KEON REINSTATED.

NEW SALARY ORDINANCE.

Street Superintendent Hanley's "economy" ordinance resulted in the increase of the expenses of this office just $25 a month. The Council yesterday afternoon repealed the ordinance passed last Monday and reaffirmed the ordinance in effect at that time, with the exception that the salary of the chief deputy was increased from $125 to $150 a month.

This means the reinstatement of Chief Deputy McKeon and the three inspectors who had been dismissed by the abolishment of their positions and the reduction of all the salaries which were raised in the ordinance adopted last week.

IMPROVEMENT WINS.

TO PAVE WASHINGTON STREET.

Tripping on the heels of a protest which invalidated the proceedings for paving Washington street from Main street to Normandie, a majority petition was yesterday filed with the Council for this improvement and proceedings have been commenced anew.

This time there is no danger of losing the improvement through a protest: the majority of the frontage on both sides of the street is signed to the application for the asphalt paving, and the work must go forward.

Two months ago the original application was filed with the Council for paving this thoroughfare. Then the application did not contain a majority of the frontage. A protest was filed with the City Clerk purporting to be signed by a majority of the property owners on the street. This protest was referred to the City Engineer and it was pronounced "insufficient." His report was based on the number of names which were stricken from the petition because they did not appear as record owners in the City Assessor's books. Later it was discovered that enough of them were owners by recent purchase to place the protestants in a majority.

But while this was being thrashed out in the Council those who desired that the street be paved were not idle. They managed to persuade the officials of the Rosedale Cemetery Association to sign for the improvement of the street. This gave the petitioners a clear majority. Without wasting further time over the old application, they presented a new petition, to which the City Engineer certified as containing a majority of the frontage on the street. When the Council voted yesterday afternoon to abandon the old proceedings this petition was presented and the new proceedings were commenced almost where the old were dropped.

"ENFORCE THE LAWS."

COUNCIL'S MESSAGE TO MAYOR.

"If the executive department finds, after a careful consideration of the ordinances now on the statute books, that additional law is desirable to regulate the use of the streets by railway companies, the Council stands ready to do its part. But first let the executive department enforce the present laws."

This is the message which the Council yesterday sent to the Mayor, replying to his message of a week ago asking the Council to pass an ordinance making it a misdemeanor to operate a freight car over a street on which the company owning the car has no franchise.

The Mayor last night declined to discuss what action he will take in regard to the use of freight cars on the streets. But he indicated pretty clearly by tone and action that he expects to take the Council at its word and "enforce the laws."

TO INSPECT PENSIONERS.

NEW COMMISSION MEETS.

All pensioners of the local police department must appear before the Police Pension Commission Tuesday morning, April 11, either in person or by proxy, and present certificates from the Health Officer as to their present physical condition.

Members of the Police Commission, who are also the Police Pension Commissioners, yesterday afternoon met in the Mayor's office for temporary organization as a pension board.

Their first act was a resolution that the seven pensioners of the local department appear before the board in order that the members may satisfy themselves of the present physical condition of the applicants.

Some of the commissioners are of the opinion that there may be one or more pensioners who have recovered from their injuries sufficiently to render some service to the department.

Council Miscellany.

A committee representing the Chamber of Commerce, Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association and Municipal League yesterday reported to the Council recommending R. McKay, a local engineer, as their choice for an expert to go East to examine different systems of garbage collection and destruction. A week ago the Council passed a resolution to send an expert East, and invited these commercial bodies to recommend a fit person. But a question arose during the week's time that elapsed between the request and recommendation as to the advisability of expending the money to pay for an expert report. The result was that the Council withheld action on Mr. McKay's appointment for one week.

Rudolph Herring, a sanitary engineer of national repute, is expected to pass through Los Angeles next week on his way East from San Francisco. The Council yesterday asked City Engineer Stafford to arrange for a conference between Mr. Herring and the Board of Public Works for the discussion of garbage collection and destruction. Mr. Herring is said to be one of the best-posted men on garbage incineration in the country.

The Council yesterday afternoon passed a preliminary resolution declaring its intention to advertise for bids for the paving with asphalt East Ninth street from Central avenue to Santa Fé avenue.

McGuire & McClure, local street contractors, yesterday submitted the low bid for supplying sprinkling carts and teams for the use of the street department during the next four years. Their bid was $1.40 a day for horses and cart. D. F. Donegan submitted the next lowwest bid—$1.44 a day for team and sprinkler. The present contract price is $1.69 a day. Nine firms bid for the privilege, which is the largest contract let in connection with the care of the streets. All bids were referred to the Board of Public Works.

A petition was yesterday made to the Council by the Pacific Hospital Association, asking the city to collect garbage from that institution free of cost to the association. The present garbage contract does not provide for garbage removal from hospitals or charitable institutions.

New School Site.

Adopting a recommendation from the Board of Education, the Council yesterday passed an ordinance instructing the City Attorney to institute condemnation proceedings for securing a schoolsite on East Fourteenth street, between Hawthorne and Ivy streets. The board recently sold a schoolsite on Sixth street. The proceeds of that sale are to be devoted to the purchase of the Fourteenth-street property.

Object to Pipe Line.

Property owners on Oregon avenue yesterday petitioned the Council for the removal of an oil-pipe line on that thoroughfare. Sylvanius Todd, representing the petitioners, told the Council that the pipe line is an outlaw, as the owners have neither permit nor franchise for placing a line on the street. The petitioners will have a public hearing Friday afternoon before the Public Works.

New City Prosecutor.

City Attorney Mathews yesterday notified the Council of the appointment of A. I. McCormick of the law firm of McCormick & McCormick to the position of second assistant city prosecutor at the Police Court. The position was created by the State Legislature at its last session.

HOG MEN ON THE WARPATH.

HUNTINGTON PARK WANTS TO WIPE OUT THE INDUSTRY.

Desires to be a City and the Hog Raisers Also Take Steps to Incorporate in Self-defense, so that They Can Raise Their Pigs in Peace.

The recently settled district known as Huntington Park has prospered to such an extent that the resident population, as well as a number of the outlying property holders, want to surround themselves with a territory that will reflect credit upon the town now in embryo.

But for ambitious town builders there are all kinds of difficulties to be surmounted. At the present time the people at the park are sitting up nights discussing how the vexed question now confronting them may be dealt with. It is a question of hogs—of both varieties, and whether the two or four-legged variety is going to prove most troublesome remains to be seen.

The Huntington Park people are considering the advisability of applying to the Board of Supervisors to call a special election for incorporation purposes. Adjacent to the territory bounded by Santa Fé avenue is the city dump, where all kinds of filth and nastiness finds lodgment. The place is really in the river bottom, and, though not a legally defined dumping ground, is used as such. Contiguous to this unsavory place the hog raisers maintain themselves, and though not very numerous, spread over a good deal of ground, and the swine revel in filth to their infinite content of their hearts.

The main purpose of the people of Huntington Park in incorporating as a city is to wipe this long-standing nuisance out, and restore the ground now utilized by the hog raisers to a more healthful condition. With this end in view it is discussed whether the southern boundary of the Cudahy ranch, the eastern boundary bordering upon Fruitland and mayhap taking parts of that district in if the residents so desire, the western boundary reaching up to Compton avenue, and the north to the city limits, would not make the new municipality all that it should be until the time arrives when it might be annexed en masse by the city of Los Angeles.

But before such a plan is carried to completion the hog men contend that they will have a word or two to say. To a man they refuse to be included in the new municipality, and for the reason that they are aware the incorporation scheme is merely a ruse to chase them and their hogs out of the neighborhood.

They have banded together to fight the proposition in a kind of hog dealers' anti-incorporation society. They have taken the initial steps that may result in wiping the "anti" out of the title, whereupon they may spring an incorporation of their own, demanding of the Supervisors that a special election be called to determine whether Hogtown shall be a municipality of any old class. Their opponents aver that in order to make the showing of 500 residents in the district desired to be included in the new city, the hogs will have to be counted; but notwithstanding such jibes the hog men are getting ready for business.

It is proposed that Hogtown shall be bounded on the north and west by the city limits, on the south by Vernon avenue, and on the east by Boyle avenue, and though these limits have not absolutely been agreed upon they have been fixed tentatively. The hog raisers take the stand that it is a willful interference with the natural and existing condition of things, which are peculiarly suitable for manufacturing and other enterprises. If a brewery or two could be established down that way, with a plentiful supply of water, and a few restaurants that could and would furnish more swill, why then the hog men believe that all things would work together for good to them that love the hog.

Meantime both parties to this rush for incorporation are getting ready to appear before the Board of Supervisors.

MOSGROVE ESTATE.

FINAL ACCOUNT RENDERED.

The final account in the estate of the late Henry Mosgrove, proprietor of two cloak and suit houses on Spring street, who died February 24, 1904, was filed yesterday in the Probate Court, and Judge Wilbur will pass upon the matter after going through the numerous items.

"Mosgrove's," at No. 119 Spring street, was appraised at $5098.94, and sold for $7800, while the "Model," at No. 217 Spring street, was appraised at $5500.99, and sold for $6700. There is bids for the paving with asphalt East Ninth street from Central avenue to Santa Fé avenue.

McGuire & McClure, local street contractors, yesterday submitted the low bid for supplying sprinkling carts and teams for the use of the street department during the next four years. Their bid was $1.40 a day for horses and cart. D. F. Donegan submitted the next lowwest bid—$1.44 a day for team and sprinkler. The present contract price is $1.69 a day. FINAL ACCOUNT RENDERED.

The final account in the estate of the late Henry Mosgrove, proprietor of two cloak and suit houses on Spring street, who died February 24, 1904, was filed yesterday in the Probate Court, and Judge Wilbur will pass upon the matter after going through the numerous items.

"Mosgrove's," at No. 119 Spring street, was appraised at $5098.94, and sold for $7800, while the "Model," at No. 217 Spring street, was appraised at $5500.99, and sold for $6700. There is now cash on hand amounting to $3346.06, and real property worth $58,490, with all outstanding indebtedness paid. These amounts are ready for distribution, and is the net of the estate with all payments satisfied and attorneys' fees paid. The most valuable property is an eighty-acre orange grove at Pomona valued at only $21,500, and two other small groves appraised at $5000 and $6000, respectively.

The widow of the deceased has resided for years at San Francisco, having separated from her husband, but she and the families of the brothers of the deceased will profit by the will.

"SHERIFF'S SALE."

ONE SHERIFF DOESN'T LIKE.

Sheriff White contemplates taking action through the District Attorney's office against I. R. Kline, who inserted in the newspapers advertisements under the heading "Sheriff's Sale of Personal Property," followed by the usual statement made in such cases over the official signature of Sheriff White. After this copy of the court order under which the Sheriff acts in making a levy upon goods, Kline sets out that he is in charge and that the goods have been removed to a certain place for ready and convenient sale. Then follows at length the "puff" for the cheap goods. In handbills that have been distributed Kline set out "that he had been deputized" to have all these goods auctioned.

This is pronounced by Sheriff White to be a fake, calculated to bring his office into disrepute as well as inveigle the people into dealing at the store indicated under the supposition that they are really attending a sheriff's sale. The sale in question was advertised to begin last Saturday, and as a matter of fact the goods which these are supposed to represent were shipped to San Diego after the levy made by the Sheriff had been released. Kline claims he shipped them back from San Diego, but the Sheriff avers that they have multiplied in transit, for all kinds of goods are mentioned in the advertisement that never were attached at all.

It is likely action will be taken today with a view to the prosecution of Kline for misleading the public in the manner indicated and unlawfully using and misrepresenting the Sheriff in his official capacity.

FRANCHISE WON'T GO.

J. HARVEY M'CARTHY'S MISSFIRE

The Board of Supervisors took under advisement the application of J. Harvey McCarthy for a street railway franchise along Indiana street, and his bid of $100 will certainly be refused.

Indiana street is the dividing line between the city and the county in the Boyle Heights region, and, as McCarthy has a tract of land on the street which he is anxious to cut up and sell for the owner, he arrived at the conclusion that he would make a barrel of money if one of the lines could be twisted down Indiana street. Mr. Huntington agreed to do this if McCarthy would get the franchise and pay a bonus of $5000. Everything seemed to be going his way until the Legislature cut the life of a franchise to twenty-one years, and thereupon Mr. Huntington refused to carry out the programme.

Not yet acknowledging defeat, McCarthy asked the Supervisors to grant him a franchise for a double track down the county side of Indiana street, not knowing, apparently, that a State law forbids double tracks on one side of a street. As a result his bid for a franchise will be turned down, and probably the franchise will be readvertised in such way as to comply with the new twenty-one-year law.

MARE'S HIND LEG.

COUNTY TO BE SUED.

J. R. Cocke put in a claim with the Board of Supervisors for $466.50, being for the alleged depreciation in the value of a certain mare and for the loss of its services a short time. The claim was turned down, and now suit is to follow.

According to the statement made by Cocke, he was driving along the Llewellyn road, a mile and a half from Bixby station, when the hind feet of a mare valued at $1400, slipped into a culvert which had been opened by the removal of a board, and were injured. Of course no one knows who did it. Cocke claims the county is responsible.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

CORONER'S HOLIDAY. Coroner J. H. Trout was yesterday granted a sixty days' leave of absence from the State by the Supervisors. For over two years he has suspended his usual holiday trip to the East, and now, accompanied by his wife, the Coroner is going to New Orleans, thence to New York, and, incidentally, to other points to visit relatives. During his absence his place will be filled by Deputy Summerfield.

INFANT'S DAMAGE. George E. Abbott, by George D. Abbott, is suing the Los Angeles Pacific Railroad Company for $15,000 as damages and $425 for money expended. The plaintiff is an infant about 18 months old, and was run over on Sixteenth street, between Normandie and Roosevelt avenues, on December 1, 1904. The injuries to the baby were such that the left arm had to be amputated.

SALISBURY DIVORCE. Etta Salisbury was granted a divorce from Lloyd Salisbury by Judge York yesterday, on the ground of desertion. The parties were married in Ohio in 1901, but from the facts presented, the husband was cruel to his wife in a particularly aggravated form.

DRANK HIS HERITAGE. Charles Burger was before a commission in lunacy yesterday. It turned out that he was not insane, but had been suffering the natural results of a prolonged debauch. About three months ago Burger inherited $1000, and proceeded to enjoy himself according to his lights. He drank steadily just as long as his money lasted, and at the expiration of three months found himself with empty pockets, but with a mind all twisted out of shape.

THREE CHARGES. Dick Teirce of Downey has been arrested on three charges of driving a blind pig behind the shutters of his poolroom. He was held by Justice Phillips in $900 bail.

KICHLINE SHOWS FIGHT. Bonifface Kichline of the Palmdale Hotel has no immediate intention of owning up to the two charges against him of carrying on the blind-pig business in the Antelope Valley. Last time he pleaded guilty, and had no sooner arrived at home and got business into shape than he was arrested again. Yesterday Justice Young set his trial for April 14.

HAMS WERE SEVERED. Stella J. Ham was yesterday granted a divorce from Arthur G. Ham by Judge Trask, on the ground of desertion. The parties lived at Long Beach, and about a year and a half ago the husband deserted his wife and went away—as she believed—with a girl. He had told his wife some time before that he was merely living with her until he could get the girl of his choice. There is one child of the marriage, and the court made an order that the husband pay $10 a month toward its support.

RAIDED A CAR. Fred Wilson and George Murphy yesterday pleaded before Judge Smith to having looted a Southern Pacific car of 930 pounds of brasses. They were caught in the river bed with the property, and were each sentenced to two years at Folsom.

EXPERIENCE AVAILED NOTHING. James Mayor, a stove dealer on Main street, was granted a divorce from Millie Mayor by Judge Allen yesterday, on the ground of desertion.

"BULL" ON TRIAL. A. C. Williams, more popularly known as "Bull" Williams, is now on trial before Judge Smith and a jury for participating in the robbery perpetrated near the corner of Sixth and Crocker streets in the early morning of February 5.

SENT TO PATTON. Sherman Holt was yesterday ordered committed to the State hospital at Patton by Judge Wilbur. While at work last January a piece of iron fell upon his head, and since then he has acted erratically.

THE "VALDEMAR" STRIP. The suit of Scott W. Alexander against the city to quiet his title to a strip of land 1.72 inches along along the 90-foot front of the Valdemar Hotel, at the corner of Hope and Sixth streets, came to trial yesterday in Judge Conrey's court. In erecting the building, Alexander projected the wall over the property line, as is alleged by the city authorities, and he was compelled to bring suit to have his title quieted or else submit to have the front of his building shaved to conform to the frontage alleged by the city.

THE INFERIOR COURTS.

DEAR QUAIL AT PALACE.

PROPRIETOR FIEBER FINED FOR HAVING GAME BIRDS.

Game Warden and Police Justice Dined in the Cafe and Heard Stories of Serving Quail Out of Season, Which They Investigated. Fieber Paid $50.

J. Fieber, one of the proprietors of the Palace Café, didn't know he was playing with fire when he served Justice Rose of the new division of the Police Court and Game Warden Pritchard, a few days ago, and incidentally mentioned the fact that his café was the only one in the city that could show quail at this season of the year.

After Pritchard had feasted on a baron of beef he politely intimated to Fieber that he would like to inspect the quail. Pleased to show his treasures, Fieber threw open the doors of his refrigerator and exhibited about thirty-five fat and juicy valley birds. Then the proprietor was quietly told by Pritchard that a charge of violating the game laws would be preferred against him.

Yesterday in the Police Court Fieber was called upon to face his two guests—the one on the bench and the other in the capactiy of prosecutor.

Fieber said a friend had shipped the quail in, and he didn't know he was violating the law; but the court thought a fine was imperative, and the restaurant man paid $50 for his little indiscretion.

Defended Son.

I. Wilks of No. 917 East First street took exception to the fact that his son had been apprehended by George Tamura, a Japanese who claimed that the youth had been caught in the act of ransacking a bureau drawer, and he proceeded to pounce on the little brown man.

Tamura was holding the boy for the patrol wagon, but Wilks rescued the son and both beat a hasty retreat before the police appeared. Wilks was arrested yesterday on a warrant sworn to by Tamura, who charges battery. April 15 is the date fixed for the hearing. The boy, who was formerly in the Detention Home, has made his escape.

Policelets.

Dr. H. T. Hollingsworth, the electric practitioner, will be tried a second time in the Police Court on a chargeof practicing medicine unlawfully. After a three days' trial of Hollingsworth, the jury last Saturday failed to agree. The new trial is scheduled for May 9. Hollingsworth is out on bail.

By January Jones

No quotation more appropriately expresses the idea I have in mind than Lord Bacon's famous statement "That strangers are more admired than favored."

I am comparatively a stranger to readers of The Times and with commendable caution, you are no doubt in the habit of weighing in the balance all statements concerning mines, promoters and mining stocks. For this same cautious treatment of me and the publicity which has been given to me, I would thank you, for it gives to me the opportunity to offer in rebuttal this statement, issued under my name and paid for with my money.

First, I will tell how I came to be known as January Jones.

Mine is the old story of a man spurred on by ambition; possessed of years of experience as a prospector and mining engineer; brim full of hope; having plenty of grit and withal, endowed with a love of mining as a means, first, of obtaining a livelihood and, second, as the likeliest of all pursuits wherein elusive fortune may be captured.

I believed as a great philosopher has said: "That if a man shall look sharply he shall see fortune, for though she is blind she is not invisible."

And this was aptly applied to my initial experience in Tonopah, the camp I started for as soon as the world was startled by the news of the great $10,000,000 strike on the original Tonopah claims.

My entrance to Tonopah was free from all spectacular accompaniments, for I entered simply as a mining engineer, looking for an opening.

My capital stock was hope and experience and with these to back me, I took a lease on a claim and luckily made it pay.

Then came the first whispering about Goldfield and with instinct born of curiosity and a speculative disposition, I quietly traveled to Goldfield and soon bargained for a lease on the January claim.

My partners scouted at my judgment in leaving well-known Tonopah for what they called a mythical Goldfield bonanza. But I had found indications of mineral on the January claim and wanted the lease.

Now, I am not egotistical about my achievements, but I do claim that judgment and actual mining experience played the leading parts in directing me to this Goldfield El Dorado.

January 5th, 1904, I signed the lease and in a few hours, my miners had uncovered the world-famous January ledge, which is said to be one of the richest gold lodes in the world.

When I made the strike, I will admit that I had to steel myself to stand the strain of excitement, which enthralled me and while my feet rested firmly on the ground my thoughts were in the clouds. My brain whizzed with kaleidoscopic visions of Monte Cristos, Rockefellers and Rothschilds, ad libitum.

But my material nature soon gained supremacy and I made hay while the sun shone and when it hid below the horizon, I made hay by candle light.

The ore ran fabulously rich from the surface and assays across the ledge showed $250 to $2500 a ton. So rich was the ground on which we worked that in eleven months, I actually extracted and sold ores enough to make a stack of $20 gold pieces, 415 feet high. In other words the smelters paid me over a million dollars or at the rate of about $3000 a day for 330 days.

When my lease on the January expired, I had sold a million's worth of ore and had piled on the dump another million in ore, running $40 a ton. Transportation costs barred ship...

THE GREATEST OCEAN RACE.

Los Angeles Yachtsman to Take it in.

From Sandy Hook Across the Atlantic.

Arranged by German Emperor—Fast Ones Listed.

BY STINSON JARVIS.

William Bayly, yachtsman of Los Angeles, the owner of the New York yawl Avian, intends to see something of the great ocean race now planned by the German Emperor for American yachts. On the sixteenth of next month some of the fastest and largest cruising yachts that fly the flag of Uncle Sam will be started at Sandy Hook on a 3000-mile ocean yacht race across the Atlantic. Thep rize will be a gold cup presented by Emperor William II. of Germany. This contest will not only be historical, but will also, if all the expected entries toe the mark, be the greatest oceean yacht race that ever was known.

FIRST THE AILSA.

The first to announce intention of starting in the contest is the celebrated yawl Ailsa, ownd by Henry S. Redmond. About ten years ago the Ailsa was built to beat the Britannia, and didn't do it. The Britannia was then owned, and to a considerable extent sailed, by the then Prince of Wales (now King) and the Aisla, turned out by Fife for Barclay Walker, failed to do the trick up the wind, though she often won on a leading breeze. However, the real speed that was in the boat was never fully known in America till the summer before last, when she got a leading wind both ways off Newport and beat everything out of sight, capturing the Astor cup (the most sought-for trophy of the United States) with many miles to spare. Drawing something like nineteen feet of water, she stands up to an enormous club topsail when smaller boats are double reefed, and in that Astor cup race she fairly smoked though three rain squalls in which other craft were glad to get rid of their kites. Her opportunity to the yawl Vigilant, a former cup-defender, became so pronounced in that season that the latter quit cruising.

Barry S. Redmond therefore knows that he has a formidable boat, one that can run and reach with any of them, and he has got Lem Miller to take charge and put her through from the Hook to the Lizard. Lem has been right-hand man of Charlie Barr whenever Barr has defended the America's cup. He sails for love and blood rather than money. He will drive the Ailsa to the never was driven before. He is the only-haired son of a hundred generations of Scandinavian pirates, and don't care to like the letter J. talking time. Ten Yonson yumped off de yib-boat into de yolly-boat. Yesus! what a yump!

THE ONLY CHARLIE BARR.

But the one and only Charlie Barr will be on the Herreshoff schooner Invader, which lately returned from her many successes in England and Germany. Invader is the fastest two-sticker America ever turned out, and as the Kay winds are nearly all westerly on the North Atlantic she can be expected to sometimes do her three hundred miles a day. Of course common history makes everyone know that Charlie is at the very top and alone among professional sailors, but perhaps only those who have sailed on ships that were pitted against his can know how good he is—regarding which we can speak with feeling. Yet in the long runs of ocean racing his special dexterity in the in-fighting of ocean starts won't count for much. The race will be for the boats rather than the skippers.

The present holder of the ocean record for sailing yachts will also contest. This is the celebrated schooner Corsair, the flagship of the Indian Harbor Yacht Club, which made the run from Sandy Hook to Lizard Point in Cornwall in twelve days and twenty hours and to the Needles in thirteen days and twenty hours. Her owner, Clarence Mackay, is a bona fide racing man who loves the game, and the Corsair has crossed the Atlantic several times having also taken in the Mediterranean and the west Indies. She was designed by Clinton Crane and she needs up a huge sail spread. She came from Scotland one morning when there were following one of the Shamrock to the lightship, and Lipton stood up with astonishment when he saw the enormous area of her balloon sails. Though the Ailsa can beat her in a heart work, this will probably be Corsair's race.

Among the other vessels mentioned as probable starters are Mr. Todd's Tristie, William Iselin's Queer Corona, which was formerly Queer Colonia, built by Herreshoff for Lipton by the Vigilant in the trial of 1893, Francis Skinner's Constellation and the big Atlantic may come from Boston to us, and unless there are many desert at the starting line the great ocean race of 1905 will be eclipsed. Last year when the Henrietta, Fleetwood Vesta sailed across for a purse of $30,000, and Ernest Cox of the New York Yacht Club, one of the last survivors of that race) tells us that five men were swept off the vessel during the passage and lost. There was also on the Dauntless with Mr. Colt, when he matched her against the Coronet for $10,000 and lost. The Coronet is still in commission, and is now for the company here and the Dauntless is kept on exhibition by the owner's mother, Mrs. Henry Jarvis Colt, who uses her for charitable purpose. None of the America's Cup defenders will start on the race if they are too weak in consequence and have all suffered damage in moderate seaways of home waters.

LAST NIGHT'S DINNER.

Captain George Hebbinghaus, naval attaché of the German Embassy at Washington is the chairman of the committee of the Imperial Yacht Club of Germany which is in charge of the ocean races proposed by the Emperor. When the naval attaché as part of the committee is Allison V. Armour of Chicago, the owner of the famous three-masted auxiliary steam schooner Diwana, which is a great favorite of the Emperor William and which he has often been entertained on board of, the guest of the owner of the big imported Atlantic Yacht Wanderer. At a dinner in the Yacht Club, New York, last night the three officials met the owners of the vessels which are entered in the race and arranged the details. The announcements were made for a special mail service from Dover to Heligoland for a further cup to be given by the German Emperor.

During the morning of yesterday the celebrated cruising schooner Fleur-de-Lis was entered for both contests. This vessel will probably be the smallest in the races, being 110 feet over all, 86.6 on the waterline, 22 feet beam, and 13.6 draught. She was launched at Bath, Me., in 1890 and her former owner, the late George Lord Day, kept her on almost continuous cruises to the Mediterranean and Baltic. She is now owned by Charles Smithers, a well known New York yachtsman, and in heavy weather she does great work, recently beating the celebrated Endymion in a race off the coast, and some time ago she came through a big gale off Africa in which several large vessels foundered.

Other yachts are being entered daily and ten are expected to start. All will be entertained by the Emperor after arrival in the Kiel Canal.

DEVELOPING SPEED.

THOROUGHBREDS SHAPING UP.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Ideal spring weather has worked wonders in fitting thoroughbreds for stakes and handicaps. At Sheepshead Bay, last season's favorites—the Keene pair, Delhi and Sysonby—are progressing in their work. They have been sent as far as half a mile at nearly top speed.

Sydney Paget's Tradition is moving in fine form. There is not another so large a three-year-old filly in training in the East. Her stable companion, Ormonde's Right, promises, by his going, to be a fair handicap horse this year.

Africander is doing finely. Hamburg Belle, too, is going like great guns. Ort Wells galloped a mile a few days ago in a little more than 1:50. King Eric's great son looks as if he may be as good this year as ever.

Beldame is the particular star that brings scores to Gravesend track. Beldame is in fine shape and yesterday she was let out a tuck as she was sent three-quarters of a mile, which she covered in a fraction less than 1:18. She had 120 pounds up, and it seemed as if it was only a feather as she jumped from end to end.

Seno is himself again and working well at Gravesend. Major Daingerfield is going better than he did this time last year. Pulsus and Sig. Light seem to be at their best.

First Water, a California two-year-old in Bennington's string, is heralded as a second Waterboy. Bennington was offered $25,000 for the youngster Saturday and laughed at it.

Minor Ball.

The Lyons Sunday defeated the Salt Lakes on the latter's grounds by a score of 6-5. The Lyons would like to arrange games with any out-of-town teams, the Downeys or the Hynes preferred. Address all challenges to F. Benkert, No. 518 Aliso street.

POOLROOMS MUST GO.

Energetic Campaign Against Gambling Dens Begun in San Francisco.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—Two large poolrooms were raided today by Deputy Sheriffs, directed by members of the grand jury, with the aid of Dist.-Atty. Byington. It is stated that Foreman Andrews of the grand jury has collected evidence against eighty-seven places in the city where pools on the races are openly sold. An energetic campaign is to be waged against these places, and it is declared that the police judges are ready to do their part if sufficient evidence is presented when the cases are called in court.

NINE ARRESTS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—The grand jury started its war on the poolrooms in earnest today. Nine arrests were made at Zick Abrams's resort and nearly all the big poolrooms suspended business. Information of the grand jury's intentions had reached the poolrooms in some manner, otherwise wholesale arrests would have been made. Foreman Andrews is greatly disappointed over the small number of arrests.

EASY VICTORY FOR AGILE.

ONLY THREE CONTESTANTS FOR TENNESSEE DERBY.

Exciting Finish in the Fourth Event at Oakland—Dates Set for St. Louis Meetings—Lucky Jockeys Reinstated—Results of Yesterday on the Race Tracks.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MEMPHIS (Tenn.) April 3.—Capt. S. S. Brown's handsome bay colt Agile by Sir Dixon, dam Alpena, ridden by Jack Martin, romped home an easy winner in the Tennessee Derby at a mile and an eighth this afternoon, defeating John Smulski, the Ellison candidate, and Jack Lory, representing the stable of John W. Carr, by five lengths. Ram's Horn and Whippoorwill, the entry of Capt. W. S. Williams, were withdrawn. Agile was a favorite in the betting. Today's Derby was probably the richest stake ever offered in the South, the gross value being $10,535, of which $8300 went to the winner. Results:

Half mile: Odella won, Blue Pirate second, Ossineke third; time 0:50 3-5.

One mile: Stand Pat won, Dapple Gold second, Namoki third; time 1:44⅘.

CLOSE FINISH.

FIVE CLOSE NOSES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—The closest finish of the season occurred in the fourth race. Five horses finished heads and noses apart. From the press stand it looked as if Jack Little had won, but the judges decided that he did not finish in the money. They placed Augie first, Eva G. second and Cinnabar third. Jockey Bonner was ruled off the turf for not reporting today to Walter Jennings, who had a contract on his services.

Weather clear; track fast. Summary:

Half mile: Southern Lady II, 105 (Knapp,) even, won; I'm Joe, 107 (Taylor,) 9 to 1, second; Telepathy, 105 (Jones,) 20 to 1, third. Time 0:48⅘. Yolo Girl, Rosaro, St. Francis, April's Pride, Rumore, Adalma, Canopa, Madri also ran.

TACOMA TEAM ONE TO BEAT.

Fisher's Familiar Faces at Chutes Park Today.

Mique Great Believer in an Irish Ball Team.

Few Changes in the Line-up. Season's Outlook.

Mique Fisher will arrive from the North via this morning's Owl with an aggregation of ball players whose batting order looks like the pay roll of the Greater New York Irish Amateur Athletic Association.

Fisher is certainly a great believer in the Hibernian as a diamond artist. If somebody shot a cannon through the Tacoma sleeper some night there would be as many wakes as men hit.

The following is not a page from the Dublin city directory, but just the Tacoma battle array:

Tommy Sheehan, third base.
Pearl Casey, second base.
"Truck" Eagan, shortstop.
Louis Nordyke, first base.
Mike Lynch, center field.
Charlie Graham, catcher.
Billy Keefe, pitcher.

It being a manifest injustice to call this bunch "Tigers," they will hereafter be yclept by their proper nickname which is nothing but "Tarriers."

The following telegram was received by wireless late last night from M. A. Fisher, Esq., dated Bakersfield:

"Open the wine and set up the cigars at my expense, for I am coming.
"MIQUE."

A sentiment so characteristic of the Fisherite liberality that no casualties from heart failure have yet been reported though the blow nearly killed several fathers.

With practically the same team as that which won last year's pennant and only the great Overall gone, it is strange that Tacoma has been so generally overlooked in picking a prospective pennant winner for the present season.

Several years of experience in playing together are behind that Tacoma infield; the outer gardeners are a fast, shifty lot with the stick, and the pitchers are now long past the experimental stage.

The veteran Capt. Graham is again in charge of the club, and in a spirit of fairness it surely looks much as if the team that trims Tacoma will take the final trick.

Under Graham's skilled handling, the Tarriers played the best ball of the league's six clubs in both halves of last season, and with that experience behind it, the team can hardly fail to make a hot race again.

"Truck" Eagan's big stick is still there to break up games. The husky shortstop may be "fungo" hitter who could not bat .250 in either of the big leagues, but the number of games he won with a clout over some fence last year could not be counted on a man's two hands, and the subject would not have to be a dynamite packer, either. Sheehan was the best-hitting third baseman in the league, and it is doubtful if he had a superior at fielding. Tommy is one of those players who never shirks hot shot because of errors. He is out for everything that comes to the left of the pitcher, and has few equals at handling bunts. Casey at second has always been a fielding marvel, and a reliable batter. Nordyke at first played better ball last year than ever before in his career. The infield is the keystone of Tacoma's strength, not only in the defensive, but also in the offensive part of the game.

In the mechanical parts of the play Graham has superiors, but as field captain and handler extraordinary of his team, big Charlie is miles above par.

Fisher replaced Overall with Fireman Fitzpatrick, who is heralded as "the goods." Anyone who has followed the success of Mique's incubator experiments will be inclined to risk Fitz on suspicion of being a budding pitching star, simply because Graham hung onto him after a thorough tryout.

The Los Angeles team is now in good shape for a week's grind, barring possibly some of the pitchers, whose arms are not yet at their best. A battle royal seems in prospect. Six games are scheduled in the series which starts this afternoon, and Perrine will probably umpire. It is to be hoped he lives up to President Bert's instructions relative to enforcing the "balk rule." Bull on the whole did not do so badly last week; he seemed to be trying hard, but several times some of his decisions looked as if he were trying to "even up" for a bad break. Two wrongs never made a right in baseball or anything else.

The balk rule was put in the book to be enforced; it makes the pitchers attend to business, saves time and gives a chance for more base running. It also helps batting somewhat through preverting the boxmen from protracting the agony of the man at the plate and thereby inducing him to take a chance at balls that otherwise he might pass up.

The Looloos turned out to practice yesterday morning and went through their paces for an hour and a half. Several of the men have been trying to slide without pads and enough skin has been rubbed off the ball club to set up a hide-grafting hospital in business.

Bernard at last seems to have focussed his batting optic squarely on the ball. Yesterday morning he punched in a hit nearly every time up, and pulled 'em to all corners of the lot. Cravath's great delight in these morning gallops is to chase a pair of fat pitchers all over the outfield with hard fungo drives to the fences. Gavy can stand at the plate with a decently-new ball and spill it over the scoreboard any time he feels like making the extra swing.

M. P. Lave, a busher with an eastern record who is trying out with the team, turned out to practice yesterday. He joined the "wooden hat" brigade in the outfield, and did not attempt to do much pitching.

FAT AND WILD.

CORBETT FIGHTS ERNE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PHILADELPHIA, April 3.—Young Corbett of Denver, and Young Erne of this city sparred six rounds at the West Washington Sporting Club tonight. Corbett was fat and fought wildly, frequently misjudging his distance, and many of his blows landed on the back of his opponent's head. Erne, while active, was timid, and much of the time was wasted in clinches and hugging.

In the third round Erne was cut over the eye and in the sixth Corbett's mouth was bleeding. In the same round Corbett rushed Erne through the ropes. Erne landed the greater number of blows. He jabbed Corbett frequently and ran away from the swings of his opponent. Corbett tried to stop Erne repeatedly, and several times countered on Erne's jaw, but his blows lacked strength. Under the law no decision can be given in this city, but the spectators appeared to be of the opinion that the fight was a draw.

LOCAL POLITICS.

BENCHES BARE YET A WHILE.

DELAY HINGES ON END OF THE COMMISSIONERS' TERMS.

Governor May Await Wider Field for Choice—McCartney Now Mentioned for State Senator to Take Place of Corney, the "Barber Statesman" of this City.

"Now that Gov. Pardee has waited until after the first of this month to make the new judicial appointments, there is little telling when he will make them," said a prominent Republican politician yesterday. This man holds a position in party councils that causes him to be looked upon as an oracle.

"I had supposed that the Governor would make the appointments of the new Superior Court judges, as well as those of the new Appellate courts, before the last day of March. Now I should not be at all surprised if the appointments were to be held up for several weeks.

"The supposition has been that the two Supreme Court commissioners from this district, Smith and Gray, would be appointed to the Appellate Court for the reason that they had been legislated out of office by the act creating the new courts. They were supposed to be entitled to the places irrespective of their politics. By naming them, the Governor would have had left but one appointment to that court in this district that could have been termed political.

"As it looks now, I believe the Governor will defer the appointments to the Appellate Court until the present terms of the commissioners expire, which will be in a short time. When they have served out their terms it cannot be said that any consideration of them is obligatory upon the Governor.

"These appointments naturally are intertwined with those of the three new Superior Court judges, and it is not at all unlikely that the latter will be delayed for the same length of time, despite the efforts that are made in some quarters to have them hastened.

"With the two commissioners left out of consideration, there will be six appointments to make from this section, and the State's Executive undoubtedly is taking his time in making his decision. I have an idea he would prefer to be criticised for delay in appointing rather than for making a mistake in his selections.

"If the Governor has made up his mind as to the men he will select, he has not permitted the information to trickle out. If he has assured any one man of appointment that person hardly will jeopardize his place by making the fact known, for it is quite likely that the Governor would experience a 'change of mind' in the event that the matter became public, and there would be a disappointed candidate.

"While there may be some inconvenience just now because of the need of the new courts, it will take but a little time to get them in operation as soon as the appointments are made, especially in the case of the Appellate courts. The quarters are ready in Los Angeles, I believe, for this district of the court, and it can get down to work immediately after it selects a clerk and reporter."

TO SUCCEED CORNEY.

Now that "Corney" Pendleton has decided not to try to return to the State Senate from the Thirty-eighth district, pins are being set by other candidates for the place.

Assemblyman H. S. G. McCartney, of the Seventy-second Assembly district, is the latest aspirant for the place of the "barber statesman," while Assemblyman "Phil" Stanton, whose record as a representative of the Seventy-first district, is well if not favorably known, would like to be a Senator.

There is a rumor that "Corney" is flirting with the "push" for the nomination to Congress to succeed McLachlan, of whose disfavor with the machine The Times told several weeks ago.

Stanton, too, is said to have his eyes on Washington, but even the "push," it is said, hardly will stand for him.

McCartney, who, with Stanton and Transue of the Los Angeles delegation, was noted for his willingness to "take orders," recently was rewarded upon his return from Sacramento by an appointment as Deputy District Attorney, to succeed Harry H. Rose, promoted to preside over the new Police Court.

With his avowed aspirations to go to the State Senate or to Congress, Stanton apparently has changed his mind about the profitableness of legislative positions. He is quoted as having remarked on his first election to the Assembly that he could not afford to take the place because of his private business.

When he first went to Sacramento, it is said that Stanton declared that he would not rest until he had secured the passage of a measure making it possible for real estate agents to collect commissions from owners, without the written agreement now required. This measure failed to become a law at the last session and it may be that Stanton hopes to do better with it as a member of the Senate.

PART II: EDITORIAL, LOCAL AND BUSINESS SECTION.

A BOYCOTTER'S BAWL.

The Union Labor Advocate of Chicago, as its name indicates, is an ardent advocate of the cause of union labor. The word "rabid," in fact, would better describe its devotion to that cause than "ardent." It is the official organ of the State Federation of Labor, the Chicago Federation of Labor, the Cigar Makers' Joint Unions, the Chicago Trades-Union Label League, and the Packing Trades Council.

One would suppose that, with this long array of labor organizations backing it, the Union Labor Advocate would be rich in material support "beyond the dreams of avarice." In fact, the natural supposition would be that "ye editor" is fairly rolling in wealth and wallowing in luxury; clothed in purple and fine linen, and driving his mighty touring car over the necks of the ordinary non-union denizens of the Windy City; and that he would have his magnificent palace by the River Calumet, where the perfumed airs (from the slaughter-houses) would bring to him all sorts of surprises, pleasurable or otherwise.

But it seems that this editor is not so happily circumstanced. He is not wealthy; he is not powerful; he is not even comfortable; he is "on his uppers," and these are worn away to the eyelets. In fact—if what this journalist says of himself is to be believed—his pocketbook is turned inside out, and he himself is worn to a frazzle. He does not actually say in so many words that he is reduced to the necessity of securing his daily bread by digging it out of nocturnal garbage cans, but his account of the trials and tribulations of his hardupness would justify that conclusion.

Listen to the boycotting journalist's tale of woe:

"Beginning with the new year the publisher of The Advocate suspended a number of subscribers for 'non-payment of dues.' Any of the same can be reinstated on payment of a year's subscription. We were sorry to cut anybody off, but the babies need shoes, and if you can't contribute to the 'shoe fund' we can't send you papers. If any brothers are a little shy of cash, we are willing to accept cordwood, soft coal, potatoes or onions on subscription, but the clear, limpid atmosphere, either hot or cold, won't buy hinges for the screen doors next summer, and we just can't live on it. If you want to sit in this game you've got to put up your 'ante' or you can't draw cards. We can use postage stamps, kerosene oil or corn meal, or any kind of breakfast food, but we got so many neckties for Christmas that we cut them off the list. If anyone will send the editor a barrel of flour he will be put on the list for life."

Who would have dreamed that so deplorable a state of affairs could be found in the city of Chicago, the hotbed of domineering unionism, the paradise of the jawsmith, the lair of the walking delegate, the habitat of the union thug and assassin?

Republics may be in a measure ungrateful, but they bear no comparison in this respect to the subjects of Sam Gompers, Ahkound of the Federation of Rest. The treatment which these subjects have handed out to "ye editor" is simply scan'jous. If their zeal for the great cause of unionism is to be measured by their support of their chosen "norgin," it is practically a minus quantity, and the several organizations above named are on the verge of dissolution.

Quite naturally, "ye editor" is "sorry to cut anybody off," but of course it all depends upon the point on the person's anatomy at which the cutting off is done. To cut a subscriber off just below the ears, for example, would manifestly be a rather serious matter—for the subscriber. Presumably, the cutting off is done at a point where it will do the least harm.

One fact stands out clear and prominent, and that is that "ye editor" is an accommodating cuss. He is willing—nay anxious—to take anything that may be offered in payment of subscriptions. Cordwood, soft coal, potatoes or onions, postage stamps, kerosene oil or corn meal, or any kind of breakfast food, will be acceptable; but he draws the line, very properly, at neckties, and the reason he gives must be accepted as legitimate and sufficient. "We got so many neckties for Christmas that we cut them off the list."

And who can blame this editor for his confessed inability to exist on "the clear, limpid atmosphere," of the brand that is found in Chicago? It is thick with effluvium, but not by any means palatable nor wholesome. The man who attempts to live on the atmosphere of Chicago, with no other nutrient, and no germicidal dessert, will have a hard row to hoe, and no mistake.

If each one of the organizations which the Union Labor Advocate is supposed to represent would send in a single subscription, and if some charitable organization would pass the hat for a barrel of flour, there is little doubt that this distressed editor could pull through another year. Perhaps, in this way, his life could be saved. But, as Fouché says to Napoleon (in the play,) "I do not see the necessity."

GOVERNMENT TELEPHONES.

As the inevitable corollary to national ownership of the telegraph system of the country, the British government is now going to eliminate the ownership of telephones by private corporations, and likewise take this public utility entirely into its own hands. Similarly, at the very inception of wireless telegraphy, the government has secured this associated branch of the business for itself. Thus throughout Great Britain in a few years time all the different forms of transmitting messages, from the postal card up to the marconigram, will be exclusively in the hands of the Postoffice Department.

In the acquirement of the telephones the principal corporation to be bought out is the National Telephone Company. Its share capital is $22,500,000, and its debenture issues amount to nearly $20,000,000. The price to be paid for the business is to be settled by arbitration, based on the fair market value of the plant and works. There is to be no consideration paid for compulsory purchase, or for good will or in respect of past or anticipated profits. Furthermore it is provided that any part of the plant unsuitable for the carrying on of the undertaking may be rejected. The business will be taken over on December 31, 1911, and three-fourths of the purchase money may, at the option of the government, be paid in the form of an annuity extending over a term not to exceed twenty years.

Meanwhile the postoffice is already operating its own telephone system over certain districts, and all new services will be under its auspices. Provision is made that during the six years that will elapse before the final disappearance of the private corporation there will be free intercommunication between the two systems, without any favor or preference as between subscribers. Thus the interests of all parties concerned are safeguarded—those of the government, which will eventually be the sole owners, the company, which for a term continues to be a part owner, and the public who use the telephones.

The success that has marked the government ownership of the telegraphs promises equal success with the telephones. More efficient service and cheapened service may be expected, as, with all the allied systems under the one administration, economies will be effected that, with divided ownership, were impossible. Furthermore, the British postoffice makes an annual profit exceeding $20,000,000, although there is an annual loss in the telegraph and savings bank departments. The enormous profit on the mail service proper is utilized to cheapen the telegraph service even below the actual cost of its operation, and to give the thrifty poorer classes the benefits of interest on their savings bank deposits that exceeds the interest paid in the open market by the banks, this last privilege, of course, with careful restrictions as to the amount of any one individual's deposits in a single year. In other words, the varied business of the postoffice is run as a whole and for the maximum public service, and so long as the big general profit is shown at the end of each year all is deemed to be well. With this flexibility of postoffice finance England, for long the poorest served country in the matter of telephones, bids fair in the end to secure the best and cheapest service going.

Perhaps, after all, the statement that quiet reigns in Santo Domingo is just a little "previous." The report comes that Gen. Miguelito, with fifteen men, is in revolt in the forest near Sanchez. This news is a trifle disturbing, for there is a bare possibility that Gen. Miguelito and his army of fifteen may break loose and overpower, by superior numbers, the regular army of Santo Domingo. It is also reported that the Dominican gunboat, Presidente, is missing. With the navy missing and the army in more or less danger of annihilation by the fifteen insurgents above mentioned, it must be admitted that the situation in Santo Domingo is not so reassuring as we could wish.

Crop reports from all over the country indicate that this is to be a record-breaking year for nearly all kinds of products—a real, old-fashioned Republican year, as it were.

THE NEW CANAL COMMISSION.

Yesterday the personnel of the reorganized Panama Canal Commission was announced by the President, as follows: Theodore P. Shonts, chairman; Charles E. Magoon, Governor of the canal zone; John F. Wallace (reappointed,) chief engineer; Rear-Admiral M. T. Endicott, U.S.N.; Brig.-Gen. Peter C. Hains, U.S.A., (retired;) Col. Oswald M. Ernst, Corps of Engineers, U.S.A.; Benjamin M. Harrod.

Besides this commission it is proposed to establish an advisory board of engineers, in accordance with Secretary Taft's suggestion, to be composed of seven or nine members, "to be selected from engineers having special knowledge of hydraulic engineering and canal construction," to whom will be submitted all important information in connection with the construction of the canal.

At present the preponderance of expert opinion seems to be strongly in favor of the construction of a sea-level canal, the total cost of which will be about $250,000,000. But this plan is not to be adopted until it and all other propositions bearing upon the question as to what form of construction is most practicable, shall have been passed upon by the construction commission and the advisory board. It is hoped that this may be accomplished before the assembling of the regular session of Congress in December, in order that the President may submit the whole matter to Congress.

In the meantime, whatever plan may ultimately be adopted, the work of construction can go on without delay, as a large amount of excavating will have to be done in any event. The reorganization of the commission is due in chief part to the initiative of Secretary Taft, who made valuable suggestions to the President in a letter dated March 30, practically all of which suggestions were adopted by the President. It is expected that the new commission will "get busy" in the immediate future, and that the whole matter will be ready for submission to the President and Congress in December.

That work on the isthmus has dragged needlessly under the old commission is obvious. It is hoped that the new commission, which is composed chiefly of men who have proved their value in great constructive work, will grapple the grave problem before them with the energy, cooperation and harmony which alone can command success.

After the vital question shall have been decided as to whether the great waterway shall be a sea-level canal or a lock canal, and the "plan of campaign" shall have been completely mapped out, the American people will expect the dirt to fly at an unprecedented rate on the isthmus. There is reason to believe that they will not be disappointed in this expectation.

Luckless Figueroa street! That portion of it lying south of Washington street is meant. Within the memory of some of the youngest inhabitants of that sightly and well-to-do thoroughfare oil-scum came down from the hills on the breast of the storm-waters and painted its velvety lawns a dirty ochre; dwellers waded knee deep in oil-capped and swirling floods that stretched in hopeless continuity from curb to curb. All this they twice endured, and still were proud to live in Figueroa street. Now, to reward their loyalty, comes an individual with a brain full of the 5-cent nickels of commerce and asks for a franchise to lay a track and run street cars the length of this highway that until now has been sacredly preserved from the violative invasion of trolleys that whir and currents that sing and wheels that shriek at curves. Luckless Figueroa street! Hark to the sighing of its priestly palms.

B. A. Whitely, assistant secretary of the Consolidated Gas Company, now undergoing investigation in New York, admitted during his examination that he had "obliterated a discrepancy of $3,500,000 by, charging that amount to 'construction,' when as a matter of fact such an amount had not been spent." Evidence in the investigation tends to show that quite a number of discrepancies have been "obliterated" in one way or another, by methods more or less dubious. And that is where the rat got into the meal bag.

"The American Maritime League," just "launched" at Washington, has a very high-sounding name. Its membership contains many names of note, and some of notoriety. Its object is to get money (several millions of it) out of the national treasury in aid of private shipowners, most of whom are members of millionaire corporations. When the "American Maritime League" gets into full swing it will be time for the "watchdog of the treasury" to get in his perfect work.

Capt. Herbert Deakyne, Corps of Engineers, has been assigned to the command of Company B, First Battalion of Engineers, and will sail with his command for the Philippines on July 1.

Commander A. C. Baker has been detached from command of the Monadnock and ordered to command the Raleigh in place of Commander J. B. Milton whose assignment was revoked.

Capt. William Swift, who was accompanying Secretary Morton on the Dolphin, was taken ill with typhoid fever and placed in a hospital at Havana. Capt. Swift had been designated for assignment as assistant chief of the Bureau of Navigation.

The following rear-admirals will be retired during the present year: Yates Stirling, May 6; W. H. Whiting, July 8; F. J. Higginson, July 19; Charles E. Clark, who commanded the Oregon in 1898, August 10; C. J. Barclay, September 8; George W. Pigman, September 19.

Capt. George W. Kirkman, Twenty-fifth Infantry, has been sentenced to dismissal by a court-martial and there is little doubt that the finding of the court will be approved by the President. Kirkman was graduated from the Military Academy in 1889 and the New York Tribune says "his career since his graduation has been one round of dissipation."

Maj. Gen. John C. Bates, now located at St. Louis in command of the Northern Division of the army, will succeed Maj.-Gen. Gillespie as assistant chief of staff July 1 next. Gen. Bates will retire for age August 26, 1906. Upon the retirement of Lieut.-Gen. Chaffee, which will occur April 14, 1906, Gen. Bates will succeed him as chief of staff serving in that position until the date of his own retirement.

CHLOROFORMING GRANDPA.

We are chloroforming grandpa
In our laboratory snug,
For we've been to Dr. Osler,
Who has furnished us the drug.
Grandpa hates asphyxiation
And is kicking up a roar;
Though he ought to die contented,
Since his useful days are o'er.

We are chloroforming grandpa.
'Tis a dire and fatal plunge,
But we're sure the old man needs it.
(Willie, run and get the sponge.)
Grandpa's such a hale old fellow,
If he wasn't put away
He would still continue working
Twelve or fourteen hours a day.

Little Johnnie (such a bright boy!)
Runs a railroad and a bank;
Baby Jim conducts a journal,
And a Senator is Frank.
Boys at sixteen, eighteen, twenty
Now direct the human race—
What's the use of having grandpa
Merely loafing round the place?

We are chloroforming grandpa—
Don't you hear his feeble moan?
Grandpa is a nice o'd fellow
And it's sad to have him groan—
Shall we take him out, my brothers,
Ere he dies beneath the lid?
No! we've talked with Dr. Osler,
And he says it must be did.

Work for Peace Congress.

If the war between Russia and Japan should cause the nations of the earth to abandon barbarity and brutality for humanity and common sense it would not have been fought in vain. Revolutions sometimes come suddenly, though deep down in the human heart the soil may have been prepared during many years. Some supreme event opens the eyes and reveals the truth. This war certainly ought to be such an event. The peace congress, which will speedily follow its conclusion, ought to be ripe for business. It ought to see the necessity of casting aside the solemn platitudes and sophistries with which governments have heretofore wilfully blinded themselves, and doing something to bring the nations of the earth in their relations to each other on a level with the people who form those nations. A child is whipped for slapping its companion and a nation ought at least to be on a moral plane with a child.—[Baltimore American.

MEN AND THINGS OVER THE SEAS.

Three hundred and sixteen million dollars—such is the stupendous amount provided by the British estimates for the navy and the army of that country during the coming financial year. This works out to over a million dollars per day all the year round, Sundays excluded. A pretty sum to pay for national defense, or rather, in these piping times of peace so far as Great Britain is concerned, for national insurance. Empire is costly, expecially when it is so widely scattered as that of England's. And the figures above given do not represent the grand total, for they are taken from the budget of the home country alone. India also has her huge army expenditure, no less than $135,000,000 per annum, and each of the big groups of self-governing colonies, Canada, South Africa and Australasia, devote considerable sums to local self-defense, aggregating some $15,000,000 more.

When all these items are added together, a round million and a half dollars per working day has to be reckoned as the British Empire's premium of insurance. Of course, the trade interests at stake in every quarter of the globe, apart altogether from territorial values and that not less important national asset, prestige, are on a similar scale of vastness. So, worked out on an actuarial basis, the insurance premium is only a reasonable business payment. This accounts for the virtual unanimity with which, year by year, these estimates are passed by the British Parliament. Yet thoughtful minds cannot read such figures without a qualm of regret. If the world were not a huge aggregation of armed camps and naval arsenals, what sums of money would be released for relieving human misery, advancing human progress, increasing the sum total of human happiness!

AN EXPENSIVE LITTLE WAR.

The costliness, the utter wastefulness of war, even of what are called "little wars," is strikingly revealed by these same British estimates. They include a final appropriation for the campaign against the Soudanese fanatic Hajji Mohammed Abdullah, popularly known as the Mad Mullah. This so-called "punitive expedition," after having dragged on for a number of years, has at last been ended by the submission of the would-be Mahdi, and his peaceful settlement on a tract ceded to him within the boundaries of Italian Somaliland. Now we learn that these not too glorious military operations have involved a total expenditure of over $12,500,000. The money, for all the good it has done, might just as well have been scattered broadcast on the burning sands of the Sahara. Then there have been still more valuable lives thrown away as well.

The only lesson gained is the one now at last openly acknowledged in the House of Commons by the responsible ministry—that such warefare in remote desert regions is "a most extravagant policy." Henceforth British administrative efforts in Somaliland are to be rigorously confined to the coast belt. The Mad Mullah, it may be mentioned, while acknowledging himself beaten, pays no indemnity—not a single camel, which is the currency of the Soudan. So the Britisher has to foot the whole bill, leaving to the Moslem, the moral satisfaction of having made it a mighty big one, out of all proportion to the issues involved.

PAY OF COLONIAL GOVERNORS.

A striking commentary on the insufficiency of the salary paid to the President of the United States is afforded by the fact that it is equaled by the salaries paid to three colonial administrators under the British crown, and by one of these three is surpassed. Lord Selborne, retiring from the post of First Lord of the Admiralty, succeeds Lord Milner as High Commissioner in South Africa. His pay will be $55,000 per annum. He thus draws more than his brother satraps, the Governor-General of the Dominion of Canada, and the Governor-General of the Commonwealth of Australia, each of whom receives for his services $50,000 a year. Then, far exceeding all three incomes is that of the Viceroy of India, who draws $125,000 annually, but as he has to maintain a sort of regal state his case is different. There need be no exception taken to England's paying these large salaries to public servants of tried service, high ability, and proved administrative capacity. All the world will agree that their responsibilities are not incommensurate with their remuneration. But this proposition be granted, as sound in principle, then the remuneration of the United States President at once stands condemned as preposterously inadequate.

RAILROAD MEN AS STATESMEN.

By a somewhat curious coincidence the new head of the British navy, like the head of the United States navy, is a railway man. Lord Cawdor, who succeeds Lord Selborne at the admiralty, has for ten years been chairman of the Great Western Railway, one of the most important railroad systems in England. He attained to this position not because of his title, but by sterling business capacity and untiring energy. During his long service, moreover, he proved himself to be one of the most progressive of railway administrators. These are precisely the qualifications that singled out Secretary Morton for the corresponding position on this side of the Atlantic. Evidently railway management is now recognized to be one of the best schools of statesmanship.

A RUSSIAN'S PROPHECY.

One of the most remarkable prophecies on record has been dug out of a book of travels written in the year 1819 by a captain of the Russian navy named Galownin. When we remember that Japan at that date was virtually shut off from the rest of the world, the observations made by this traveler evince all the more shrewdness and truly wonderful foresight. He wrote as follows: "What must we expect if this numerous, ingenious and industrious people, who are capable of everything, and much inclined to imitate all that is foreign, should ever have a sovereign like our Peter the Great; with the resources and treasures which Japan possesses, he would enable it to become, in a few years, the sovereign of the eastern ocean. . . . However deeply a horror of everything foreign may be impressed on the Japanese and Chinese government, yet a change in their system is not inconceivable; necessity may compel them to do that to which their own free will does not impel them. Attacks, for example, like that of Chwostoff, often repeated, would probably induce them to think of means to repel a handful of vagabonds who disturbed a nation. This might lead them to build ships of war on the model of those of Europe; these ships might increase to fleets, and then it is probable that the good success of this measure would lead them also to adopt the other scientific methods which are so applicable to the destruction of the human race. In this manner all the inventions of Europe might gradually take root in Japan, even without the creative spirit of a Peter, merely by the power and concurrence of circumstances. The Japanese certainly would not be in want of teachers if they would only invite them. I therefore believe that this just and upright people must, by no means, be provoked." If these last warning words, written nearly a hundred years ago, had been kept in mind by Capt. Galownin's countrymen, what a deal of misery and humiliation would have been spared this day to proud and brave Russia.

Attention to Detail.

Perhaps the most perfectly organized fighting force in the world is the British navy. In what other service could such an incident as that reported from Sydney be possible? The cruiser Pylades, on her way home from Australia, ran upon a reef in Torres Straits, exactly as she had done a couple of years before on her way out. Could there be a better proof of method, organization, attention to detail?—[Portland Oregonian.

Doubted Its Newness.

In a certain home where the stork recently visited there is a six-year-old son of inquiring mind. When he was first taken in to see the new arrival, he exclaimed:

"Oh, mamma, it hasn't any teeth! Oh, mamma, it hasn't any hair!"

Then clasping his hands in despair, he cried: "Somebody has done us! It's an old baby."—[Philadelphia Ledger.

Couldn't Blame Him.

"Prisoner at the bar, why did you assault this landlord?"

"Your Honor, because I have several children he refused to rent me a flat."

"Well, that is his privilege."

"But, Your Honor, he calls his apartment house 'The Roosevelt.'"

"Case dismissed."—[Pittsburgh Post.

THE PLAYHOUSES.

BELASCO. In "Charley's Aunt," by Brandon Thomas, the Belasco stock company has a farce well calculated to bring out the risibilities of the most hard-boiled play-goer. The plot is extremely improbable, of course—but who wants to see a probable farce? We are moved to laughter a hundred times by the antics of the spurious aunt—who has come from Brazil, "where the nuts come from"—and thus the extravagant bit of foolery serves its purpose.

The Belasco players showed a lack of finish in their rendition of this farce last night, but the fault undoubtedly will be remedied, to a great extent, as the week progresses. Later, no doubt, they may achieve to a more complete mastery of their cues. However, as a company gives a new play every seven days, it is only the carping critic, perhaps, who picks too perceptibly at the flaws. Still, the Belasco players would do well to remember, now and again, that vociferous elocution is not acting.

Lord Babberley, who masquerades as aunt to Charley Wykeham (Mr. Vivian.) Mr. Barnum is very funny in this role, and he adds a delicious touch of pathos to it in the last act. The other humorous parts are those of Mr. Oberle as Sir Francis Chesney, Mr. Scott as Stephen Spettigue, and Mr. Galbraith as Jack Chesney—all of which are acceptably rendered.

The women of the company have little to do except to look pretty and be a feminine foil to the masculine humor," and they perform this pleasing duty with much success.

BRANK. Theodore Kremer's Port Arthur is as Occidental as its name. Manchuria is populated by slangy Japanese gentlemen of presumably Oriental ancestry and such colloquialisms as "What in thunder do you mean?" "In heaven's name, what alls you?" "That beats all." "Good gracious! I should say so!"—these are but samples. Kremer and his thrillers are right up to date—and for the most part the date is all that is worthy. A few stereotyped sensations done into brown, yellow or white satisfy, as the locale may determine.

Kremer blows up the Retvizan—with the assistance of William Desmond—and fortifies the outer defenses—with the assistance of William Desmond—and shows up the nobility of the Japanese and the utter baseness of the Russians—with the assistance of Will-Desmond and Bennet Southard. Kremer's Russians are more impossible than his Japanese; the latter have at least one word—"honorable"—which they overwork cruelly, but that at least has a spice-point of Oriental elegance. The Russian invites, though, have not the slightest trace of anything in Guardom about their names. Cassini, Bitagoffsky, Count Fedora and Olga are but mere cognomens hitched onto simon-pure Connecticut Yankees of true down-east flavor.

The patent quick-rising play also [illegible] very strongly of a borrowing [illegible] Belasco and Long's beautifully [illegible] "Darling of the Gods;" here [illegible] some of the principal Japanese characters: Yo-San, Yuki-San, Kato; [illegible] them pretty closely allied in nature to the chrysanthemum [illegible] the other drama.

The basis of the plot is of course based on a love story. Kajaro Kato, [illegible] with Yuki-San, marries her in the first act. With a daughter's affection she hides her father in a marsh. To keep him from falling into the [illegible] hands of his own countrymen, who would do him to death as a Russian spy; the occasion is seized by Yo-San, a rival, who seeks to determine Yuki-San in the affections of her husband; she succeeds, and the rest of the play, dealing with love and hate, is devoted to straightening out the tangle—which is woven of improbabilities, and kinks itself into still more fantastic shapes during the unwinding.

Edmond, Blanche Hall, Louise Russell, John Burton, Phoss McAllister, Henry Stockbridge, Bennet Kilham and Jessie M. e Hall get the best performances possible from their [illegible] parts, and the show at least [illegible] part of the audiences. [illegible] a passing sigh for the old days of [illegible] excellence, when the Burbank stage set the standard for the [illegible]

ORPHEUM. With Willy Zimmerman impersonating famous composers and conductors, with Miss Marie Stuart and Clayton White back at the [illegible] with their clever comedy "Paris," and with a decided novelty on the boards in the form of Mc[illegible]'s Minstrel Maids, there is no [illegible] on in the high grade of vaudeville which has ruled at the Orpheum [illegible] vaudeville house all winter.

It is some time since there has been a one-act farce at the Orpheum, and [illegible] presented by the White-Stuart company being a good one is very welcome. It contains many passages which are reminiscent of Creesey, such as "If there is, multiplied by two," "Every time I sign a check a nation goes out of business," and "Chansons Five a breezy flavor to the work of the clever pair.

The Minstrel Maids have not an original idea, but their little minstrel show is something new in vaudeville. The [illegible] is especially good, and the music is all new and catchy.

Zimmerman's impersonations this week are Brahms, Rubenstein and Wagner in addition to his best ones of last week. This man is an artist of the unique work.

Clayton White and Burrell Barbaretto present an act which is short and to the point. They call it "The Girl With the Changeable Eyes." Miss Sailor is the Girl" and she uses her eyes to great advantage. J. Royer West and Ida Van Siclen have a somewhat unique musical skit in "The College Campus." Borani and Nevaro, the [illegible] acrobatic team, and the Boises, with a sensational high leaps remain the [illegible] last week.

MUSIC AND MUSICIANS.

The Concert.

The Apollo Club's presentation of Haydn's "Creation" took place, as scheduled, last evening at Temple Auditorium. The event was marked by enthusiasm on the part of the large audience, on the part of a large audience, and an effort, considered as a whole, was thoroughly commendable [illegible] taking in some points of artistic [illegible] properly present a great masterpiece like "The Creation" takes years of study; months of preparation on the part of a director—apart from that of a chorus, most of whom are equipped with trained voices, and a good understanding of the work in part of all concerned. Of necessity [illegible] weeks are not to be gained in the weeks taken for the mastery of a work of this sort here in Los Angeles, and the result is of course to be judged by other standards than those of honest aspiration.

There is in Mr. Barnhart's aggregation of amateur excellent "raw material" which is most promising. Given [illegible] men and women, working together in concerted vocal music under the leadership for a number of years, and the body of which Mr. Barnhart has [illegible] is the leader [illegible] tion, for Mr. [illegible] chorus, has [illegible] tures during [illegible] rio, and says [illegible] ing to inspire [illegible] in a lot of [illegible] ral singing.

MUSIC AND MUSICIANS.

Concert.
Ebell Club's presentation of ydn's "Creation" took place, as nounced, last evening at Temple Auorium. The event was marked by ch interest on the part of the large ber of amateur singers, equal enthu-
m on the part of a large audience, ch effort, considered as a whole,
s thoroughly commendable ough in some points of artistic ect.
properly present a great master-ce like "The Creation" takes years study on the part of a director—spent ny months of preparation on part of a chorus, most of whom ld be equipped with trained voices, and h an understanding of the work part of all concerned. Of necesy, these are not to be gained in the ort taken for the mastery of a k of this sort here in Los eles, and the result is of course be judged by other standards than those of honest aspiration.
h a body of excellent "raw maial" as Mr. Barnhart's aggregation
, it is most promising. Given ter and women, working toher in concerted vocal music under ch leadership for a number of years, and the result would be a choral body of which any city might be proud.
Mr. Barnhardt's method of interpretation has gained in grace and force, albeit the orchestra uder his tutelage, very good at times, has a tendency to stray from the straight paths at other moments. "The Creation" was directed better than any other work Mr. Barnhart has attempted here in Los Angeles. This is not saying, however, that the leader has arrived at ultra-perfection, for Mr. Barnhurt, as well as his chorus, has been making amateur ventures during the past year in oratorio, and says of himself, "I am directing to inspire the idea of good music in a lot of people who want to do choral singing."
Considered thus, as an amateur presentation, "The Creation" is commendable, and its promoters, singers and directors have been engaged in a praiseworthy undertaking.
Of the soloists little need be said, save that their work, without exhibiting features of extraordinary merit, fitted well into the ensemble. The best of the trio was Miss Maude Reese-Davies, possessor of a brilliant soprano voice, clear in quality, penetrating in its strength, and discriminatingly used.
Homer Henley, basso of San Francisco, exhibited budding talents and a tendency to overwork them. He was heartily applauded by the audience.
Spencer Robinson, tenor, did con amore the work assigned him, but his voice is not fitted for oratorio singing.
At the conclusion of the oratorio the Ellery Band—which did not mingle in the choral climaxes, presented a programme of four magnificent numbers—the "Tannhauser" overture, the "Lucia" sextette, the fantasia from Boito's
"Mefistophele," and a solo by the great little clarinetist, Artonio Decimo.

Over 800 New Wash Waists
Third to Half Under Value

Such a statement, coming at the very beginning of the wash waist season, is somewhat startling—and calls for a reason.
They're the samples from which our regular manufacturer sold his season's productions.
They'd served his purpose. He figured that it would be better to take a sharp loss and be rid of the whole collection at once than to have them linger and interfere with the work on next season's waists—so here they are at a third to half under what we should have to charge had we paid their real worth.

The Collection Includes
Waists of white lawn, beautifully trimmed with embroidery, lace and insertion.
Waists of black lawn, of colored percales and madras cloths, trimmed in every way Fashion approves.
Waists of white linen, with dainty hand embroidery and lace; others with drawn work. Waists of white China silk, elaborately trimmed.
Doubt if such a varied assortment of washable waists was ever before shown in the Southwest.
And it's certain that new waists were never before sold here, at the beginning of their wearing season, at prices averaging so much under their actual value.

$1.25 Waists	$ .85	$ 7.50 Waists	$ 4.75
2.00 Waists	1.00	8.00 Waists	4.00

CROWD MORBID SEES ANTONY.

CROUCHING AND SPRINGING HE CAUSES STAMPEDE.

Prisoner Brought Back to San Bernardino is Resentenced to be Hanged, but With Stipulation that He is to be Examined by a Lunacy Board in Marin County.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN BERNARDINO, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Superior Judge Bledsoe this afternoon resentenced Miguel Antony to be hanged at San Quentin between sunrise and noon Friday, June 9. It is stipulated that the prisoner is to be examined before a lunacy board in Marin county on application of the prison warden. He was started north tonight.

Sheriff Ralphs is of opinion that Antony is shamming insanity, though the felon's antics have convinced many persons here that he is really afflicted with softening of the brain. He slept but an hour on the way down from San Quentin, and during all the time he was awake he was violent, rolling his eyes, muttering and spitting.

His presence in the Sheriff's office attracted a crowd of morbidly-curious people, who blocked the rooms all the morning. Antony crouched on the floor, and at times would start toward the crowd, stampeding them.

DEWEY'S NEW TACK.

Chester A. Dewey today dismissed his contest of his late wife's will, substituting for it a suit against Mrs. H. H. Harkinson and other heirs under the will to quiet title to a $10,000 orange grove at Ontario and a replevin suit to secure considerable personal property, valued at $2500, both suits alleging that the belongings sued for are community property.

SAN BERDOO BRIEFS.

The temporary injunction recently obtained to restrain Mary Carson, a resident of the Chino school district, from attending the Ontario High School, was dismissed this afternoon.

Frank Wilson, the Santa Fé brakeman recently convicted of manslaughter, for having shot and killed Louis Depuy at Barstow several weeks ago, was sentenced by Judge Bledsoe this afternoon to ten years in the penitentiary.

COLTON.

RIVERSIDE GIVES UP BURGLARS.

COLTON, April 3.—The two Mexican burglars, Miguel Talamantes and José Godines, who were captured in Colton on Saturday and taken to Riverside, were brought back to Colton this afternoon to answer to the charge of highway robbery.

Juan Pacheco, the Mexican who was robbed of $35, in South Colton on the night of March 25, identified these men as the ones who had done the work, and had a warrant issued for their arrest. They were arraigned this afternoon before Justice Hanna and held to answer.

While there were several charges of burglary against these Mexicans in Riverside, and the stolen goods were found in their possession, the officers though it would be impossible to prove a case against them and so discharged them.

METHODIST CLERGY MEET.

The monthly Methodist preachers' meeting of the San Diego district was held this morning in the Methodist Church at Colton. There were present Rev. Dr. F. D. Mather of Ontario; Rev. C. R. Grey of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Redlands; Rev. J. C. Livingston of Rialto, Rev. L. D. Loyde of Highgrove, Rev. F. D. Ashley of Arlington and Rev. Robert Barton of Colton, Rev. Grey read a paper on "The Last Days of St. Paul."

HEAP BIG INDIAN.

The gigantic red man, Coldsweep, found on the Indian reservation near Yuma som etime ago, was on exhibition in a window of one of the local drug stores today. He is 7 feet 1 inch in height, weighs 425 pounds, and wears a No. 14½ shoe. He is 29 years of age.

COLTON CROSSING JOLTS.

Congressman George B. Curtis of Clinton, Iowa, was in Colton today. He is president of the Bloomington Land and Water Company.

Graham Widmeyre, a senior in the Los Angeles High School, and a former resident of Colton, visited friends in this city Sunday.

Jesse Beach, a Colton young man and a Stanford graduate, has accepted a position as chemist for the Quartette Mining Company in Nevada. He left Colton Saturday for his new work.

TRYING RANGER FOR BURGLARY.

SAN JACINTO MAN ACCUSED OF TRUNK BREAKING.

Active Fight Being Made for the Defense—Stir Among the Women's Clubs and Many Meetings—Judge Noyes Vacates Order Declaring City Bee Ordinance Unconstitutional

RIVERSIDE, April 3.—J. L. Taggart is on trial today before Judge Noyes and a jury on the charge of burglary. Taggart, who was formerly a forest ranger, is accused by W. H. Lake of the theft of $275.

Lake and Taggart boarded in the same house in San Jacinto, and Lake went to Redlands one day in January. On his return he had occasion to investigate his strong box, an antiquated trunk, and found that his money was missing.

As Taggart had disappeared, he took it for granted that he must be the culprit. Taggart was arrested a few weeks later, but none of the old man's money was found concealed about his person. Byron Waters is defending Taggart, and is infusing considerable spice into the case.

ACTIVE IN CLUBDOM.

This afternoon the Socoro Club met with Mrs. George Crawford of Magnolia avenue, when it continued its study of Thibet. Other club meetings of the week will be the general assembly of the Woman's Club, Tuesday afternoon, in Oddfellows' Hall, when the programme will include papers on "Luther Burbank," by Mrs. Herrick; on "Joseph le Conte," by Mrs. Hewitt, and "John Muir," by Mrs. S. C. Evans. The Extemporaneous Drill Club will meet at Oddfellows' Hall Wednesday morning, when "Some Bits of Travel" will be read and special musical selections given. There will be a meeting of the art department of the Woman's Club Thursday afternoon, in Oddfellows' Hall, at which papers will be read by Mrs. S. C. Evans "On Japan," and "On George Innes," by Miss Minnie Harris, and violin solos, given by Miss Maury. On Friday afternoon, taking the place of the regular Shakespeare class, will be a Shakespeare lecture-recital by Edgar C. Abbott at the home of Mrs. Martin Chase, on Victoria avenue. The subject to this recital will be "Othello." The postponed Shakespeare class will take place next week, Friday.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL DELEGATES.

Among the delegates from Riverside churches who will attend the Sunday-school convention which will convene in Los Angeles tomorrow are Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Baily, Col. J. R. Strang, Miss Frances Strang, Miss Wenona Difani and Miss Margaret Shiels from the Presbyterian church; Mr. and Mrs. George Ringo, George Holman, I. Willhite, Miss Ada Shepherd, Mrs. B. D. Parker, from the Christian church; Miss Davis and Miss Howard, from the Congregational church, and Mrs. L. Irvine, from the Methodist church. Several churches are not sending delegates on account of the Bulgin revival services, which are in progress in this city.

VACATES BEE DECISION.

His decision of Saturday declaring the city bee ordinance unconstitutional was vacated by Judge Noyes today. He also ordered that the case be opened for further hearing. He held Saturday that it is unreasonable to forbid the keeping of bees in the outskirts of town in hilly or other places where they are not likely to be a nuisance.

RIVERSIDE JOTTINGS.

Tom Kabori, who is accused of attempted rape on a young white girl, entered a plea to the charge this morning, declaring himself innocent. His case was set for trial on the 17th inst. The little Jap will be defended by Mayor McFarland, in his private capacity as attorney, and L. Gill.

Judge Noyes has handed down a decision in the case of the Anaheim Union Water Company vs. Aros and others, finding for the defendants. Two hundred inches of water from the Santa Ana River was the issue.

Mrs. George Collins has won championship honors for bowling in Riverside. She has 229 to her credit. A ladies' tournament will be held Wednesday evening at the Hess alleys, when Mrs. Collins and Von der Leith will be entered against Mrs. A. J. Miller, the crack lady bowler of Los Angeles.

Today the County Clerk issued five marriage licenses, four of which were to out-of-town parties. They were: John W. Shipley, aged 48, and Miss Emma Smith, aged 29, both of Los Angeles; George E. Bagley, aged 23, and Anna Evans, aged 19, both of Los Angeles; Vincent Van Valer of Redlands, aged 22, and Mildred May Bliss of Beaumont, aged 18; and Theodore W. Truitt of Kansas, aged 21, and Ethel E. Drew of Los Angeles, aged 18. The Riverside young people who seek permission to wed are Charles Arthur Watkins, aged 20, and Gertrude M. Atkins, aged 17.

ELSINORE.

THROWN FROM BUGGY.

ELSINORE, April 3.—J. H. Hayworth, who returned Saturday from a visit with his family in Los Angeles, was thrown from a buggy Saturday evening and severely bruised on the face and arms.

Mrs. James Balfour has gone to Los Angeles to remain until July with friends. Her husband is absent on a European tour.

R. P. Davies is here from Grand Junction, Col., the guest of relatives.

WHEEL HORSES IN FAST RACE.

CRUCIAL STRUGGLE NOW ON IN SANTA ANA.

Not Much Eating and Not Much Sleeping During the Last Week of the Campaign Between the No-Saloon and the Liquor Forces. Gibbs Trial Moves Slowly.

SANTA ANA, April 3.—The aggressive public campaign of the No-Saloon party in the municipal election contest was opened yesterday with two rousing rallies in the Operahouse, addressed by Dr. E. S. Chapman of Los Angeles, State superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League.

In the afternoon Dr. Chapman dwelt upon some general phases of prohibition in relation to the problems presented locally and in the evening devoted his talk largely to "blind pigs." The speaker made the claim that blind pigs are fostered by the presence of saloons. He made a strong plea for friends of temperance to stand solidly in favor of the continuance of the prohibitory law. The audience in the evening completely filled the building and was demonstrative in its applause of the sentiments enunciated by Dr. Chapman.

The No-Saloon Committee has arranged a big public rally and demonstration for every evening before election day, which will be next Monday. This evening Rev. J. H. Garnett of the First Baptist Church is the speaker; tomorrow night Rev. Dr. Atkinson of Los Angeles will give an address on the prohibition issue.

Following him on Wednesday evening will be short talks by representative business men, on Thursday by local speakers, on Friday by Rev. Mr. Montgomery of Los Angeles, and on Saturday by Hon. Will A. Harris of Los Angeles. On Sunday the campaign will wind up with afternoon and evening mass meetings at which Rev. C. J. Hall, who was here two years ago in the same cause, will be the speaker.

The two factions in the fray are warming up to the contest and as the outcome of all the issues in the campaign is in doubt, no effort is being spared by either side to line up their forces.

GIBBS TRIAL MOVES SLOWLY.

The retrial of Henry Gibbs for an alleged infraction of the prohibitory ordinance was resumed in the Superior Court today, but the entire day's session resulted in the choice of only three of the twelve jurors. Those accepted today are R. J. Webster, C. H. Meacham and J. M. Prothero. The regular venire of thirty was exhausted to secure these three and court adjourned at a late hour after issuing a special venire for forty men, returnable at 10 o'clock tomorrow.

CUT AND SLASH AFTER THE BALL.

KERN COUNTY MASQUERADE IS FOLLOWED BY FIGHT.

B. Fine With Knife Savagely Attacks W. Fugitt Who is Severely Injured About the Body and Arms and Who is Carried Away in a Critical Condition.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BAKERSFIELD, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] There were razors in the air Saturday night at Glennville, when, following a masquerade ball, Bunchard Fine, a well-known resident of Woody, assaulted William Fugitt with a knife, stabbing and slashing him until they were separated by bystanders.

Fine gave himself up at once to Constable Boen of Linns Valley and was brought down from the mountains. The cutting is said to have been the result of jealousy on the part of Fine.

The people of Linns Valley and the surrounding country gathered at a masquerade ball at the town hall, and there was the usual good old-time country dance.

Fugitt was there in mask, and it is said that Fine conceived the idea that he had paid too much attention to his (Fine's) wife.

Later, when the two men met at the hotel, Fine, without a moment's warning, rushed upon Fugitt, and began cutting him with a knife. Fine has but one arm, but he did much execution.

When Fugitt was undressed it was found that he had received several severe cuts. The worst ones were found beneath the right nipple and in the back. He was also slashed across the arms and body.

The wounded man expressed disinclination to have Fine arrested. He declared he did not wish to prosecute him, and said: "If he dies it's all right."

Both men are well known throughout the mountain country.

The company will very soon begin extensive work in this city to improve its service.

MID CANNIBALS.

Perhaps Ollinger and Miller Were Killed and Perhaps Not—Knox Staked Them.

No word has yet been received from Gus Ollinger and Henry E. Miller, who are supposed to have been killed and eaten by the cannibal Zeri Indians of Tiburon Island.

It was learned yesterday that the men were staked by a Los Angeles syndicate, of which George W. Knox is attorney, and that they went to Lower California in search of a famous mountain of radium which a man known as "Arizona Charlie" claimed to have found on Tiburon Island, which is about 150 miles from the mainland.

Attorney Knox believes the men have penetrated into the interior of the island, and that the trip occupied more time than was thought necessary. He says that Ollinger is an experienced sailor, who would have little difficulty in crossing the channel.

Unless word is received from the missing men within the next few days, the authorities at Washington will be asked to take up the matter of a relief expedition to explore the island.

Varicocele

Will you pay a doctor your money for cure of Varicocele on his personal word regarding his ability to cure, or will you be certain to see and talk with a dozen or two men whom he has cured before you hand over a cent? Three-fourths of the men who advertise to cure Varicocele never cured one case. Don't pass lightly over the above. It means something. We are ready to show very many of the best men in Los Angeles who have been cured by our treatment. We have been curing Varicocele in Los Angeles 11 years.

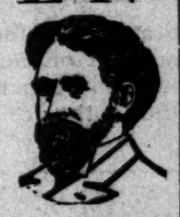
Contracted Disorders

Of all the diseases peculiar to men, contracted disorders are the most abused cut-and-try, hit-and-miss treatments administered by good friends, druggists, doctors in general practice, and most of the would-be specialists. It is certainly interesting to hear the story of the average patient telling his experience with the different kinds of so-called treatment he has been up against. A large majority of our patients come to us with all the original disease and part or all of the combinations, resulting from delay and mistreatment. We generally have to cure them after some or all of the following conditions have developed: Stricture, or all of the chronic bladder troubles, diseased prostate, sores, swellings, etc., besides a patient whose confidence and mind are diseased through failure and disappointment. Don't trifle with these disorders; go to a doctor who knows how to cure you; it is the cheapest, surest and shortest way out. We have been 21 years in the business.

Stricture

I can do more for stricture in three days with my improved, modern, up-to-date method than could be done in three months with the old, painful, sound treatment. I can cure nearly every case in ten days, and by a cure I mean the stricture will never give any further trouble. Remember, my method is absolutely free from pain—and is certain in every case.

MEN



We are Specialists for Varicocele, Hydrocele, Stricture, Piles, Fistula, Blood Diseases, Contracted Diseases, Private Diseases, Loss of Vital Power, Kidney and Bladder Troubles.

Vital Decline Can Be Cured

Vital decline, commonly called weakness, is the result of a diseased condition. This disturbing cause is nearly always found in the prostate gland, where the nerve center is located. The prostate becomes affected by one or more local diseases, indiscretions, excesses, varicocele, etc. We published years ago the first information ever given out on prostatic trouble as the cause of vital weakness, since that time our theories have been accepted by all the best eastern specialists, and at the same time every pretended specialist copies our advertisements, knowing absolutely nothing of our successful means of relieving men of this trouble. No one but a thorough specialist can succeed in curing these conditions. Anybody can advertise, but the genuine specialist only can satisfy the patient and give him value received.

H. C. WARDEN, Agt., 109 Stimson Block, Los Angeles.

Has your trouble become chronic through neglect or improper treatment? Half the failures to effect a cure is due to guesswork through the mail. The unreasonable treatment of many conditions is the direct cause of chronic troubles, due to improper measures, and many are treated for conditions that do not exist. I do not treat symptoms.

I Accomplish More in One Week by Treating the "Exact Cause"

Than can ever be accomplished by guesswork through the mail. Those who take my treatment are cured. Personal treatment and facilities adapted to the requirements are the foundation for quick and permanent cures. I wait for my fee until you are cured.

Functional Decline

There are many men who believe their condition to be one of physical weakness and are generally treated upon such lines, when in reality the functionating power only is affected, which may be due to many causes, overwork, worry, excesses, dissipation, and the evil effects of wrong living. To remove the exact cause responsible for the trouble by personal treatment.

My Treatment Cures

It Restores the Natural Order of Things

Varicocele

Many men have treated unsuccessfully for this condition. Will you continue to pay for something you do not get? Or would you prefer to see and talk with many reliable men who will tell you they have been cured by my treatment? This means much to you. My method of cure is the only one to my knowledge that will give complete satisfaction, and restore strength to the affected parts; the fact is, I effect cures that cannot be made by other methods.

Stricture

Due to contracted diseases, painful caustic remedies and improper treatment, causes ulceration and deep-seated inflammation. My treatment is the most effective, completely removing every vestige or sign of stricture, restoring the membrane to a healthy condition.

Contracted Diseases

Has your trouble become chronic through neglect or improper treatment? Failure to quickly cure these conditions and due to caustic remedies, which aggravate rather than cure, and is the direct cause of chronic bladder trouble.

Kidneys and Bladder

Troubles frequently exist as a result of neglect or in connection with urethral diseases. In functional derangement of the kidneys and bladder my treatment restores a perfect physiological condition and a healthy action.

APRIL FOOL FOR WATERHOUSE.

SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATE IS A MUCH-SURPRISED MAN.

Pasadena's Municipal Election Results in a General Landslide—New Mayor Postpones Grand Rapids Trip—Will Take Office First of May—Auto Leaps on to Sidewalk.

PASADENA, Office of The Times, No. 24 South Raymond Avenue, April 4.—In the city election yesterday the members of the Waterhouse ticket were all chosen along with the general landslide. C. J. Crandall won out over Richard Metcalfe by 160; Waterhouse beat Slavin by 646; Fayette Dyer beat William Shibley by 33; W. T. Root beat J. E. Kent by 517; E. R. Braley reads. There is a clause in favor of giving employment to local workers on city jobs and great things are assured along sanitary lines. Opposition is expressed to the Mayor and Councilmen having free telephones or free transportation.

Much of the credit for Waterhouse's election is undoubtedly due to the indefatigable efforts of ex-Mayor M. ... Weight, who declined the candidacy for himself, and put his shoulder strongly to the Waterhouse wheel. Other hard workers were the following members of the successful candidate's Campaign Committee: Walter Morrow, Isaac Springer, M. H. Weight, Robert S. Allen, W. D. Medill, George F. Kernaghan, Dr. W. D. Turner, Charles H. Towle, J. C. Rust, William C. Crowell, John S. Cox, C. H. Grimes, A. H. May, Stephen C. Clark, Dr. M. O. Randall, C. M. Jacques, George T. Downing, Henry H. Klamroth, Dr. A. H. Palmer, C. S. Pratt, Nathan White, Dr. C. L. King, Prof. R. E. Ford and Virgil S. Lockett.

Following is a statement showing the total vote on each of the candidates respectively:

For Mayor: William Waterhouse, 1147; S. M. Munson, 1041; George Frost by 79; Heman Dyer beat P. H. Quinn by 1396.

"It has been the April fool joke of the year," said William Waterhouse this afternoon when informed that he was pretty likely to be elected Mayor. Last night when the returns came in, which showed that he was elected by 646 majority, he immediately made arrangements to postpone an automobile trip that he had planned. It was a great surprise. Waterhouse had made up his mind some time ago to go to Grand Rapids for three weeks on a business matter to attain which was he of his defeat or election. He did not until the last minute allow his intentions to leave be known.

The Slavin forces admit that somebody has been fooled. They will be several days figuring out what it was. Perhaps it was Mrs. Grinnell's birds. That's as good as anything, for Slavin had practically all the old dyed-in-the-wool politicians in town, almost. Not one of them yesterday morning did they realize that it was anything but a cinch. The first intimation of trouble was when James Clark, the veteran of many a tough tussle, burst into Slavin headquarters with an irritated look on his face and said, "Here, you fellows get out and do something. That bloomin' crowd has two men working in our one in every precinct." And the note of warning proved to be well taken.

Chairman Matthew Slavin admitted his defeat at 7:30 o'clock. He sat in his office in the Slavin block and calmly answered inquiries that were to have been conditions but had to be made over to circumstances. "I'm all off," he said. "I can't tell what happened and I guess there isn't anything to be said about it."

The new Mayor, who will take office the first of May, has many decided traits of character, which his friends declare will stand him in good stead in the discharge of his official duties. He is a shrewd business man, an earnest church member and a man of good learning. During his residence here he has taken a prominent part in the affairs of the Lake-avenue Congregational Church, being one of the trustees and a member of the Building Committee. He is a strictly temperance man and does not belong to any secret order. He has taken his chief pleasure in yachting, caring for his handsome place at the corner of Lake avenue and Villa street and with his large family. Mr. and Mrs. Waterhouse have two children.

Mayor Waterhouse was born in the Hawaiian Territory, in Au... and received the early part of his education there. In February, 1... went to school near London, after which he returned to Hono... where he was employed with his father, Thomas Waterhouse, and brothers, John and Henry Waterhouse, in the wholesale and retail general merchandise business. He was married in 1876 to Miss M. P. Smith, daughter of Dr. Jerard K. Smith of Honolulu, Hawaiian Territory, an American who spent his life for the benefit of others. Soon after his marriage Waterhouse moved to Cedar Rapids, Iowa, where he engaged in the wholesale and retail furniture business, which he conducted for ten years or more. Following this he was proprietor of the Grand Hotel of Cedar Rapids, which he had failed under two previous managers. After making a success of the business he sold out to good advantage. He lived in Cedar Rapids for many years and during the early part of his residence there was one of the directors of the Cedar Rapids Water Company. He has made his home in Pasadena for ten years and during that time has engaged in active business for himself and others.

The Waterhouse platform pledges an honest and progressive administration, improvements based upon integrity and ability, and pledges economy and zealous guard of the people's interests in the matter of valuation and taxation with a view of securing fairness in the assessment of all properties in the municipality. The pledge is made in favor of public ownership of utilities and municipal operation of the water-bond question.

We pledge ourselves to expedite and meet the demands of the people in every particular at the earliest possible moment. That's the way the platform reads.

AUTO ACCIDENT.

Miss Mary Tomak, a young woman employed in the News bindery, was seriously hurt yesterday noon by being struck by Dr. A. Sherman Hoyt's automobile. The accident is pronounced scarcely excusable because the victim was on the sidewalk at the time. The machine was being driven by Richard West, who was learning to guide it.

Miss Tomak was walking eastward on Colorado street and was just passing Skillen & Skillen and the Sargent Shoe Company stores. Without warning, the big automobile leaped from the street and caught the woman and pinned her against the brick wall that joins the two stores. She was rendered unconscious and when picked up was bleeding from the ears. Dr. F. C. E. Matthon worked over her an hour before she regained consciousness. She was taken to the Pasadena Hospital, where her hurts were found to be very severe, but not necessarily of permanent seriousness.

Mrs. Sherman Hoyt of Buena Vista street, her cousin, Richard West; Miss Hamilton, Miss Reed, Miss Dorothy Hoyt and Charles Foy, the latter an automobile repairer employed by E. R. Braley, were in the vehicle at the time. The party had been on a long trip east of town and West, who was new to the business, was learning to run the machine.

As they came into the business section Foy wished to take charge of the controller, but West thought he could manage it. And so he did until he happened to grasp the wrong lever which caused all the trouble. Not only was Miss Tomak badly hurt, but a new bicycle belonging to Physical Director Claude Braden of Throop, was smashed and Will B. Smith, who occupies a wheeled chair, would have been hurt had not Dr. Ralph Skillen seen the danger and hurriedly pulled him away.

CLUBHOUSE ASSURED.

At a meeting of the Building Committee of the Shakespeare Clubhouse yesterday, it was practically assured that the handsome new edifice can be erected this summer. It will be one of the city's prettiest improvements and will be located on a lot on South Los Robles avenue, which the club purchased a year ago for $3000 and which now has a market value of $4000. The women expect to go ahead with the building, beginning actual work about June 1. Arrangements will at once be made to raise $1000 more, when a $10,000 clubhouse will be started. They will be able to swing the whole proposition then with the aid of a mortgage.

ANOTHER COCKFIGHTER.

N. H. Williams, colored, was fined $100 yesterday by Justice Klamroth upon the charge of having been present at the cockfight along the Los Angeles River last May. As time is more plentiful than money with Williams, he will serve 100 days in jail to square up for that short time of pleasure he had a year ago watching the chickens claw each other.

SHORT ONES.

Rev. Malcomn J. McLeod, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, is reported to have refused a salary of $12,000, offered him by a new church in another part of the country. Rev. Mr. McLeod says his work lies in Pasadena and he likes it.

This evening the Elks will have annual installation of officers, followed by a banquet. Grand Exalted Ruler W. J. O'Brien will install.

Prof. George Wharton James, left yesterday for a six months eastern trip, accompanied by Mrs. James and daughter.

Manuel Uribes is under lock and key on the charge of disturbing the peace of Felice Martinez of North Pasadena.

William Allen Moore, aged 33, a native of Pennsylvania, died yesterday at No. 434 North Marengo avenue.

The death of Miss Regina Veale occurred yesterday morning at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Veale of No.451 North Pasadena avenue. She was a native of Canada and had lived here sixteen years. The funeral will be held at the residence Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

SANTA MONICA.

HEART DISEASE KILLED BARKER

SANTA MONICA, April 3.—Coroner Trout this afternoon made official inquiry into the death of Lewis C. Barker, the Ninth-street painter who was found dead on the floor of his home last night. The conclusion reached was that death had resulted from valvular heart disease. No inquest was deemed necessary. The funeral will be conducted Wednesday under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias and Fraternal Brotherhood, of which he was a member.

POMONA.

ORDERS PLANT TREES.

POMONA, April 3.—By far the most elaborate arbor-day exercises Pomona has ever held took place here this afternoon. Business houses were closed from 2 to 5 o'clock, during which time crowds thronged the public library grounds, where speeches and extensive tree-planting contests were held.

A parade was headed by the Pomona Band, and composed of city officials, Pomona Lodge of Elks, the Women's Relief Corps and officials. Speakers of the day and citizens formed at the corner of Second street and Garey avenue, and marched to the library grounds. Dr. Robert P. Shepherd was the main speaker, his witty and earnest address being on "Civic Corporation for Pomona Beautiful."

The unique feature of the afternoon was the tree-planting contest, in which nine of the prominent lodges of the city were entered. The first prize, a handsome silk flag, went to Pomona Hive of the Lady Maccabees, and the second, a set of silken pennants, to the Rathbone Sisters.

Following the exercises many drove to Ganesha Park, where among other tree planting, an oak was set out in memory of James A. Garfield, given by Mrs. Garfield, now living in Pasadena.

COVINA.

FLAMES AMONG DRUGS.

COVINA, April 3.—A fire of unknown origin started shortly before 1 o'clock today in the rear of the Covina Pharmacy, while the proprietor, R. Baker, was at dinner. The prompt response of the volunteer fire department saved the building, but considerable damage was done to the stock by water from two lines of hose. The damage is about $500. The same premises narrowly escaped destruction by fire two weeks ago by the upsetting of a spirit lamp.

The baseball game between Hoegee's Clowns and the Covina team yesterday, resulted in a victory for the home talent, the score being 4 to 7.

H. J. Prince, who has been successfully handling the orange crop of "Lucky" Baldwin in bushel baskets, shipped a car of fruit from Covina yesterday to the Sound markets, packed in a similar manner. The experiment is being watched with considerable interest.

BURBANK.

CHRISTIAN FORCES JOIN.

BURBANK, April 3.—Union gospel meeting of the Presbyterian, Christian, Holiness and Methodist churches was held in the Methodist Church last evening. The Salvation Army was in full swing, being represented by Staff Capt. Campbell and wife, Capt. Reed and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Griffin, Miss May Sillwill and Mr. Wilson, all of Los Angeles.

The funeral of Mrs. Emma Eustice took place in the Presbyterian Church today. The Rev. D. McCunn conducted the services. She leaves a widower and one daughter.

FLORAL FEAST AT MONROVIA.

WEALTH OF BLOOM AT THE WOMAN'S CLUB EVENT.

Young Ladies Ransack the Washes and Canyons of Neighboring Country to Gather Rare Wild Blooms for Unique Reception—Each Member Wears Her Favorite.

MONROVIA, April 3.—The cañons and river beds which mark the borders of Monrovia on the east and west were robbed of a wealth of wild bloom to ornament the Woman's Club House for its regular monthly social this evening which the hostess planned as a flower reception. Two school girls, Clara Cronenwett and Margaret Orr, penetrated to unfrequented recesses to reach the rarest of the volunteer flowers.

In the bed of the San Gabriel River, between bowlders which the recent heavy flood swept from their place, there have sprung up unusual specimens which were swept from the cañon sides. On the thinnest sandy soil in the wash these seeds, all ready for bursting when washed from the cañon side, quickly took root and are now yielding the most beautiful flowers. Wild poppies were used profusely in decoration. Added to their rich coloring was the yellow daisy, whose spread over the fields at the east of the city has well won it the name of cloth of gold.

Cluster lilies, with long slender stems supporting a bunch of crowded blue-bells were gathered from nearer the foothills. Wild larkspur, baby blue eyes, wild lupine and beautiful flowering grasses of all colors were formed in bouquets which filled jardinieres at effective points. The most remote nooks of the cañons had been invaded for sheafs of coffee fern and tall brakes, which furnished the foliage for background. The wild Chilicothe was draped from the rafters of the open ceiling.

The programme of the evening provided that each club member should wear her favorite flower and give a story of its habits and growth or some favorite quotation or original verse describing it. Refreshments were served by the hostess, and those assisting her. Among some of the flowers represented were: The forget-me-not, by Mrs. J. H. Bartle; wistaria, Mrs. J. G. Cross; California poppy, by Miss Belle Combs; shamrock, by Mrs. J. W. La Force; sunflower, by Mrs. Homer Fort; iris, by Mrs. Louise Butts; field flowers, by Mrs. Annette Nye.

LONG BEACH.

DELAY IN CONVENTION HALL.

LONG BEACH, April 3.—There will be another delay in the building of the convention hall. The architect has estimated all along that the building could be constructed for $26,000, but there was a surprise when the bids were opened. George Beard bid $36,000 without piling, and Hooley & Thompson $37,000 under the same condition; Richard Loynes bid $7600 for the piling and the Atlantic, Gulf and Pacific Company bid $7950 for the foundation. J. G. Van Houten bid $54,082 without the piling and $63,582 for building complete. A bid for $62,400 from a Los Angeles firm was received by telephone this afternoon, but was not considered. All bids were rejected and the trustees will meet Tuesday afternoon with Architect Newson to consider changes and take further action.

SOLDIERS' HOME.

REAPER'S TRIPLE HARVEST.

SOLDIERS' HOME, April 3.—Death in his dealing with the veterans here is very erratic. For the closing week of March, with its shivering wind, but two deaths are of record in the home. Today, notwithstanding the "balmy breathing air" of the past two days and its prospective continuance, four bodies lay on the slabs of the home morgue.

William R. Walker, late of Co. H, Fifty-seventh Massachusetts Infantry, retired to his bed in ward 1 of Co. F last evening in sound health, and with a joke on his lips as taps sounded "lights out." The usual silence prevailed until nearly 2 o'clock this morning, when he aroused his comrades with a request for the surgeon. Before the latter reached him, he had passed to the beyond.

Walker had been a member of various other branches of the national home since 1889, but came to the Pacific branch from Illinois in 1903, in the hope that the climate here would afford that relief which he was unable to find elsewhere. Heart disease—among a complication of disabilities—regards not climate, however, and the end came suddenly as in life he had hoped for. He was a native of Massachusetts, and aged 62.

The Coroner has been notified, but it is not expected that an inquest will be deemed necessary.

The pen of the Wildcat Mining Bunco Steerer is mightier than the sword of the ordinary highwayman, since it secures the purse of the public by creating gold where none exists, locating mines where they are not, and paying promisory dividends in deferred hope.

An Investment in the Legitimate

Tonopah and Goldfield Mines

Has Founded Scores of Fortunes

But the Golden Key of Success in Mining is to Know in What Mines to Invest, When to Buy, and At What Moment to Sell

Ninety-Nine of every hundred investors in mining stocks buy on misinformation as to the merits of the mine in which they invest; and usually at flood tide of a rising market, just in time to take the stock of the Hundredth (the Insider) who is unloading to realize his profits.

If you are contemplating making an investment in Tonopah, Goldfield, Bullfrog, or Kawich mines, permit us to call your attention to the advantages of our

Investment Certificate

As an alternative to dealing directly in any of the hundreds of stocks — representing bonanzas, prospects and wildcats — of these new El Dorados.

Only the Inside Buyer has the information at the right moment to secure the most favorable investments and thereafter to keep in touch with mine and market changes. These Investment Certificates are designed to give outsiders the opportunities and security of insiders. They are safeguarded by the closest information obtainable concerning the condition and development of the mines and the fluctuations of the price of stocks. We make no guarantee other than that we are in a better position to know the facts concerning a stock than the outside public, and that we eliminate from your investment the danger of putting your money into a Wildcat. If a strike is made which is likely to lead to an advance in the stock of any mine, we try to know it before the public in order to take advantage of the rise in the stock. If developments in a mine are not promising we try to know it before the public so to dispose of our holdings before the market falls.

The Total Sum represented by the par value of these certificates we invest in such stocks as in our judgment will prove most profitable; buying at the most favorable time and selling the moment we believe a stock is over valued.

A Trial Balance of Investments is taken on the last day of each month by subtracting the par value of all outstanding certificates from the aggregate market value (determined by that day's closing quotations on the San Francisco stock boards) of the stocks and securities we hold plus uninvested cash. If that difference represents a profit, we deduct fifteen per centum as our commission, disbursing the balance as an immediate dividend to certificate holders. We receive no commissions otherwise.

We Guarantee nothing further than honest and faithful service in handling your money, and full and itemized information in our monthly reports concerning all transactions.

These Certificates are sold at one hundred dollars each and are redeemable at the option of the holder according to the terms expressed in the certificate. Remit in multiples of one hundred dollars by New York draft, registered letter, Express or Post Office money order.

The bears were unusually active on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange yesterday, and once more succeeded in hammering down favorites. The bidding took a wide range and despite the efforts of the bears, several of the better class of securities closed strong at advanced quotations.

Associated Oil stocks gained ¼ point, closing at 30, but on the street a broker sold 2500 shares at 30½. Union lost ½ point, closing at 78½@80.

In the mining list, Nevada Chief advanced ¼ point, but there were no bids, and Nevada Keystone, which has been inactive for some time, was offered at 25, but there were no buyers.

American National Bank stock gained ½ point, 10 shares selling at the closing asked figure of 114½. Home Savings also gained 1½ points, undoubtedly on the strength of its first annual report published in these columns on Sunday. The stock closed strong at 57½@58.

Home Telephone bonds went off a fraction, closing at 90¼@91, and Mt. Lowe Railway declined ⅛ point. Union Transportation was offered at 96½ but there were no buyers at that figure.

Edison Electric common sagged, closing at 79@80, while the preferred stock gained 2 points and advanced 1, closing at 78@81. Home Telephone stock went up ½ point, and declined ¼, closing at 49½@50¼. Los Angeles Brewery declined 5 points, but there were no bids at the close.

The sales reported yesterday on the Stock and Grain Exchange were 3000 shares of North American Nitrate at 1½, and 30 of Home Telephone at 49½.

Lloyd L. Elliott, manager of the Merchants' Trust Co., left on the Owl for San Francisco yesterday in connection with large bond issues.

Los Merchants' Trust Company has issued a valuable booklet on the law governing the descent of property in the absence of a will directing its disposition.

NEW YORK MARKETS.
SHARES AND MONEY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, April 3.—A party in the speculation made its presence felt today that was ready to proceed on the assumption that with the April money market settlements out of the way, there was no reason for any further restraint on an active demand for stocks. Some restraint, nevertheless, made itself felt in the day's operations, as was shown by the halting and irregular manner of the price movement, and by the moderate volume of the transactions. The activity in the railroad list was very largely confined to a few stocks, while the mass of securities in that department was sluggish. The first animation in the railroad list was awakened by renewed consideration of the topic of the Northern Securities case. The report was circulated early in the day that the decision in this case was to be handed down on the reassembling of the court at noon after the spring recess. Union Pacific sprang into prominence, as had been the case whenever this subject is actively discussed in the stock market. There was a renewed assumption that the final disposition of this case was the event awaited for the putting into force of long-rumored projects of a Union Pacific and New York Central combination. In today's market large buying of the Erie stocks was executed in such a way as to give the appearance of something from the same source, as the Union Pacific and New York Central buying. The effect was a leap to the conclusion that the Erie was to be included in the supposed combination. The first report from the Supreme Court after noon indicated a stay, which might involve a further indefinite delay, and prices in the group had a sharp setback. In the industrial department much was made in a general way of the high degree of activity in all trades and industries, and of the prosperous conditions existing. But these were supplemented by detailed reports having a specific bearing on many properties. The Southern iron stocks were again conspicuous in connection with the merger reports. The United States Steel stocks were comparatively quiet. There were rumors of a dividend in National Biscuit and reports of a successful outcome of the Mexican Central suit with a rival. The New York public utilities, on the contrary, suffered from the imminence of a decision on the constitutionality of the New York franchise tax. The most important restraining influence was found in the money market. The conditions there did not relax at all completely as had been hoped by the speculative element would occur after April 1. Sterling exchange also was well maintained, although discounts dropped in London, where the after-effects of the quarterly settlements are always felt very decisively. The weekly statement of the Imperial Bank of Germany showed the extent of the quarterly settlements by the huge changes in its principal items, cash on hand increasing $12,360,000, while the other securities were increased $63,609,000, and the circulation was expanded $85,146,000. The immediate future of our money market is doubtless dependent upon the rapidity with which the enormous requirements on foreign banks are readjusted. Reports of railroad traffic and of domestic conditions continued highly encouraging. The stock market closed irregular, and at the top for very few stocks. Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $5,230,000. United States registered 2s were ¼ per cent. higher on call.

EVENTS IN SOCIETY.

COUNT HOLSTEIN of Rocky Ford, Colo., who is here for a short time, entertained with a dinner party at the Van Nuys Hotel, followed by a box party at the theater. His guests included his mother, Countess Holstein, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Otis of Pasadena, Miss Leila Simonds and Warren Carhart. Count Holstein is a frequent visitor here, though he makes his home in Rocky Ford. Last winter he spent much time here, being a great favorite among the young set.

"Tom Thumb Wedding Feast."

Yesterday afternoon a meeting of the ladies' auxiliary board of the House of the Good Shepherd was held, and Mme. Ida Hancock was elected president, as Mrs. Emeline Childs had resigned owing to ill health. The members of this auxiliary board are now planning a large affair to be given Saturday, May 27, for the benefit of the House of the Good Shepherd. It is to be a presentation of "The Tom Thumb Wedding Feast," and there will be more than two hundred and fifty smiling tots taking part in the production. The whole affair is to be given on the Huntington grounds on South Main street, where the wedding itself will be given in its entirety, with Tom Thumb and his bride and Count Rosebud and all the rest of them to grace the occasion. There will be many children who will take the part of spectators. Beside the wedding there will be various other amusements over the grounds, and the idea now will be carried out in all its grand details by these ambitious women, until it will doubtless take on the largeness of social aspects of the Barlow fete, which will live long in the memory of all who saw or participated in it. "The Tom Thumb Wedding" was given in a Colorado city not long ago for a charitable object and was a brilliant success. Doubtless the very uniqueness and originality of the idea will make it a brilliant function. Mrs. Hancock is making great plans and assisting her are Mrs. Gregory Cotter, Miss Marie Mullen, Miss Lynch, Mrs. Charles T. Whitney, Mrs. Randall Hutchingson and a host of others. The children who will take part and others who will assist have not as yet been chosen, but will be announced later.

For Miss Poole.

Mrs. Charles A. Walton of Thompson street gave a very enjoyable little musicale yesterday afternoon for Miss Ethel Poole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Poole of No. 2347 Thompson street. The home was filled with fragrant flowers and after a pleasing programme by Miss Ethel an appetizing collation was served. Among other numbers given with rare expression and brilliancy by this young girl were: Barcarolle, G Minor (Rubenstein;) Etude, Opus 104 (Mendelssohn;) Consolation, No. 4 (Liszt.) Two of Schumann's were especially interesting, "Furchtenmachen" and "Kind im Einschlummern." Beethoven's "Sonate Pathetique, Opus 13" was given a brilliant rendition by the talented miss.

At Japanese Play.

Last evening the Burbank Theater extended the courtesy of a box to Mrs. M. A. Ludden of the Japanese Daily News or Rafu Shimpo, published in this city. Mrs. Ludden is the only American woman on a Japanese paper and she, with her friends, witnessed the play, "The Prisoner of War," a Japanese plot. With Mrs. Ludden were Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Warden, Miss Violet Sarney of Searchlight, Nev.; E. T. Ludden and John Bailey of Chicago.

Washington Irving Club.

Mrs. Marc C. Bettinger entertained the Washington Irving Club at her home on South Flower street. Luncheon was served at 12:30 and at 2 p.m. Prof. L. F. Curtis gave an address on "The Real and Legendary King Arthur." At 2:30 the English literature lesson was taken up by Mrs. C. B. McClure, on Milton's "Paradise Lost," this being followed by a discussion of plans for the Irving birthday banquet, to be given by the club at the home of Mrs. A. R. Cass on West Thirty-third street. Mrs. Cass is president of the club.

Dinner at Angelus.

Wesley Crothers gave a smart little dinner last evening at the Angelus Hotel as a special courtesy to Miss Eva Wheeler and Edward Dean Lyman, whose wedding is to be solemnized Wednesday at Unity Church. Beside the guests of honor and host, covers were laid for: Misses Mercedes De Luna, Florence Hopper, Katharine Gridley, Mary Barnes, May Kimball, George Lyman, Harry Lamagan, Roy Barnett and Arthur Stanley Granger.

For Eastern Friends.

A pretty courtesy was the luncheon given by Mrs. Celina Campbell and her daughter, Mrs. U. Grainger Allen of No. 226 East Twenty-eighth street, for a number of eastern friends who have been spending the winter in Southern California. Covers were laid for: Mrs. S. M. Alther, Mrs. E. S. Orth, Mrs. M. Robb, all of Minneapolis; Mrs. C. De Baum of New York, Miss Olga Kiefer, Mrs. Ernest B. Allen and Mrs. Hugo A. Kiefer.

On Sunday Mrs. Hugo A. Kiefer gave a farewell dinner for the same visitors, having as guests: Mrs. F. Alther, Mrs. S. Campbell, Mrs. M. Robb, Mrs. Ernest Allen, Mrs. K. Orth, Mrs. W. Allen, Miss Olga Kiefer and Messrs. O. H. Kiefer, Clarence Campbell, W. Allen, Paul Kiefer and Ernest Allen. Mmes. Alther, Robb and Orth will leave shortly for their eastern homes.

Dr. and Mrs. Kiefer left yesterday for a six months trip East, visiting Philadelphia, New York and other large cities.

San Diego Girl Weds.

Miss Helen Hadley of San Diego and S. W. Anthony were married on Sunday at 10 o'clock at the Hotel Angelus, with Rev. Hugh K. Walker officiating. The bride is a daughter of W. E. Hadley of San Diego, and wore a stunning frock of gray crepe de chine with a picture hat of valenciennes lace and ribbon. At the close of the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served in the red room of the Angelus, and the couple left for a short wedding tour, after which they will make their home in San Francisco. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Anthony, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Palmer of Santa Monica, Mr. and Mrs. Loomis, Mrs. Charles Anthony, Miss Huston Bishop and Messrs. W. E. Hadley, E. E. Anthony and C. E. Anthony.

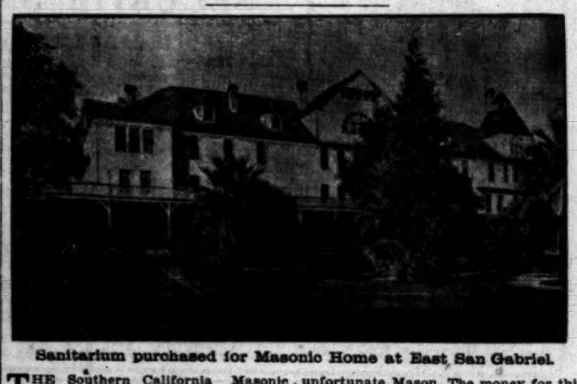
Duplicate Whist Party.

Mrs. Addiellee Buckler of Hotel Wells-Lee last evening entertained a few friends with a duplicate-whist party. The rooms were made bright with pink roses and ferns, and white roses mingled with foliage in the living-room and reception hall. Prizes included a hand-painted plate for the women and a fountain pen for the men. Refreshments were served at small tables, and places were marked with cards adorned with water-color sketches of autumn leaves. Guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. R. S. P. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Clark Carlisle, Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Wren, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rockwell, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Martin and L. B. Slosson.

Wed in Knox Church.

Last evening a wedding was solemnized at the Knox Presbyterian Church,

FINE HOTEL BOUGHT FOR MASONIC HOME.



Sanitarium purchased for Masonic Home at East San Gabriel.

THE Southern California Masonic Home Association made a ten-strike last Saturday.

It purchased ten acres of ground in the center of East San Gabriel, with a building of ninety bedrooms, besides billiard room, large music and dancing hall, and other advantages. This was formerly the hotel of East San Gabriel, and later a sanitorium, and will be turned into a permanent home and hospital for the sick and indigent Masons of Southern California, and those who come here from the East.

The piece of property valued at $50,000, was bought at auction from the First National Bank of Pasadena, for the sum of $18,150. This purchase includes the furnishings, household linen, and 13,000 pieces of silver. The building is upon a square of ground, some of it beautifully improved, surrounded by streets, with the trolley car just at the corner.

About $5000 in addition is to be spent in putting the place into perfect condition for its new purpose, and the association believes that it will mean comfort and happiness for many a poor unfortunate Mason. The money for this purpose has been accumulating in the hands of the board for several years. The larger part of it was raised three years ago by a huge Masonic fair given at Hazard's Pavilion, in which the Masons and the Eastern Star worked for success, having a vision of the future and the home as it really will become ere long.

J. F. Hughes was president of the association at that time, and continued in office until recently. The board is now composed of R. H. Herron, president; R. D. Scriber; J. F. Hughes, H. I. Cornes of Monrovia, J. W. Calvert of Azusa; Niles Pease, M. H. Newmark, and three ladies of the Eastern Star. Mrs. C. M. Musaus, Mrs. Clara B. Fowler and Mrs. Minnie D. Brown. W. B. Scarborough is secretary of the association, and Gen. Robert Wankowski is treasurer.

At a meeting of the board next Friday evening, further plans will be discussed. The ladies, however, have proposed that the home be ready to open the first day of May, and a grand picnic of the fraternity and the Eastern Star be held there on that date.

corner of Thirtieth and Grand avenue, Miss Nona Dickins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Dickens of No. 3701 South Main street, becoming the bride of P. W. Murry, with Rev. W. S. Young, the pastor, officiating. The church presented a gay and attractive appearance, filled with a profusion of callas, roses arranged against a bank of ferns and palms. The couple stood beneath a canopy effect of white tulle and ferns, and white flowers. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white taffeta over which was a slip of white mull made en traine and trimmed with shirrings and puffings. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. Miss Elsie Christian acted as bridesmaid and music for the ceremony was given by Mrs. Hattie E. S. May. A wedding was served at the bride's home, No. 3701 South Main street. Here a pretty floral decoration in pink and white was seen, and members of the family and bridal party were entertained. After a short wedding tour the couple will make their home at No. 2701 South Main street.

Trolley Trip.

A. L. Burbank and E. V. Baker entertained a number of friends with a trolley trip on Saturday. The private car "Mermaid" conveyed the guests to the various resorts along the seacoast. They first went to Hermosa Beach, returning to Playa del Rey, where luncheon was served and a ride on the lagoon was enjoyed in the steam launches. The return to the city was made by way of Venice and Ocean Park. The guests were mostly eastern visitors and included: Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Kenyon of Ionia, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Doland of New York, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Burbank, Mrs. Robert Haynes, Mrs. Ida H. Millard, Mrs. Witcher, Mrs. Campbell, Miss Burbank, Miss Sue Kenyon, Miss Gertrude Millard, Miss Helen Gridley, Miss Grace Burbank, E. V. Baker, Spencer Millard, Henry Burbank, Robert Haynes, Jr., and R. E. Burbank.

Mrs. W. E. Cumback of San Francisco is visiting her brother, Frank Cooper, of No. 2114 Oak street.

Students of the Los Angeles Business College will give a social and dancing party on Thursday evening, April 13, at Kramer's Hall.

Miss Florence Ennis of Roosevelt street has returned from an extended eastern trip.

Alfred Speer's Surprise

Well Known Business Man Tells of Peculiar Experience.

Few business men are better known thoughout the country than Alfred Speer of Passaic, N. J. Although he is over eighty-one years of age and the head of a large concern, as well as the editor of the Passaic Item, yet he found time to write the following letter, hoping that it would be of interest and benefit to our readers.

"To the Editor:—

I cannot keep from expressing my surprise at the wonderful relief and benefit I derived from the use of Hyomei. For some years past I have been a victim to nasal and throat catarrh, and during that time have expended a great many dollars to specialists, and had my throat sprayed, washed and smoked week after week. The first time I used Hyomei I was surprised at the change it brought. This was a few months ago, and I have used it occasionally since. It makes me so well that I often forget and neglect its use for several days, but each time when I breathe it the hawking and discharge cease, and it is wonderful how it acts.

I am over eighty-one years of age, and careful not to praise anything until I know what I am about.

Respectfully yours,

ALFRED SPEER."

The complete Hyomei outfit, including the inhaler, costs but $1., while extra bottles sell for 50 cents.

Druggists everywhere are authorized to refund the money should a Hyomei outfit and one extra bottle fail to afford relief. If the druggist from whom you bought does not care to do this, mail the inhaler to the R. T. Booth Co., Ithaca, N. Y., and they will refund the money at once. Mail orders for Hyomei promptly filled on receipt of price.
